CELESTIAL TALK.

FREDERICTON, Oct. 10.—Between the heavy rains and the fall house-cleaning, I have very little social news to write this week, one quiet wedding being the only thing of interest. This was celebrated at the residence of Mr. John Edwards, sr., at an early hour yesterday morning, when his youngest daughter, Miss Jennie Edwards, was united in marriage to Mr. George Hodge, son of Mr. James Hodge. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J Mowatt. There was neither groomsman nor bridesmaid. The guests included only immediate relatives of the two families. The bride wore a green travelling dress. After a breakfast at Mr. Edwards', Mr. and Mrs. Hodge left by the Flying Yankee for a tour to Boston and New York. They will reside in Judge E. L. Wetmore's house, Charlotte street.

The many friends of Judge E. L. Wetmore will regret to learn that a few days ago, near his home at Moosomin, N. W. I., he was thrown from his horse and had his collar bone dislocated.

Mr. Frank I. Everitt, who has been in Mr. Neill's hardware store, left for San Francisco, Monday, where a situation awaits him. His friends in this city wish him all success in his new home.

Hon. B. R. Stevenson, of St. Andrews, Sheriff Tibbitts, of Andover, was in the city today, on his return from Dorchester. Mr. and Mrs. Oaks spent one night in the city on their way to their new home in Wolfville, N. S. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Gaunce.

Mrs. M. S. Hall and Mrs. Fred. Fisher are going to Augusta, Ga., and other parts of the south to spend a portion of the win-ter among their friends. Mr. Hall will go after Christmas and return with them. Miss Laura Wood, of Boston, is visiting her friends here. Mr. H. S. Carman, formerly of Fredericton, now of Boston, is visiting Fredericton friends. He will return to Boston next

Mrs. Judge Steadman will leave the city next Friday for Boston and New York. She will attend the W. C. T. U. convention which will be held in New York this

Mr. Wesley Vanwart and his bride arrived home this evening. The Fredericton brass band serenaded them and a large bonfire was lit in front of Mr. Hume's residence, King street. Mr. and Mrs. Vanwart will board for the winter at Mr. Wm. Long's, on the corner of George and St. John streets.

MONCTON SOCIETY.

Moncton, Oct. 10.—The ladies of Dorchester have issued invitations for a leap year ball, to take place on Friday, the light, and the eyes of all our society friends are at present fixed upon the shiretown. Dorchester has always been celebrated for light of Mr. And Mrs. Newton Worden are labeled was in St. John last week.

tion of a rector. Mrs. R. B. Boggs, of Amherst, is spending a few days in town, before proceeding to Halifax, to recruit after her long and severe illness. Rev. Mr. Vroom, rector of Shediac, spent a short time in town, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Ryan left Moncton last week, for their new home in Truro. They were followed by the sincere regret of the many friends they have made, during their stay in our town; and it will be long ere the void they have left in our little circle can be filled. CECIL GWYNNE.

And now a something, called a paper festival, is to be forthcoming on Hallowe'en. As the ladies of Trinity are the leading spirits, it will, of course, be a success. On Thursday afternoon last Mrs. James N. Clark held a very pleasant reception for her friends in Calais and St. Stephen.

On Wednesday evening of last week, a merry party of young people assembled at the residence of Mr. W. H. Stevens, surprising the hostess, Miss Alice Stevens, and passing a most delightful evening.

Miss Mabel Burns has left us to spend the winter at her home in the west. Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jones, who have been for some weeks the guests of Mr. Z Chipman, returned Saturday from a trip to St. John and Fredericton. During their stay in the latter city, they were the guests of Sir Leonard and Lady Tilley. Rev. Mr. Shore has returned from his trip to Charlottetown. Rev. Mr. Mowatt, of Fredericton, will be present at the reopening of the Kirk on Sunday next.

Mr. George Moore writes in the Universal Review, protesting against the worship it is now popular to pay to actors. The art of the stage he ranks low, and the morality of the stage lower. Miss Caroline B. Le Row, who compiled English as She is Taught, which Mark Twain found funny enough to introduce to the public, has in press another and com-panion volume, The Young Idea, or Common School Culture, which Cassell & Co. will publish.

Presentations of Flowers.

A hint to geutlemen desiring to present flowers is given by a writer of much taste, as follows: "Let the salesman send them loose, in a box, that the lady may select those she chooses to wear, and may arrange or use the rest according to her own taste." A bouquet is, after all, an affair of artifice and formality. They are rarely beautiful—generally infinitely less beautiful than a single camellia or a single rose. A basket of flowers is better; but if it have a "design," it becomes, as a rule, hideous. Nothing can be less attractive than gilt paper horns of plenty etc., made of flowers. The same is true of tin foil, wires and handles. Nature can not be improved upon in this manner.
