PROGRESS, SATURDAN, OCTOBER 13. PROGRESS, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13.

JUBILEE OF THE CHIEF

[CONTINUED FROM SSCOND PAGE.]

A Dominion Appointment.

In June, 1878, Chief Justice Allen was appointed in place of the late Governor L. A. Wilmot, the arbitrator on the part of the dominion government, to determine the northern and western boundaries of the province of Ontario. Chief Justice Harrison was the arbitrator for Ontario and Sir Edward Thornton, the British minister at Washington, was the third arbitrator. From various causes, the meetings of the arbitrators, previous to the death of Governor Wilmot, had been delayed, and it was necessary to meet and determine the question without further delay, but as Chief Justice Allen had been assigned to hold the Westmorland circuit in July, at which the trial of the Osborne family for the alleged murder of Timothy McCarthy by the consequences of his acts. He was was to take place, and which he knew would occupy a month, he informed the government that he would not be able to attend the arbitration probably before the beginning of September, and if it could not be postponed till that time, he would be obliged to resign the appointment. He was informed that it could not be further delayed, and his resignation was accordingly accepted, when Sir Francis Hincks was appointed in the place of Chief Justice Allen. The award was made Aug. 3.

The Chief Justice Visits England.

Sept. 24, 1884, the chief justice sailed from St. John for Liverpool, having obtained four months' leave of absence, reaching St. John, on his return, Feb. 10, 1885.

The summary of the leading incidents of an historic career would be incomplete without the following :

MARRIED-At the Valley church, Portland, St. John, July 3, 1845, by the Rev. William Harrison, rector, John C. Allen, Esq., barrister, Fredericton, to Margaret A., second daughter of the late Col. Charles Drury, of St. John, formerly captain in the 29th Regiment of Foot.

In the field of politics, Mr. Allen never knew defeat, and of the various offices held all came unsought.

were born in the same month of the year 1820, and both came of sturdy, vigorous an- by his old fellow-student Wetmore. Strong cestors. They were lads of strong physique que, full of youthful energy, and had about | array of the leading counsel of the time. them that grit and push which is the touch-The future had its honors in store for these three men. The country lawyer was Edward Barron Chandler, who died some forty years later the Governor of New Brunswick. The students were Andrew Rainsford Wetmore, now senior judge of the supreme court, and Acalus Lockwood Palmer, judge in equity and second in seniority on the bench.

Even to this day, some of his remarkable exploits are told among the traditions of for the legislature. A few years later, after Dorchester. He was not afraid of anybody. or anything. He was as open and frank as the house of commons. He was made a he was daring. Whatever he did was done boldly, and he was always ready to abide no bookworm, but he was no idler. The law was his choice and his pleasure. Heredity had much to do with this. His father had been a member of the bar, and his grandfather had died after nearly a score of years' tenure of the office of at- of New York or London. There is torney-general. With such an ancestry. the young man was sure to be a lawyer of nor is there a trace of weakness in the some kind, and he proved to be one of a composition of the man. He has that very good kind. Leaving Mr. Chandler's office, after three years of study, he completed his term in the office of George Jarvis Dibblee, at Fredericton, and was admitted an attorney in October, 1841. He began his practice as a country stone of success in life.

lawyer in the very limited field that Oromocto offered. Soon tiring of this life, he removed to St. John, where for 20 years he was at the bar. For a time he was in partnership with B. Lester Peters, the present police magistrate, and later with Dr. F. E. Barker. He was appointed clerk of the crown in 1857, was made a queen's counsel in 1863, became attorney-general in 1866, and was elevated to the bench in 1870. Mr. Wetmore was a sound lawyer and an earnest advocate. Always self-possessed As a layman of the Church of England and master of himself, he was a crossprovincial, a representative who does honor he spared no words which could damage In politics his career was even more stormy. He was an active worker and sentiment was against a union and when the tide had turned in its favor.

Conspicuous as a Leader

those students two lads of eighteen. They rs. Clementson for breach of promise. He appeared for the plaintiff and was assisted as this combination was, it had to face an One of these was Hon. R. L. Hazen, a most able man and gifted orator, Hon. John H. Gray, another most powerful pleader, and Robertson Bayard. Despite the skill with which these gentlemen defended their client, a verdict of $4,000 damages was awarded the plaintiff.

many obstacles at the outset. He was a Confederate when confederation was mooted and the county in which he lived was bitter-Young Wetmore was a lively youth. Iy opposed to the scheme of union. As a result he was twice defeated as a candidate his removal to St. John, he was elected to queen's counsel in 1867 and raised to the bench in 1879.

