MONCTON SOCIETY.

Mr. and Mrs. Spurr were in town this week. Dr. Steeves has bought from Mrs. Spurr a most desirable building lot, on Main street, and will at once, I understand, commence the erection of a handsome new house.

Mrs. and Miss Cook have arrived home. One of the bazaar committee told me, "Just in time, too; for to Mrs. Cook we owe our happiest inspirations in regard to making the rink attractive for the fair."

The picnic on Monday was a success, in regard to numbers at any rate. The party had a proverbial picnic day: intense heat, then heavy showers. To my mind there is no pleasure in them; but, like the brook, they will, no doubt, "go on forever." Eating, of course, is the all-important duty, and this picnic was no exception; they all ate. The picnicers ate the grub, and the playful Point du Chene mosquito ate the picnicers; so every one went home perfectly satisfied.

By-the-by, PROGRESS, let me ask you, in confidence, if you think we could do anything to prevent those Botsford street tennis fanatics from turning out at six o'clock a. m. on the court at "The Elms," armed with rackets and ready for the fray. I certainly thought E. M. E. would have more sense, didn't you? but Messrs. Wallace and Harris seem formidable opponents, though Mr. Metzler plays splendidly—(know Mr. Metzler, PROGRESS? he is in the Bank of Nova Scotia; no end of a good fellow)—and if they would only play at a reasonable hour, would have an admiring audience, but who cares to watch a tennis match at daybreak, with one's inner man unrefreshed.

Mr. and Mrs. Cushing left town yesterday to spend July and August in Salisbury, where they have a pretty cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald left Saturday, for Boston.

Mrs. Edwin Record is expected in town very soon, to make a visit. Mrs. Record is a former Moncton lady, and a very great favorite. Her friends will be delighted to see her.

Miss Short, of Digby, is visiting Mrs. Harris, Queen street.

Mr. and Mrs. Estey join the party that will spend the 1st at "The Beaches." I understand quite a number will go up.

Our popular young townsman, A. E. Holstead, left yesterday for a few days vacation; Halifax was announced as his destination, but, between ourselves, PROGRESS, I am willing to bet a new hat that Yarmouth is the goal. Well, well, "Ally," I suppose there is no use in the Moncton girls putting on for your benefit their sweetest smiles and nicest dresses, for the latest "on dit" is that a powerful attraction has chained your affections Nova Scotia ward; well what needs be, must be, so "vive vale."

Please, next Saturday, PROGRESS, send a larger supply of yourself up here. Why, last week I was not able to get a copy, and I know of lots more like me. I hope you won't forget, for you can't think how badly I felt at not being able to read my own production in print.

WOODSTOCK WHISPERINGS.

WOODSTOCK, June 20.—A very interesting meeting, in the interests of missions, was held in the Methodist church, Tuesday evening. The speaker for the occasion was Miss Fannie Palmer, daughter of Judge Palmer, and her address was well worthy the attention of the intelligent audience present. Yesterday, a large delegation of the ladies of the church accompanied Miss Palmer to Bloomfield to hold a public meeting there and organize a branch society.

Last evening, the Opera House held a goodly assemblage, in attendance on the fancy sale in the interests of the Episcopal church. The proceeds amounted to about $200.

The two Misses Beardsley, whose parents in former years lived in this county, but who now live in Arkansas, are on a visit to their friends in Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Macnutt, of Fredericton, and Mrs. Fletcher and Dr. Fletcher, of Halifax, paid us a short visit on their return from a trip to Grand Falls, last week.

Mr. W. P. Hunt has charge of the Nova Scotia bank agency during the absence of Mr. W. Haliburton, who is taking a vacation.

Miss Minnie Moore, daughter of Mr. Fred Moore, is home on her vacation from Wolfville academy.

ST. STEPHEN SAYINGS.

ST. STEPHEN, June 20.—The Surveyor General and Mrs. Mitchell went to Fredericton, Monday, to attend the college convocation.

Mr. J. W. Moore is also spending this week at the capital, this being the first extended absence from home after an illness of many months.

