The fire on Monday brought together a The fire on Monday brought together a number of the young people, who watched the blaze until the heat became so intense that they had to seek shelter in a coollooking porch, where they soon forgot the excitement in the discussion of the parties that are on the tapis for the next month. The one especially looked torward to will be the "coming-out" party of a young favorite, lately returned from across the water. The programmes are being designed and painted by the young lady, and will, I presume, be kept by her friends as a souvenir of the occasion.

With the fall the activity in the social circles increases. Card and dancing parties take the place of the tennis, picnic and boating parties, and the cool evenings make the opera and the drama more pleasurable. One sport gives way to another, the circle of pleasure remains unbroken and even though the autumn bears an air of the mournful let it be greeted with welcome. with welcome.

The Queen, says a London paper, is rather fond of a straw hat, and one of the latest photographs represents her at an al fresco breakfast in the bosom of her family, wearing a head garniture of this primitive species.

"Can a young man marry comfortably on $500 a year?" asks a correspondent. Yes, he can; but he will be deuced uncomfortable afterwards. - Burlington Free

Mr. Stewart and Miss Stewart, Toronto, Mayor and Mrs. Hazen, Mrs. Dever and family, Mrs. Inglis and family, Mrs. Murray and family, Mrs. and Miss Tibbitts of Fredericton. Rumor tells me of a number of weddings on the tapis for next month. These, I believe, will take place on the 6th, when the pretty little church at Rothesay will likely be aplittle church at Rothesay will likely be appropriately decorated by the friends of one only weep behind her veil of clouds, and of the young brides, and Trinity church will probably be filled by the innumerable friends of the second bride, while the third wedding, I fancy, will be at the bride's home. And now I'd be really happy if I could tell of all the newly-found happiness of a number of our young people, including bank clerks, lawyers,—yes, and even ministers—but you know I must not. Mr. and Mrs. Sellers and Miss Kenney from Ridley Park, Philadelphia, are the guests of Mrs. John McAvity. Miss Twining, of Halifax, is visiting her friend Miss Elder.

A thoroughly enjoyable party was given at the residence of ex-mayor Sturdee last evening. Like all other entertainments given by Mr. and Mrs. Sturdee, it proved a success in every way and the guests, I think, without one exception were sorry to bid adieu to their kindly host and hostess. CELESTIAL TALK.

FREDERICTON, Aug. 22.--Mrs. Dr. Osborne returned to her home in St. Andrews on Friday last. Miss Kelly found the Celestial city more attractive than her sister and remained until Thursday of this week, when she will leave for Calais, much to the regret of her many friends in this city.

Several ladies and gentlemen of this city decided to try the pleasures of camp life for a short time, and spent a couple of days on one of the Islands above Fredericton. They enjoyed it very much indeed.

Mrs. James Thompson left Fredericton Tuesday morning for St. Louis, with her stepson, Mr. Eldridge Thompson, superin-tendent of the Terminal Facilities railway system of St. Louis. If the climate is agreeable Mrs. Thompson intends making St. Louis her permanent home with her sons. She leaves many warm friends in this city who regret her departure. Mrs. Thompson has been a very active worker in the W.C. T. U. for many years.

Mr. George Botsford is here from Boston visiting his parents at their residence on Brunswick street.

Mrs. Hilton-Green is visiting friends in Dorchester.

Mrs. Dr. Gregory is in the city, making her daughter, Mrs. E. Allen, a visit. Miss Sadie Smith, of St. John, is in Fredericton making her friends a visit before she leaves for England. Rev. G. G. Roberts preached in the cathedral, Sunday evening, and Miss Car-man, organist of St. Anne's church, played the organ, in the absence of Mr. Bristowe, dent is unable to state positively.

the provinces, he finds it is not an advantage to bring companies during the hot season. His experience has been that during July, August and September attractions are not liberally patronized and barely pay expenses, so that rather than take heavy risks, he has played no companies this summer. Beginning early in October, some good comedy companies are to appear here. Fredericton prefers comedy and melodrama to any other class of plays, and this rule predominates throughout the states. Tragedy does not draw well in Fredericton, the fault generally being that although we may have a strong star, the support is in most cases poor. The popular prices here are 25, 35 and 50, and in some cases our people are satisfied to pay 75 cents, but the latter price is not agreeably digested.