> In the very good portrait of Judge Palmer which PROGRESS gives, it is easy to see the force of character which marks the man. He has that individuality about him which would compel attention from the passer-by, even on the great thoroughfares

Not a Weak Line in His Face, strength of purpose which compels him to carry out his views regardless of what people may say or think. It is sufficient for him that he feels satisfied that such views are right. He decides for himself, and not for his critics.

While Mr. Palmer was diligently reading Blackstone's Commentaries, in October, 1839, a fine healthy baby was born in St. John. In due time he was named George E. King, and he is today third on the list of puisne judges.

George E. King was a born politician. When he was a very young man the science of politics engrossed his thoughts, and at the age of 30, he was the most prominent figure in the legislature of New Brunswick. Before that time, however, he had been conspicuous among the young and enthusiastic advocates of a federal union. Two years after he was called to the bar, confederation became an accomplished fact. His election to the house of assembly at this time gave him a scope for his talents, and from 1870 to 1878 he was steadily before the people as attorney-general and leader of the government. Measures of abiding importance were discussed and dealt with in this interval. Chief of these was the school bill, of which Mr. King was the father. It was carried only after a prolonged struggle and some of the most remarkable debates ever heard within the legislative halls at Fredericton. The conflict caused an intense excitement throughout the province. Public feeling was strong on both sides, and the passage of the bill only increased the animosity of many who had bitterly opposed it from the the outset. During these years, Mr. King had ample oppertunity of learning everything there was to know about himself. On the one hand he was upheld as a A Patriot, a Statesman and a Man whose memory should be honored by children yet unborn. On the other hand he was ridiculed and and assailed with all the virulence of which a very free press was capable. But the measure was carried, and he was content. During all these years, his law practice was large. Hampered as he was by politics, he must have sacrificed much of it, had he not been associated with a very able partner. This was Fred. A. Morrison, whose natural abilities would have fitted vate life. But he was built for fighting and i him to rise to any position to which he might have aspired. With such an aid Mr. King was well able to combine law and politics, and to be successful in both. Judge King has been on the bench eight years. A kindly face, telling of "charity for all and malice toward none" is that of Judge John James Fraser. It is a true index of the man. He is one against whom in all his career as a lawyer and politician no one could harbor ill will. While a staunch friend he was always an honorable opponent. It was not in his nature to do a mean action or take an unfair advantage. His blows were strong but they were fairly dealt. Mr. Fraser was admitted an attorney in 1850, when he was 21 years old. With a perseverance due to his Scotch ancestry, he devoted himself wholly to his profession for the next fifteen years. His office was at Fredericton. He was a very successful lawyer before he entered upon the field of politics, and he might not have ventured then had not the whole country divided on Judge William Henry Tuck, the junior of the bench, has the signal distinction of never having represented a constituency in any parliament. Had his inclinations led him to seek such a position, he could undoubtedly have had it. He preferred to stick to the law, and do yeoman's duty for his party in other ways.

He was always a hard political worker. He was one of the devoted friends who stood by Sir Leonard Tilley before, during and after the days of the confedera-In the field of politics Mr. Palmer found tion battle. It was only in 1882, after he had been nearly 30 years in practice, that he consented to be a candidate on the Conservative ticket for the commons. He was defeated with his ticket. and three years later he laid aside his politics and took his station on the bench. Mr. Tuck had good preceptors in the study of the law. Three years were passed by him in the office of Hon. L. A. Wilmot, and the remainder of the course was spent in the office of William Jack. He devoted himself to his profession, in St. John, and His his merits were recognized. mercantile practice was large and as he was clerk of the crown from 1867 to 1883 he had an enormous amount of criminal business. The most famous of the cases in which he took part was the McCarthy murder trial. This was a most intricate affair, well calculated to test the ability of any man, but Mr. Tuck It was not his fault that the mystery was never solved.

When Hon. R. L. Hazen, died in 1874, Mr. Tuck was appointed recorder of St. John, which office he resigned in 1882. When he was raised to the bench, his congratulations came from both sides of politics. The honor was merited, he was qualified for the position and all who knew him were W. K. REYNOLDS. his friends.

MUSIC, AT HOME AND ABROAD.

