EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN CITY SOCIETY CIRCLES

And the Happenings Elsewhere in New Brunswick—Celestial Talk—Moncton Society—Woodstock, St. Stephen, Chatham, Dorchester and Richibucto News.

Mrs. Blackwood returned last Thursday to her home in Halifax.

Mrs. Smith, of Halifax, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Saer.

Last Sabbath afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey's infant son was christened in St. Paul's (valley) church.

A lady wishes to know why some ingenious mind does not invent a rubber warranted not to shuffle or slip at the heel.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. Byron C. Tapley, the padlock of wedlock between whom and Miss Maud Snell was locked by Rev. L. G. Stevens, on Wednesday evening last, at the residence of the bride's father, Indian town.

Mr. George B. Lockhart and Miss G. A. Sullivan were married in Centenary church, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. DeWolfe Spurr, of St. John, were in town last week, visiting Mrs. Spurr's sister, Mrs. C. B. Record.

Mrs. J. C. Mahon, of Truro, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Sumner, for the past week.

Mr. Frank McCully's many friends will be sorry to hear that he is prostrated with typhoid fever.

Mr. Hawkins, of the Merchants bank, of Halifax, spent Thanksgiving day in town.

Mrs. Blair Botsford, widow of the late Warden Botsford, of Dorchester, has been in town for the last week, visiting her daughters, Mrs. David Dickson and Mrs. J. H. Nickerson.

Miss Morse, daughter of Dr. Morse, of Amherst, is in town visiting Mrs. R. B. Boggs.

Mr. Benedict, United States consul at Moncton, has gone to Washington on business, and now we Moncton folks are shivering with dread lest the late election over the border may make sufficient difference in the relation between our American cousins and ourselves to deprive us of the society of Mr. Benedict and his charming wife—in which case, I think, we should all turn Democrats at once, and overthrow the Republican government at one fell swoop.

Miss Archibald, of Truro, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Weldon.

Miss Julia Godfrey, of Dorchester, is in town visiting friends.

Mr. Joseph L. Harris, barrister, returned Saturday from Boston, where he has been attending the supreme court.

Miss Lynch returned to Ottawa Monday. She will be greatly missed by the large circle of friends she has won during her stay in Moncton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beckwith gave a large party last evening for their daughter Maud.

This evening, Mr. and Mrs. Melville Jack are giving a party, for Miss Minna Carmichael, Mrs. Jack's young sister, who is spending the winter with them.

Monday evening there was a candy party at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. McLearn. It was a very pleasant affair.

Miss Bessie Everett, who has been spending ten weeks in Boston, has returned home.

Mr. S. Girvan, of St. John, was in Fredericton last week, for a day. He was accompanied by Mr. F. Fraser, who came up to bid his friends good-bye before sailing for England.

Mrs. F. B. Edgecombe will leave next Monday for St. Stephen, to visit her parents. She will be accompanied by Miss Louise Richey.

Miss Giles, of Toronto, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Alfred Edgecomb.

lady, who also resides in the Celestial city. Dame Rumor also says that we are to have two fashionable weddings here sure before Christmas. The great trouble is that we can't always rely upon what this dame says.

MONCTON SOCIETY.

MONCTON, Nov. 21.—Thanksgiving day passed over very quietly. There was nothing going on, and it seemed like an unusually quiet Sunday, without the pious excitement of going to church.

Mr. D. W. McCormick of the Victoria, and Mrs. McCormick were in town yesterday to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Berriman.

Mr. Wm. Clewley, who has been spending some weeks with friends, left today for Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Todd and Mrs. James G. Stevens left this morning for a few days in Fredericton.

Mrs. H. Grimmer, of St. Andrews, is spending a few days with friends in town.

A Bezique club has recently been organized, representing among its members Calais, St. Stephen and Milltown.

Mr. Charles Fawcett, of Sackville was in town, Friday.

Miss Laura Knight returned last week, from her visit to Prince Edward Island.

Mrs. T. V. Cooke gave a small whist party, Wednesday evening. The guests, though few, were well chosen, and a very pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. Frank McCully's many friends will be sorry to hear that he is prostrated with typhoid fever.

Mr. Hawkins, of the Merchants bank, of Halifax, spent Thanksgiving day in town.

Mrs. Blair Botsford, widow of the late Warden Botsford, of Dorchester, has been in town for the last week, visiting her daughters, Mrs. David Dickson and Mrs. J. H. Nickerson.
