EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN CITY SO-CIETY CIRCLES

And a Summary of the Happenings Elsewhere in New Brunswick-Celestial Talk-Moncton Society-Woodstock Whisper-ings, Boider Jottings, Eic.

What to do with these long, cool evenings is the query that is now agitating the minds of many. Of course, we have inminds of many. Of course, we have in-numerable parties and balls to look for-ward to, and not a very great while will elapse ere the skating, tobogganing, snow-shoeing, etc., will claim a goodly portion of the time; but during the next three months it will be very difficult to introduce a sufficient variety of entertainments to prevent that ever-dreaded monotony. Pro-gressive euchre and card parties of every description have become monotonous description have become monotonous through having to tide over so many even-ings of this dismal, loggy summer. The ladies especially realize this, and have suggested several new ideas, which will likely be more fully developed by the time the fuss and excitement of the (cnnis and artillery balls have abated.

Mrs. Carleton Allen, Mrs. Wetmore and Miss Winslow are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Holden.

The Misses Walker left Friday morning for a visit to the White mountains.

Miss Eaton treated a number of her friends to a most enjoyable picnic last Thursday. The porty were driven to Indiantown, where they took the steamer Clifton for Hampton, where they spent a real jolly day.

Mr. Wetmore Merritt and bride are en pected home this evenieg. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Parks and family will board at the Dufferin hotel this willter.

Miss Kenney and Miss Sellers who have been visiting friends in this city, left last Monday for their home in Philadelphia. Dr. Murray McLaren and bride arrived home Wednesday evening. Miss Kate Ferguson, from South Boston, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs Travis. Mrs. Grundy says that two professional gentlemen figure among the weddings for week after next.

Mrs. C. Brady, ot Somerville, Mass., is visiting her sister, the wife of Dr. McPherson, at Haupton. Miss Sarah Peters and Miss Katie Gerow left for Detroit, Tuesday, where they will spend the winter with friends.

All the week the tennis grou an exceptionally gay appearance, but more interest and attention seemed given to the coming event than to the game. The ball was discussed in all its phases, and by Thursday everybody had a pretty good idea of what everybody else was going to appear in on Friday evening, and they certainly were not disappointed in the lovely appearance of a great many.

CELESTIAL TALK. FREDERICTON, Sept. 19. — The "At Home" at the barracks last Friday evening was quite a brilliant affair, and much en-joyed by all who were present. Mrs. Maun-sell received the guests, who numbered be-tween 50 and 60 in the mess parlor. The mess room was used for dancing, as was also the preifily illuminated veranda, by where they will probably spend the entire winter. They will be more missed than I can readily express, and we all feel that Fredericton is gaining largely by our loss. Miss Decker of Boston has been paying a short visit to town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams. Miss Maud Trites of Port Mulgrave is visiting Mrs. Tupper, of Moncton. Miss Willis of Fredericton, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Talbot, at the recmess room was used for dancing, as was also the preifily illuminated votanda, by those who preferred it. The supper room was kept open all the evening and the mu-sic was good. All the ladies looked very nice, as usual, and one or two dresses were mentioned as particularly handsome. This pleasant enteriainment broke up about 1 o'clock o'clock. Fredericton is very soon to lose two of Fredericton is very soon to lose two of her most pleasing young ladies for the win-ter - Miss Marguerite Bailey and Miss Maggie Allen. Miss Bailey and Mer brothers, Messrs. J. W. and Wm. Bailey, will lcave the city next Tuesday for St. John, where they will remain one night, taking the boat the following mouning for Boston. Miss Bailey will spend the winter in Providence, where she will resume her violin studies. Mr. J. W. Bailey returns to Harvard. Miss Julia Mauger will ac-company them as far as Boston, where she intends making a short visit. Miss Allen will spend the winter in New York. Mrs. Etta Fenety leaves Fredericton to-

Mrs. Etta Fenety leaves Fredericton to-morrow, with her children, for Cambridge, Mass., where she intends making her future home. The good wishes of her many friends will follow her.

Mrs. George Y. Dibble has moved from the "Queen," and is now very pleasantly situated at the Barker house. Mr. Dibble 1s in Newfoundland. Dr. Dyde and his bride arrived in this city Monday, from Kingston, Ont. I hear that one of our leading lawyers is to be married next Tuesday, to one of Fredericton's fair daughters. Perhaps this will put others in the notion and we may yet have a number of these interesting events take place this autumn. I hear there are three other lawyers soon to follow

Miss Austin, of Quebec, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Capt. Maunsell, at Fern Hill. Rev. Walter Taylor and Mr. T. H. Cu-rie leave soon for Harvard university. Mr. Arthur Akerley will leave Fredericton Thuesday for Toronto, where he will attend the exhibition, before going to Mc-Gill. He will be the guest of Rev. Mr. Pearson. There are a number of Fredericton boys who will attend McGill college this year. Among those who were there last year are Mr. D. Harrison and Messrs. Brodelick