Of the Bennett & Moulton Opera company which will visit St. John for a week beginning the 22d, the Leader says :

The company makes six-days stands as a rule, with a change of programme at each M. Shaw's whistling to the Prince of Wales ham, which I believe is new to this city. The Mission church of St. John Baptist have a very fine anthem of Sir John Stainer's, "Ye shall dwell in the Land", with bass and tenor solos. At St. Luke's, Portland, there will be special anthems at both services-"Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness" by Thos. Smith being the one for the morning service and in the evening J. Baptiste Calkin's "Rejoice in the Lord ye righteous" will be sung. Owing to the rector's absence from the stone church, there has been no extra music prepared, and at St. James' there will be no harvest festival anthem, probably owing to the fact of the organist being away on a well-earned vacation.

will be "O Give Thanks," by E. A. Syden-

I see by a Boston paper's advertisement that Signor G. B. Ronconi is singing and playing on the flute, at Music hall, Sunday evenings, in the Star concerts. Admission 15 cents.

The Clara Louise Kellogg English Opera company has secured from several church choirs the best talent available for their choruses. This will ensure a good chorus and good voices. This method of obtaining a chorus is an entirely new feature in making up opera companies, but one which the managers hope will be endorsed by the public.—Boston Sunday Times.

The concluding sentence of the above cutting I can hardly see the point of. proved himself fully equal to the emergency. Members of church choirs are not always the best singers, nor are they the very best behaved, and if the managers have had a large experience of church choirs, they would have a very good idea of how very > insubordinate they are as a rule. I think the Times is rather dubious of the result. as in another part of the same paper the following appears :

Edgar Strakosch of the Clara Louise Kellogg opera troupe sends word that the chorus will surely be excellent because he has selected the members from the best church choirs. Mr. Strakosch's promise will be preserved for future reference.

The italics are mine.

That interesting (?) paragraph going the rounds of the American press of Mrs. Alice Commencing June 25th, 1888.

PASSENGER TRAINS WILL LEAVE INTER COLONIAL RAILWAY Station, St. John, at †6.40 a. m.—Fast Express for Bangor, Portland, Boston and points west; also for Fredericton, St. Andrews, St. Stephen, Houlton, Woodstock, Presque Isle, Grand Falls and Edmundston.

PULLMAN PARLOR CAR ST. JOHN TO BOSTON. †8.50 a.m.—For Bangor and points west, Freder icton, St. Stephen, Houlton and Woodstock. †4.45 p. m.—Express for Fredericton and inter-mediate stations.

18.30 p. m.—Night Express for Bangor, Portland, Boston and points west; also for St. Stephen, Houl ton, Woodstock, Presque Isle and Grand Falls.

PULLMAN SLEEPING CAR ST. JOHN TO BANGOR.

RETURNING TO ST. JOHN FROM Bangor at †6.15 a. m., Parlor Car attached; †7.30 p Bangor at 16.15 a. m., Parlor Car attached; †7.30 p m., Sleeping Car attached. Vanceboro at 11.15; †11.15 a. m.; 2.21 p. m. Woodstock at †7.46; †10.30 a. m.; †8.00 p. m. Houlton at †7.40; †10.30 a. m.; †8.10 p. m. St. Stephen at †9.30 a. m.; †12.20; †9.45 p. m. St. Andrews at †7.00 a. m. Freděricton at †6.00; †11.30 a. m.; †3.50 p. m. Arriving in St. John at 15.45; †8.20 a. m.; †2.25; †7.15 p. m.

LEAVE CARLETON FOR FAIRVILLE. 18.00 a m,-Connecting with 8.50 a. m, train from 14.30 p. m.—Connecting with 4.45 p. m. train from St. John.

EASTERN STANDARD TIME.

Trains marked † run daily except Sunday. ‡Daily except Saturday. ¶Daily except Monday. F. W. CRAM, Gen. Manager. H. D. McLEOD, Supt. Southern Division.

A. J. HEATH, Gen. Pass. Agent, St. John, N. B.

Intercolonial Railway.

ON AND AFTER MONDAY, June 4th, 1888, the trains of this Railway will run daily (Sunday excepted) as follows :-

TRAINS WILL LEAVE ST. JOHN.

| Day Express 7 00 |
|--|
| Accommodation11 00 |
| Express for Sussex16 35 |
| Express for Halifax and Quebec |
| A Sleeping Car will rnn daily on th 22.15 train to |
| Halifax. |
| On Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, a Sleeping |

Car for Montreal will be attached to the Quebec Ex-press, and on Monday, Wednesday and Friday a Sleeping Car will be attached at Moncton.