Mr. J. Meredith, formerly in the employ of Loring, Short & Harmon, Portland, Maine, has changed houses and will probably make his headquarters at St. Stephen for some future time.

The open air concert given by the Citizens band, Monday evening, was well appreciated.

Mr. Russell Sage has been in town for a few days during the week on business connected with the purchase of the Grand Southern railway.

VICTORIA HOSPITAL, FREDERICTON.

Tom Dieuaide of St. John comes to the fore—a smart fellow but not particularly fond of study. He is a lively boy, ready to back the boys in all their undertakings, and on that account well liked. Tom is well known in St. John and his many friends will be glad to hear of the successful termination of his course at the University.

Oscar Watson, of St. John, is the next man on the list—and he is a man every inch of him. Well known in athletic circles, Oscar is a worthy man to uphold the honor of the college in that line. For 100 yards or a question in ethics, he is the man you want every time and he generally gets there. Another "Wanaganite," a great deal of the sorrow of his parting from the college is taken away by the disgust he feels for the high school system which is coming more and more in vogue since the abolition of residency.

C. F. Williams represents the interests of Queen's county in general and Gagetown in particular, in the class of '88. He was not at first understood by most of his classmates, but is at heart a good fellow, and something of a wit. His imitations of others were faultless and enlivened many an hour of our college course.

Allie McKenzie, of Fredericton, comes next, well known to St. John athletes as the captain of the U. N. B. football team, for the past year, and a kinky boy in the game. He is a lively boy, and makes things merry by his presence. Allie is quite a lady's man as well, his winning ways and coaxing moustahe apparently taking the female heart by storm. Mac is also something of an athlete, taking a prominent part in the sports held last month.

F. H. Peters, of Gibson, York county, is the next and last man of the class, a nice fellow, but one who did not mingle to any great extent with the rest of the boys. Fred is not a dull boy, but his mind was not sufficiently on his work, and he had to succumb to his more fortunate companions in the struggle for class standing.

And now I have reached the end of the list—a list which, in my prejudiced opinion, is composed of eighteen of the best fellows that Fredericton ever saw in one class, and from whom I part with a feeling of sadness when I think of the ties of friendship which have bound us together for three years being snapped, it may be forever, as the different members drift hither and thither on the surging tide of business life. The time has come when I must pronounce the thrice-repeated Vale, for in all probability there are some members of the class whom I will never again see. Good-bye, my classmates, and may the fondest recollections linger around the dear old class of '88.

St. John as a Summer Resort.

It is difficult to speak in measured terms of the beautiful pamphlet bearing the above title, which has just been published by Mr. Robert Reed. Printed on luxurious paper and enclosed in an imitation strawboard cover of artistic design, are given illustrations and maps—including a bird's-eye view of the city—than which none handsomer have ever been printed, and these are supplemented with brief but interesting and just comments. The primary design of the work is, of course, to set forth the advantages offered by the Mount Pleasant property, but the pamphlet cannot fail to draw favorable attention to the entire city and province. It is to be hoped that the enterprise and taste of Mr. Reed, as herein shown, may be crowned with success in the consummation of his cherished plan.

In the Hotel Corridors.

Elliott's hotel, that pleasant, homelike stopping-place, has been receiving some repairs and many improvements to fit it for the guests and "permanents" who crowd it every summer. It is handsomer than it was, but it couldn't be any more popular. Following the lead of other visiting base ball players, the Maine Central Institute nine put up at the Victoria, this week. One doesn't wonder they all go there, when one recalls the excellence of the house—and the genial countenance of "Phil."

"Harry" of the Royal, has returned from his vacation. He has been happy. Even now, his smile illuminates the whole office.

Sewing machines of all kinds repaired by experienced mechanics, at Bell's, 25 King street.

All Lawyers Need It.

All good judges of paper will be found among the purchasers of the excellent linen legal cap which Mr. Alfred Morrissey has just added to his stock. The paper has a heavy foundation, a perfect finish and, to complete the list of good qualities, an incredibly low price.