The new scenery which has recently been placed in the City Hall is nothing very grave in an artistic sense. The whole set has a very cheap look about it, and your correspondent would not care to allow much for its value after one or two years' usage. It does not pay to buy scenery of too cheap a grade, and as the present scenery, complete, cost somewhere in the vicinity of $300, not very much can be expected.

The demand for Progress is on the increase in Fredericton. Several persons evening, were unable to do so, as the supply was exhausted early in the day. The dealers informed your correspondent that they could have sold double the usual supply on Saturday last. Our people appreciate a first-class, live paper, and are bound to have Progress if more will have it to have Progress if money will buy it.

MONCTON SOCIETY.

Moncton, Aug. 22.—In former years we were taught to believe that the moon took entire charge of the weather, and if later experience raised a doubt in our minds on the subject, the last few weeks have fully convinced us of the fallacy of the idea, and impressed upon our minds the fact, that the weather has taken entire charge of the moon, and holds the bit between his teeth so firmly that poor Luna wish St. Swithin had never been born. But still, we of the Canadian Hub are doing our best to be, like Mark Tapley, "jolly under adverse circumstances," and to take all the enjoyment we can out of life.

On Friday evening, Mrs. Judge Botsford gave a very pleasant party in honor of her houseful of young visitors. The first part of the evening was devoted to progressive euchre, and after the prizes had been awarded and distributed, the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, which was kept up until a late hour. Moncton, like St. John, has no lack of fair maids, but on this occasion the honor of belleship was borne away by an American damsel.

Mr. Carman Bliss, of Richibucto, was in town last week paying a short visit to his cousin, Mrs. John McSweeney.

Miss Leila Botsford returned to Fredericton on Friday. Her departure was hastened by her father's illness, but I am glad to learn that Mr. Botsford is now considered convalescent. Miss Bessie Botsford will remain in Moncton for a short time Mrs. John Campbell's friends-and their name is legion-are delighted to have her with them again, after an absence of seven weeks spent among relatives in Fredericton and St. Andrews.

Miss Louise Peters, who has also been shedding the light of her countenance upon the St. Andrews folk for the past five weeks, returned on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson, of New York, who have been spending a month with Mrs. Blair Estabrooks, returned to their home on Monday. They have thoroughly enjoyed their stay in the "North Countrie" and express themselves more than pleased with Canada and Canadian hospitality.

Mrs. P. S. Archibald paid a flying visit to Moncton last week, coming down on Saturday afternoon, to meet her brother and little son, who arrived from the eastern States, on the night train, and returning with them, on Monday morning, to "The Beaches."

Mr. and Mrs. Talbot and family have returned from Shediac, looking all the better for their summer by the sea.

Miss F. S. Chandler, and Miss Phebe Chandler, prid a brief visit to Moncton on Saturday. The latter was on her way home from a month's visit to Bathurst, and looked if possible more charming than ever.

Mr. Burns, formerly of the Bank of Nova Scotia here, is back again in Moncton, visiting friends. Our town is said to possess a very strong attraction for Mr. Burns, but whether this be so or not, your correspon-

Mrs. Oliver Jones and her two little girls left, on Tuesday, for St. Martins beach, where they will spend a few days.

The many friends of Mr. Metzler, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, will be grieved to hear that he has lost his mother. It will be remembered that he was summoned home a few weeks since by Mrs. Metzler's music from the military band.

St. Andrews, Aug. 23.—The event of the week has been the appearance of some extraordinary menus, which, designed by a waggish member of the Land company, brought in the names of almost every guest at table.