TRAINS WILL ARRIVE AT ST. JOHN

| Express from Halifax and Quebec 5 | 30 |
|-----------------------------------|----|
| Express from Sussex 8 | 30 |
| Accommodation | 55 |
| Day Express | 00 |
| | |

Chief Justice Allen has long held a first | examiner whom a crooked witness had place as a delegate to synods, diocesan and reason to dread. Of an aggressive nature, to the church. The type of the church- the cause of an opponent in the eyes of a manship of Chief Justice Allen is on the jury. His sarcasm was of a kind from lines of his ancestor, illustrated in an inci- which a litigant might well pray to be dedent of a century ago: The first Baptist livered, and his invective became terrible at preacher at Fredericton was one known in times. In any case where he appeared on later years as Father Manning. Judge one side and S. R. Thomson on the other a Allen was asked for a warrant for his arrest. | crowded court room was always to be found. His answer was, "I will hear him for my- He was in every sense a successful lawyer. self." The judge unable to get in the house stood, unknown to Mr. Manning, outside by the door. The text was, "Be- bitter opponent. In the old days of the hold, the Judge standeth before the door." | Confederation struggle he was prominently After service Judge Allen said to those who to the front and was elected both when the asked for the warrant: "God forbid I should lay hands on that young man. I would there were more like him in the country."

The demonstration today of the St. John members of the bar, on this the jubilee of Mr. Allen's admission as an attorney, will be a fitting crown to one whose ancestor, removed from the arena of party strife. the Hon. Isaac Allen, over a century ago took his seat on the bench at St. John as of New Brunswick.

Although turned the historic three-score activity, the more as three of the two preceding generations passed four-score years and ten. May he in the future, as in the past, recuperate his strength for the work ancestral fields and groves of Auk-Paque! J. W. LAWRENCE,

Member Royal Historical Society of Great Britain.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE'S ASSOCIATES.

Jurists Who Will Take High Place in the Legal History of the Province.

Half a century ago when the turbulent litigants of Westmorland county sought Dorchester Corner for "law," all of them felt more or less interest in a little square wooden shanty which stood on the edge of the "half acre." It was not much of a building to look at. It had no architectural beauty, nor did it differ in any respect from the buildings to be seen under the shadow of the court house in every shire town. It was simply a country lawyer's office.

This particular country lawyer was an ankles are soulful enough for high tragedy, Members of the Orpheus club have just important man, even in those days. The of everything that pertained to a ship or ntroduced in Halifax a Boston lady artist but she hasn't sufficient brains to grease a era of brisk competition in legal lore had its navigation in any kind of weather. of high reputation. She is Miss Louise gridiron. not dawned. Attorneys of the Supreme Nor did he shine in this respect at home Laine, the possesso: of an excellent soprano court were not obliged to advertise and cut voice, who occupied a prominent position alone. One of the cases in which he was Will somebody please tell me how it among concert singers in Boston, has been down fees in order to scrape a living. A interested was carried to the courts in Engwould be possible to make an effective play a member of the Listeman concert company few lawyers handled a large number of land. Mr. Palmer crossed the ocean to the confederation question. Mr. Fraser and was soloist in the Schumann ladies' out of Miss Rives' book, anyhow? I yield cases, and prospered exceedingly on the look after it. When the tall, boney and was opposed to the movement, and the quartette. She is now engaged in giving to no one in admiration for that strong and business that came to them. The occupant electors of York believed he was right. singing lessons at the ladies' college and to angular-looking stranger stalked in among You should MARK YOUR LINEN and print your Visiting Cards with ROBERTSON'S Printing Stamps. CHEAP, SIMPLE, DURABLE. suggestive story, but to my mind there isn't They elected him, but a year later their private pupils.-Halifax Echo. of the wooden shanty in question was the big-wigs, they would have smiled had a situation in it-that is to say, from a sentiments changed, and they voted that he One of the Most Successful of All. they not stood in awe of the keen eyes theatrical point of view. I suppose Miss should stay at home. He was for plaintiff or defendant in every which looked at them from under the The bishop of the diocese having ap-Clayton was encouraged by the success of Despite of this rebuff, it was destined important case in Westermorland and shaggy eyebrows. They thought that New pointed tomorrow as the day for Harvest such monstrosities as A Rag Baby and A that he should, a few years later, be not even from Cumberland in the sister pro-Brunswick had sent them a ploughman thanksgiving, the choirs of the majority of Bunch of Keys, to believe that on the stage only a politician but one whose position vince men sought his aid and counsel. instead of a lawyer, but a very brief acthe Episcopal churches have been busy the | today "everything goes." meant power. From 1871 to 1882 he was quaintance with the stranger dispelled that Thus it was that even while he was a last week or so preparing the special music conspicuous in the legislation of the proidea. He could give them points on young man he began to grow rich and his with which these occasions are always cele-I have very pleasant recollections of the vince. For four years he was attorney name became famous. It was a privilege marine insurance of which they had never brated. It would take too much space to Bennett & Moulton Opera company, which general and for students to read law in such an office, dreamed. give the full list of music to be used at each begins a week's engagement Monday week, and from its doors went forth from year to For many years Mr. Palmer confined Leader of the Government. church but I may mention the name of the at the Lansdowne rink. It gives a better year young men whose names were hinself to the Westmoreland and Northern In December, 1882, a few months after reanthem to be sung at some of the churches : performance than some companies that prothereafter to be linked with the history of circuits. His first appearance in St. John, signing the leadership, he was raised to Trinity church will have Barnby's mise a great deal more and I hope to see "Blessed be the Name of the Lord," while | it sufficiently well patronized to induce it to New Brunswick and of Canada. about 30 years ago, was in one of the most | the bench to fill the vacancy caused by the Just 50 years ago there were among famoos cases of the time-the suit of Smith | death of Judge Duff. at St. Paul's (Valley) church the anthem come again and often. LEON.

