And a Summary of the Happenings Elsewhere in New Brunswick—Celestial Talk—Moncton Society—Woodstock Whisperings -Fashion's Favorites at Inch-Arran.

Two days at Bar Harbor sufficed to give us a pretty good idea of life at that fashionable resort. Surely the days must seen lengthy to the young belies who deem the society of the opposite sex a necessity to their enjoyment of what I presume they fancy is country life. Yes, there was a most decided fewness and newness of the male element, while was especially notices and turing the evening of our arrival. The ladies on this occasion were all prettily and becomingly dressed, though not any of the toilettes were particularly new or striking. During the day there was lost of driving, tennis, shopping (which, by the way, is very expensive, as most of the stores are only open during the season for the convenience of the moneyed people) promenading, etc. We noticed a number of rather pretty young girls, but the matrons carry off the plan for beauty. The favorite hat is the plain sailor, with no trimming but the thin, light vell, which many pull down over the face. Some of the coltages are ready over the face. The favorite hat is the plain sailor, with no trimming but the thin, light veil, which many pull down over the face. Some of the cottages are really very beautiful, and I've an idea that they are mostly owned and occupied by the "upper ten." It may be contessing great ignorance, but I was surprised to find no beach or bathing-houses, or anything of that sort, at Bar Harbor. However, we enjoyed our two days' sojourn among the fashionables, and found much to amuse and interest us. The hotels are all very comfortable and conhotels are all very comfortable and conducted on rather a grand scale. I should have liked to remain a few days longer, as we were told that Mrs. Cleveland was expected, and of course there would be somepected, and of course there would be something special for her entertainment. At our table d'hote we made the acquaintance of a very gorgeously and muchly-dressed American lady, who, after airing her knowledge of society and the world, inquired where Winnipeg was (we'd been speaking much of that city). Somebody informed her that it was in Manitoba. "Is that anywhere near New York city?" she asked. I didn't hear the remainder of the conversation, as we rushed for the train. sation, as we rushed for the train.

Miss Annie McFarlane, author of Children of the Earth, is in the city, visiting her parents on King street east. Miss McFarlane is one of our really clever and accomplished young women, and her writings and criticisms are widely read. She is also reader for one of New York's largest publishing

Mrs. Simeon Jones is much improved in health and her numerous friends are delighted to welcome her back to her home. I hear of a wedding of one of society's favorites and a popular M. D., to take place in one of our Episcopal churches next month. There are to be six bridesmaids in attendance-so they say-but "they say" has been known to exaggerate.

One New York woman has a clever scheme on which she ought to be able to secure a patent, or at any rate a copyright. When she makes fancy work or other adornment for her home, she makes two of each article. One she puts in her rooms and the other she lays away. "Then," she says, "I notice which particular thing each of my friends seems to admire the most, and at Christmas or birthdays, or times like that, I present the friend with the duplicate of the article she has most admired. Of course it isn't necessary for me to mention that I had it made all the time and laid away waiting for some one to give it to, but never tell any one that I made it especially for her."

The fine bird's-eye patterns announced to appear on the autumn silks are not only becoming, but they mean that the silk itself will be softer than if plain and corded, as bird's eye linens are always softer than plain goods of the same weight.

The latest fashionable whim is to have the knives and torks at dinner parties all different, and each one made after some special design. Diminutive copies of antique German and Turkish swords serve the guests masculine for knives, matched by tiny daggers of Italian patterns given to those of the sex feminine.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Hanington returned home from Winnipeg Tuesday even-

According to rumor our city will this tall be deprived of several young ladies who have made applications at the American hospitals for training of nurses. I believe they will have to devote but two years of their lives to this ennobling work before they will be armed with experience, infor-mation and certificates, that will at least render them independent always of social and pecuniary circumstances.

Miss Millidge, who has been spending her holidays in this city, leaves next Tuesday for Winnipeg, where she has a very agreeable position in the Gentlemen's col-

Miss Fisher, of Fredericton, is visiting Mrs. Seeley, Mount Pleasant. Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Noyes and family from Boston arrived in the city last Thursday to spend a few weeks. They are now at the Dufferin. Mr. William Smith, of Clarke, Kerr & Thorne's, celebrated his wooden wedding, Tuesday evening.

There has not been very much social gayety this week. Of course the weather prevented the many picnics that were planned for. A number of the young people are devoting much of their time to the costumes, etc., in connection with the Jessie Brown drama, for next week, which is sure to prove a great success.

THE GOSSIP.

on everything in the way of amusements. There will be a sort of impromptu dancing party at "The Chimes," the residence of Mr. John Black, tomorrow evening. No doubt a very pleasant evening will be enjoyed. A yacht from St. John arrived here last evening, having on board several gentlemen well known in the Celestial city, among

MONCTON SOCIETY.

