

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN CITY SOCIETY CIRCLES

And the Happenings Elsewhere in New Brunswick—Celestial Talk—Moncton Society—Woodstock, Newcastle, Chatham, Dorchester, Richibucto and St. Stephen News.

Already Santa Claus is foreshadowing his advent, which in a measure accounts for the semi-seclusion of not a few of our fair maidens, who form themselves into confidential groups of three or four and meet at the homes most suitable for their scheme.

At one of these homes I surprised three young ladies at their work, which, after a deal of persuasion on my part and considerable hesitancy on theirs, they consented to allow me to inspect.

I was next shown a box filled with balls of knitting silks, in cream, golden, brown and black. These the young lady was busily making into gents' hosiery and was to have two pairs of each shade.

At another house I was shown a magnificent slate table, on the top of which was being painted an exceedingly pretty landscape.

Women's visiting cards are to continue square in shape, and men's very small. This is the edict from those who deal in paste-board.

Miss Macrae returned home Tuesday after a lengthy visit to her sister, Mrs. McKenzie, at Pugwash.

Basket patterns are the correct thing in silver waist belts. Thick coils of silver rope are also worn as belts.

Miss Sadlier, of Chatham, is visiting Mrs. Whittaker. Miss Sadlier proved a great assistance to the Wednesday booth of the Feast of Days.

Knit-plaited turn-down collars of silk or muslin are used as a finish to Empire dresses for little girls.

Mr. George Fraser has returned to British Columbia, after an enjoyable visit to his home at Rothesay.

Ostrich bands, lying flat on the brim, are a favorite trimming for felt hats for misses.

Mr. John Fraser and his son Fenwick will leave for England about the 17th.

Balls of petrified wood are mounted upon the handles of stylish umbrellas.

Mr. John Reid, formerly of this city, now living in St. Paul, Minn., has passed a most successful examination for attorney.

His numerous friends here will rejoice to learn of his success.

Dainty evening gowns in dove color are made up with white moire, with silver trimmings.

I am told that early in the new year we are to have a wedding which promises to be something out of the ordinary.

Only the younger friends of the bride and groom are to be present. It is to be an evening event and a charming feature of the after-reception will be the three young bridesmaids and groomsmen taking the place and performing the duties of the conventional and oft-times awkward butlers, waiters and maids.

I have not yet heard of any of the dresses to be worn, but may be able to give a description of them later on.

Novel skeleton bonnets, somewhat after the fashion of the open-work beaded bonnets, are made of fine feathers mounted upon a wire frame.

This would have been appreciated by many. We women endure hardship very valiantly, however, when we are working in a good cause.

Chief among us in this worthy effort are these ladies who have taken active directorship, as stated below:

Sunday—Mrs. W. H. Tuck, Mrs. Geo. King, Miss Tuck and others.

Monday—Mrs. Thorne, Mrs. E. T. C. Knowles, Mrs. A. Miller and others.

Tuesday—Mrs. Dearborn, Mrs. Wm. Kerr, Mrs. C. Gregory and others.

Wednesday—Mrs. Macrae, Miss Reed, Miss McLaren, Miss Jack, Miss Sadler and others.

Thursday—Lady Tilley, Misses Jones, Misses Adams, Misses Nicholson, Misses Bayard and others.

Friday—Miss Skinner, Miss Robertson, Mrs. White, Mrs. R. C. Skinner and others.

Saturday—Mrs. J. V. Ellis, Mrs. Gilbert Murdoch, Mrs. David McLellan, Miss Ellis, the Misses Dunn and others.

English Fair—Mrs. White, Mrs. Fred. Jones, Mrs. D. H. Merritt, Miss Longley, Mrs. Puddington and others.

Japanese Tea Room—Mrs. H. A. Austin, Miss Bent, Mrs. T. B. Jones and others.

Carleton this week was enlivened by a wedding, which took place Tuesday, in the Baptist church, Rev. A. Allaby and Miss Eva Stewart being the happy couple.

A large number gathered at the church to witness the ceremony. The bride wore a very becoming travelling costume of navy-blue flannel, and was attended by Miss Hattie Sheldon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Daniel left Wednesday evening for New York, where they will spend a short time before returning to their home at Campbellton.

Miss Ada Clarke, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Leonard, Lancaster, has returned to her home in Minneapolis.

Again I have another engagement to announce; this time between one of our fairest daughters and a happy Celestial being.

CELESTIAL TALK.

FREDERICTON, Nov. 7.—There was a very pleasant birthday party at the residence of Mr. Temple, M. P., Saturday evening.

On that day Mr. Temple reached his 70th birthday, and on the following day Mrs. Temple completed three score years and ten.

To celebrate this event a large number of ladies and gentlemen was invited. The company consisted mostly of married people.