Naturally he had enemies, but he also had hosts of friends. It was a wise choice when he was placed on the bench, and even those whom politics had embittered against him soon learned to respect him as a judge,

While Wetmore was treading the uneven road that led to honor, his fellow student, one of the first judges of the supreme court | Palmer, was fighting a great battle for himself. In the narrow confines of Dorchester corner the air was as full of politics as of years and ten, the mental force and erect law. The strife was eternal and bitter. form of the chief justice indicate years of Young Palmer was not in accord with the faction, and he gave early promise that he was likely to be dangerous to that faction's peace. The result was a war of years, unmollified by any truce. He was opposed of official life in church and state, amid the at every step-in law, in politics and in prihe fought. On the battle grounds of law, he had nothing to fear. With all due allowance for some who have passed away, Mr. Palmer stood head and shoulders above the lawyers of his native country. Without a politician's trick of rhetoric, without an effort at cheap dramatic effect, he won his case by sound law, and hard work. He had that qualification, which many lawyers lack of being.

A Thorough Man of Business. He was a successful shipbuilder, and a successful manager of his ships after they were built. In some of the most celebrated marine insurance cases ever tried in the New Brunswick courts he appeared as counsel. At such times he astonished all who listened, not only by his legal ability, but by his complete practical knowledge performance; plays at popular prices, and gives the best possible performance for the admission charged; in fact better than some of the high-priced companies.

This gives promise of a better performance than is usual from these travelling companies, owing to the modesty of the anouncement.

The Boston Orchestral club, which has ad such success on its tour under Manager Bachert during the last two years, will be gin its third season early in October, and continue its tour during the winter and spring months, extending its journeyings as far as California. Mr. Willis Nowell, of Boston, will be the conductor and leading violinist, with Mr. Charles Palm, of the Damrosch and Thomas orchestras, as second violin; Richard Stoeltzer, formerly of the Thomas orchestra, viola ; Louis Blumenberg formerly of the Mendelssohn Quintet club, 'cello; and Joseph Beckel, formerly of the Boston orchestra, bass. A flute soloist and soprano singer of ability will make up the organization.-Leader.

The curiosity of the public is at last set at rest with regard to the new Gilbert and Sullivan opera. The scene is set neither in Egypt nor Norway, as gossip had it, but in old England in the time of Elizabeth. The following cuttings are from a cable account of the opening night : The Yeoman of the Guard, or The Merry Man and His Maid, as the new opera has been named, does not call for much stage setting. There are only two acts and only one scene, namely the tower of London, reflected in such a sunlight in the first act and such a moonlight in the other as are seldom seen in London. The representation of the historic old tower is so literally perfect that it was received with uproarious applause from old Londoners. Both as regards music and dialog Messrs. Gilbert and Sullivan have taken a much higher flight in this opera than they have in others. The humorous, burlesque, and satirical features have given way to a classic vein. So far as last night's audience-with a large proportion of critics and educated peoplewere concerned, this was considered to be a big improvement, and the opera enthus-iastically received as a success. Whether it will be so popular with the general pub-lic, who go to see Messrs. Gilbert & Sullivan's operas for the sake of the funny satire found in Pinafore and Patience, is a matter of much speculation.