Moncton, Aug. 15.—The bright, warm days of the past week have tempted our society friends into a little amusement.

Mrs. E. M. Estey entertained a few young friends, Thursday evening, at a whist party and after the mimic battles had been lost and won the combatants in been lost and won, the combatants indulged in a very small and early dance.

On Friday, Mrs. S. F. Wilbur gave a delightful picnic for her niece, Miss Hitchings, who is visiting her. A party of about 20 young people met at Mrs. Wilbur's home immediately after dinner and drove out to "The Gorge," where they spent the afternoon. I must explain that "The Gorge" is a very beautiful spot seven miles out of Moncton, formed by a cleft between two small mountains and is a favorite resort for picnic parties, whether on account of the beauty of the scenery, or the extreme suggestiveness of the name, I cannot say.

The same evening, Mrs. G. J. O. Doherty gave a little dance at her home on Steadman street, at which those of the picnic party who were not too weary to thread the mazes of the dance participated, and which was pronounced more than a suc-

In fact, Friday was a very gay day indeed with us. Among other attractions we had a cricket match between the Spring Hill and Moncton clubs. You know our crick; eters are not celebrated for winning matches and when the report that they were victorious was confirmed beyond the possibility of doubt, excitement ran so high that "strong men wept and several ladies

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Butcher are sojourning at "the Beaches," Mr. Butcher's place being filled during his absence by Mr. Edward Jarvis, inspector of the Merchants bank of Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Dustan, of Halifax, are visiting Mrs. J. L. Harris. Mrs. C. P. Harris has returned, with her two little daughters, from Nova Scotia, where she has been spending the last few weeks among her friends. Miss Ella Stevens has also returned from her summer vacation, looking all the better for her outing. Mr. W. K. Hatt, of the I. C. R. engineering department, who broke one of the bones of his ankle in vaulting a fence, some weeks ago, is slowly recovering, but is still too ill to be moved. His father visited him last week, hoping to be able to take him home. Moncton abounds in grass widowers, just at present, and a very contented, not to say happy, looking set of mortals they are, though I have little doubt they write dismal accounts of their loneliness, each week, to their absent partners.

Mrs. and Miss Stavert left town on Saturday, for the ever-popular "Beaches," where they will spend a few days. Miss Stavert intends remaining in Moneton for the rest of the summer, and the denizens of the West End are congratulating themselves on having so charming an addition to their society.

Miss Weldon has returned from her vachting cruise, looking brown and bonnie from the breezes of the St. Lawrence.

The many friends of Miss Fannie Steves were glad to see her out at church last Sunday, for the first time for many months, and to know that she is convalescent from her long and painful illness.

Miss Fannie Bliss returned on Monday to her home in Westmorland, where she Good, who has recently been appointed will make a short stay before proceeding to Bangor to spend the autumn and winter left this morning to take charge. with her sister, Mrs. Dr. Hennessey. Mrs. A. F. Randolph accompanied Mrs. Judge Steadman to St. John, last Saturday. They spent Sunday at the residence of Mr. Baker, Fairville. Mrs. Randolph returned to her home yesterday.

Mr. Storey, of New York, is registered at the Queen from the Renous.

Mayor Hazen, Messrs. D. R. Forgan and J. S. Neil returned home Monday evening from their fishing expedition on the Dungaryon.

Mrs. Haldane, Mrs. J. J. Walker and family and the Misses McSweeny.

Mr. Williamson, manager of the Buctouche & Moncton railway, and Mrs. Williamson, were in town, yesterday. Their many friends will regret to hear that they are about leaving Buctouche, the interests of the company requiring Mr. Williamson's presence in Chipman, Queen's county, this winter. Their departure will leave a void in the small society of Buctouche, which will not soon be filled.

If this week continues as gay as the first

The Misses Bessie and Leila Botsford, Miss Brown of Quebec and Mrs. Dr. Botsford of Richibucto arrived in town yester-day from "the Beeches" and are making a short stay at Judge Botsford's. CECIL GWYNNE.

CELEBRITIES AT INCH-ARRAN.

Dalhousie, Aug. 16.—The guests at this favorite resort are having splendid weather, and making the most of their time. Each day and evening festivities are arranged for, and this week has been one of ranged for, and this week has been one of the gayest of the season. Several fishing parties have returned after having glorious sport, while the "Agate" picnics and "water tea parties" were all well patronized.

A fancy dress ball took place Tuesday evening, and was attended by all who could arrange for a costume by buying or borrowing the little necessaries to make up the dress required. A splendid programme was arranged and carried out, Sir John and Lady Macdonald being present and surveying the scenes. The "get up" of several of the dancers was immense and would do credit to a city fancy dress ball. would do credit to a city fancy dress ball. Amongst those who attended in costume