Dancing was the amusement of the evening, and a delicious supper was served at 11 o'clock.

After this had been attended to, His Worship Mayor Hazen, in well chosen words, proposed the health of the kind host and hostess, wishing them many more happy years, and Mr. Temple fittingly responded.

Among the strangers present were the Misses Dever of St. John, who are still visiting Miss Temple, and Mr. Gilliland.

The Bread-and-Butter club, after having remained dormant all summer, is again in a flourishing condition.

Miss M. Tibbids entertained its members at her home last Thursday evening, and Mrs. Frank Babbitt entertained them at her home last evening.

A very enjoyable evening was spent on each occasion, dancing being the principal amusement.

Miss Ida Allen will have a party next Tuesday evening.

Miss Bois, of Springhill, has a class every Saturday afternoon, for a few weeks, at the residence of Mr. G. N. Babbitt, where she teaches, not the young ideas to shoot, but the young feet to dance, which no doubt they enjoy more.

I hear the young ladies and gentlemen of this class are requested to appear each Saturday in white kid gloves.

The students at the University celebrated Hallowe'en in their usual interesting manner.

Dr. Stockley has invited the senior class of the University to meet in his room at the Queen, Saturday evening, where they will read The Rivals, after which Dr. Kingdon will entertain them at supper.

Mrs. Ingles has presented her husband with a son.

The lecture committee of the Women's Aid association will give that very pleasing entertainment entitled, "Christie's Old Organ," in the church hall, Thanksgiving evening.

Mrs. Arthur Tippet and children have returned to their home in St. John.

Mr. J. F. Vanbuskirk and his bride arrived home, yesterday, from their bridal trip, and were serenaded at Mr. Joseph Phillips' last evening, by the 71st Battalion band.

STELLA.

MONCTON SOCIETY.

MONCTON, Nov. 7.—Things are still very quiet in society circles, at least so far as entertainments are concerned.

There is the usual number of strangers coming and going—for I think I have already told you that Moncton is a wonderful place for visitors.

One young housekeeper told me, a short time ago, that she had never been alone since she was married.

She had always had one or two visitors. So, taken as a whole, I think we are a hospitable people, and visitors to our town always seem anxious to come back again.

I saw four Dorchester ladies here last Wednesday—Mrs. Hickman, Lady Smith, Mrs. Joshua Chandler and Miss Fanny Chandler, who spent the day in town, returning to Dorchester by the evening train.

I was surprised and grieved to hear them say that they thought Moncton was muddy!

Mrs. R. D. Southwood, of Citra, Florida, has been visiting in our town for the past week, the guest of Mr. George R. Sangster.

TURNER & FINLAY,

12 KING STREET, HEADQUARTERS FOR FLUSHES IS HERE. NO DOUBT OF THAT.

More carefully than ever (if possible) we have prepared our line of Seal Skin Flushes, made for us by the most celebrated manufacturer of these goods in the world.

We have been using his make for the past six years.

Hardly weather to think of heavy stuffs for Ladies' Coats and Cloaks and such like.

But muffle-up days will come just the same.

The new thick goods are on hand, All-wool, fine wool. Cloakings and Ulsterings in checks, plaids and stripes—100 styles—at 95c. and $2.00 yd.

New Dress Goods are making almost a jumble at the counters.

They come in so fast that there's scant time to gather breath from an incoming rush before another billow comes tumbling after it.

No room in the papers to hold them up so you can see them in print. We have Flannels and Habit Cloths and Tricots and Henriettas up to the richest Border Designs and Silk Striped Novelties from Paris.

Makers of every fabric have had their best wits at work. Such uniform excellence and sparkle and originality don't often come about.

We never before had imported 52-inch Broadcloths at $1.60. They weren't to be had.

The Bordered Dress Stuffs make friends on sight. Odd, neat, convenient. They are the notable newness of the season. A glance at the goods tells the whole story.

Black Robes in Serge and French Cashmere, with Embroidered Silk Fronts and Borders, are also on our counters.

Mrs. Southwood left for her southern home yesterday, accompanied by Mr. Sangster, who will spend the winter at his orange grove in Citra.

Mr. Sangster is to be congratulated on his good fortune, for while the rest of us are shivering among the snow drifts, he is probably lying in a hammock, fanning away the mosquitoes and inhaling the fragrance of the orange blossoms.

Miss Maud Trites, of Port Mulgrave, who has been visiting her grandfather, Mr. J. S. Trites, of Fleet street, returned to her home on Thursday.

Mr. Arthur Campbell, son of Mr. John Campbell of the I. C. R., who has been attending the commercial college at St. John, was at home last week, and I trust he is going to remain with us, and not taking wing for distant lands, as so many of our young men do. We want to keep a few of the nice boys home, instead of exporting all our best products.