Though the music of the opera as a whole is of dignified and distinguished style, there are three or four taking melodies and two effective duets The general verdict was that the opera is a success.

between the courses at a dinner party is almost as interesting (?) as the late accounts of John L. Sullivan hobnobbing with his Royal Highness and calling him Albert Edward. Truly the American penny-aliner's brain is fertile. FELIX.

TALK OF THE THEATRE.

The patrons of the Institute may look forward to a brilliant season.

It will open early mext week with Peck & Furssman's Uncle Tom's Cabin company. On the 22nd of the month will come DeLydston's Fifth Avenue Theatre company. The following week, on the 29th, Arthur Rehan's great company will open for three days; and on the 5th of November Harry Belair will be seen in the best programme of "magic, mirth and mystery" ever offered in St. John.

All these attractions are worthy of patronage, Rehan's company especially so. They are all good enough for the large cities where they are now playing and they ought to be good enough for St. John. An attractive prospect, isn't it?

Mrs. James Brown Potter is the possessor of one of the smallest watches in existence. It is set in the silver handle of an exquisite silk umbrella, and it is a perfect timepiece. It is about five-eighths of an inch in diameter. It is a stemwinder, the head of the handle performing the functions of a key. It was presented to her in Hamburg by an English lady of rank, who was a most devoted admirer of Mr. Abbey's new star .- New York Sun.

Coquelin and Mme. Jane Hading have arrived in New York. The lady is decidedly pretty, the papers say, but the great comedian looks more like a prosperous merchant than an actor. When the reporters met them on the steamship there was no phonograph at hand to record the press men's struggles with the French language, but a favorite question must have been: "Avvez vous sentez bou koo de mal de mere ?" I can imagine it all.

The dramatization of The Quick and the Dead, as brought out at the New York Fifth Avenue theater by Estelle Clayton, was a flat failure. There was reason for it. Miss Clayton has very intense feet-the New York papers all said so when she played Favette a few years ago-and her

All trains are rur by Eastern Standard time. D. POTTINGER, RAILWAY OFFICE, Moncton, N. B., May 31, 1888.

UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE, the splendid Steamers DAVID WESTON and ACADIA, alter-nately, will leave St. John (Indiantown) for Fred ericton, EVERY MORNING (Sundays excepted), at NINE o'clock, local time, calling at intermediate ps. Fare $1.00.

Returning will leave Fredericton for St. John, etc., every morning, Sundays excepted, at EIGHT o'clock.

Connecting with New Brunswick Railway for Woodstock, Grand Falls, etc.; with Northern and Western Railway for Doaktown, Chatham, etc.; and with steamer Florenceville for Eel River, Wood stock. et

On THURSDAYS and SATURDAYS Excursion Tickets issued to Brown's, Williams', Oak Point and Palmer's wharves, good to return on day of is-sue, for 40 cents, or to Hampstead and return for 50 cents.

SATURDAY EVENING AND MONDAY MORNING TRIP.—For accommodation of business men and others, Steamer ACADIA will leave Indiantown others, Steamer ACADIA will leave Indianown every Saturday evening, at six o'clock, for Hamp-stead, calling at intermediate stops. Returning, will leave Hampstead at six o'clock Monday morn-ing, to arrive at Indiantown at nine, thus affording an opportunity to spend a day of rest and change in the country without encroaching on business hours

Fare to Hampstead, etc., and return, 50 cents. R. B. HUMPHREY, Manager. Office at whart, Indiantown. St. John City Agency at H. CHUBB & Co.'s, Prince Wm. street.

PHYSICIANS.

We Have Just Received

A FULL LINE OF

JOHN WYETH & BROS.'

Compressed Triturates

A. CHIPMAN SMITH & CO.,

Charlotte Street.

gan fied that leni

Hali Hor: 2.30 and fa

the m ture. startin Duffui favori

P.S. 1

TWEED WATERPROOF COATS With Sewed and Taped Seams. We are now showing the Latest London Styles in Gents' Tweed Rubber Coats,

Made with above great improvements. ALSO-A Full Line of LADIES LONDON CLOAKS in newest styles.

ESTEY, ALLWOOD & CO., 68 Prince Wm. Street.

A Stamp to print your name like any above com-plete with ink and postpaid, FOR 50 CENTS Ad dress ROBERTSON'S PRINTING STAMP WORKS 154 Prince Wm. Street, St John, N. B

Lillie Langtry.

Mary W. Brown. Mrs Simon Smith.

Evaleonard

rsam. S. Simm ong.