Mr. Percy Chandler, of Moncton, and Mr. J. Y. Smith of Dorchester, returned this morning, from a short pleasure trip to St. John him back again. Miss Chipman has thrown open her art studio to visitors, for three days of this week, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, and the work exhibited is well worth in-spection. It is almost entirely that of pupils, Miss Chipman showing very little of her own handiwork. The studio is prettily decorated, and the number and excellence of the paintings displayed speaks excellence of the paintings displayed speaks marvellously well for the diligence and application, to say nothing of the talent, of the young pupils. Miss Chipman is so successful a teacher that she seems not only to develop, but almost to create, talent in her students, and some of the studies are really surprising. Mrs. George Mc-Sweeny, Mrs. J. F. Wilbur, Mrs. C. J. Butcher and Mrs. J. R. Foster, all exhibit paintings, Mrs. McSweeny's painting, on China being especially noticeable. Next come the younger pupils—Miss O'Neil, of whom I have spoken before, Miss Stevens, Miss McKenzie, Miss Stronach and Miss Campbell. Where all show so much merit, it is hard to particularize. But I must speak of a panel of "black-eyed Susans"—(your correspondent has heard a long Latin name for them, but cannot think of it at present)—by Miss O'Neil, and a large free-hand study of Fleur de lys, by Miss McKenzie, both of which are unusually well done. Another charming painting, by Miss Stronach, is a fisher girl sitting on the gunwale of her boat, gazing out to sea, probably thinking of her fisher lad; and still another, a tiny landscape, on a brass placque, by Miss Stevens. But on a brass placque, by Miss Stevens. But I must not describe any more, or I shall be making my letter too long; so shall only

The ball room was, of course, the large audience room on the top story, and persons who have never seen it save upon ordinary occasions, would not have recognized the from their summer home at Charlo. apartment. Union Jacks draped the walls year Mr. Duvernet and McManus. In Jack, son of Mr. Melville Jack, Messrs. Dow and Andrew Coburn, Mr. William Scovil and Mr. Kincaid will be added to the number. They leave for Montreal next week.

Mr. Harry Fenety will leave a week from Saturday for Harvard, where he will resume his studies in law.

Prof. Roberts and his family will return to Windsor Oct. 1. Mr. Goodridge Roberts will accompany them, and resume his studies at King's college. The coadjutor bishop was expected home last evening, but did not arrive until today.

He came over in the same steamer with the metropolitan.

Mr. Edward Jack has gone to Newfoundland.

Mr. Morris Scovil and bride were registered at the Queen last Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. Atherton left for their home, in Toronto, Saturday morning.

Mr. George W. Allen is visiting his friends in Fredericton.

Mr. Ketchum, M. P. P. for Carleton, was in this city yesterday. Mr. Jack Harris, of Moncton, is visiting riends here.

Miss Harrison has returned from her visit at Sheffield.

Judge and Mrs. James, of Halifax, were among the guests at the Barker house, last week. Mr. A. S. Murray, manager of the Merchants' bank, is taking a fortnight's vacation. Mrs. Robert Peak, of St. John, is visiting at the residence of Mr. George Palmer, Northumberland street.

Messrs. James and Ernest Peak, of this city, leave next week for Boston. One will study dentistry, and the other will attend the school of technology.

The press excursion arrived here this afternoon, by the Northern and Western railway. Mr. A. M. Fraser, of Halifax, made one of the party. The excursion leaves in the morning for Woodstock, but Mrs. Fraser will spend tomorrow in Fred-STELLA. ericton.

MONCTON SOCIETY.

MONCTON, Sept. 19. - Autumn trips seem to be the order of the day. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harris, Miss Harris and Mr. Jack Harris departed last Thursday for Quebec, where they will probably spend at least a week.

Mrs. H. T. Stevens and Miss Hallett returned on Wednesday from their month's visit to Carleton, feeling refreshed and in-vigorated by their long holiday.

Miss Addie McKean returned last Saturday from Boston, where she has been spending the last two months greatly to her own pleasure and profit and to the despair of her friends. Miss McKean is looking usual taste, decorated Berryman hall beau- charmingly bright and well after her long visit and to say that we welcome her home is to express it all too faintly.

Mrs. David Lindsay and her children, and Mrs. King, returned on Wednesday,

Rev. J. Roy Campbell of Dorchester, trom ceiling to floor, tennis rackets were crossed upon the walls, flowers in profusion Mrs. David Dickson, and her childre have arrived home, after their long sojourn and the whole effect was greatly heightened missed, her bright presence being like a gleam of sunshine, wherever she goes, and she is cordially welcomed back.

BORDER JOTTINGS.

ST. STEPHEN, Sept. 20.-The Misses McPeak, of Fredericton, are in town, the guests of Mr. Philip Breen. The Misses Breen gave a very pleasant party, last week, to their numerous young friends in honor of their guests. Prof. W. F. Ganong, of Harvard and Mrs. Ganong are visiting friends. Mr. Ganong has been recently engaged in scientific research in Grand Manan.

Prof. H. J. Bridges, of Fredericton, has been spending a few days with Mr. C. H. Smith.

Misses Laura and Gertie Gregory, who have been spending the summer months among us, have returned to St. John. Mr. Thomas Odell, of St. Andrews, was in town Tuesday.

Miss Blanche Boardman, of Bangor, is visiting friends in town.

Miss Maggie Todd has returned from Bangor.

Mr. Harry Wilbur, formerly of the Courier staff, is at home for a brief vacation. He returns to Boston on Monday. Mrs. J. D. Chipman has returned from St. Andrews. His Worship Mayor Chipman has been suffering for several days from a severe attack of illness, but I am pleased to learn that he is now recovering. Mr. W. H. Edwards made a flying trip to St. Andrews on Wednesday. The many friends of Mr. Albert Clewley will be sorry to learn that he is dangerously ill, and but little hope is entertained of his recovery. Miss Fortune, of Boston, who has been spending the summer at St. Andrews, is visiting friends in St. Stephen.

The week has been unusually devoid of any social excitement, but there are hints of coming events, which, together with the time-honored weather, keep the conversa-tional ball rolling. It is said that one of our most popular dry goods clerks is soon to launch his craft on matrimonial seas. A stranger remarked the other day, says the Echo, "I think your Halifax girls are lovely, but they do not make enough of themselves." I just report this speech. Whether the gentleman meant that the fair sex were not extravagant enough in dress or that they were wanting in dignity is to
