SOCIAL AND PERSONAL. EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN ST. JOHN

AND HALIFAX

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, St. Stephen, Woodstock, Dorchester, Newcastle and Shediac-The Government House Ball.

In consequence of the prevalence of scarlet fever and the many deaths arising from it, a gloom seems to hang over the city, and it is not to be wondered at that I have little to record, this week, in the way of gaieties or social entertainments. Deeply and heartily does every one sympathize with the Rev. Canon and Mrs. Brigstocke in their sad affliction. Their youngest son was suddenly taken from them last week, and before his funeral had taken place, news reached them of the illness of their second son. who, accompanied by his elder brother, had that week returned to Windsor, where they attended the Collegiate school. Mrs. Brigstocke had only time to reach that place and see her second boy breathe his last. Impressive funeral services were held in Trinity church, Saturday and Wednesday afternoons, and reference was made to the occurrence in nearly all the churches, Sunday.

I hear that the son of Mr. Miller, head master of the Windsor Collegiate school, has been stricken with the disease, and the school broken up in consequence, the boys returning to their several homes. The eldest son of Mr. Barton Gandy, as well as one of Mr. J. Stone's children, are also ill with scarlet fever. Mrs. F. B. Hazen, who went to England a short time ago, intending to pay a long visit, returned last week in consequence of the ill-health of her mother, Mrs. Francis Ferguson, and has accompanied her to Baltimore, hoping the change of climate will prove beneficial to Mrs. Ferguson.

In accordance with my remarks last week with reference to the different "At Home" days, I have made a list of those I have been able to ascertain, hoping other ladies will kindly send in their names for publication :

It is a long time since a more enjoyable dance has been given in St. John than that on Thursday evening the 24th inst., by Mrs. John H. Parks at Westbank, Portland. It was in fact a ball in every sense of the word, and one that will not soon be forgotten by the gay throng who attended it, numbering nearly 150. Although the invitations were issued for half-past eight, guests began to arrive long before that time and the rooms were thronged and programmes filled before 9 o'clock. Mrs. Parks re ceived the guests, being ably assisted by her daughters, Miss Parks and Miss Annie Parks. Dancing was kept up in the large drawing rooms on a polished floor, and in the hall, where a linen had been stretched, while the library and rooms upstairs were set apart for whist. At ihe same time the comfort of the dancers was remembered by providing many a quiet and cozy corner where a seat could be procured and a tete a tete indulged in. In these retreats ung dainty little baskets of confectionery, for the benefit of those seated there. Music was excellently turnished by Messrs. Williams, Scribner and Sutherland, and was all that could be desired, the time kept being splendid, and several of the dances were encored. About 11 o'clock the doors of the dining room were thrown open where a most sumptuous and recherche supper was seen upon the tables. Instead of pausing for refreshments, the supper was a "running" one and was more enjoyed on that account, the rush and confusion of a large number in the room at one time being thus avoided. The regular programme consisted of 17 dances, but in addition there were several extras so that few of the guests left until half past two. All of the ladies looked particularly well and many wore new gowns.

Last year we said "Ginghams" on the 4th of January. This year we might have printed a good story of them on December 28th, but we didn't. Only a mention before today.

As the young æsthete sought for grace to live to the level of his blue china (he lived in Boston), so we wish graceful words for Ginghams. Words equal to this season's Ginghams. If they exist, we don't know where.

The weekly organ recitals at the Mission chapel reasource of much enjoyment to many. I am glad we have a clergyman amongst us who does so nuch for the encouragement and cultivation of good music.

The tableaux are progressing famously, and will ome off next Thursday and Friday evenings. As Mrs. Temple has been unable to get sufficient men to help her in her undertaking, the illustration from Iranhoe will be omitted. This is to be much regretted, but not to be wondered at, as few men are willing to go to the trouble or expense which these entertainments necessarily entail. There is one advantage women have over men : by some ingenuity and very little money a dress can be manufactured y themselves where men would incur a large ailor's bill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Shatford left St. John, Thurs lay, to spend a few weeks in New York.

51% to 14c. yd. We don't say what's coming in Ginghams. We do say that 50 styles are on the counters today. The range of prices is from 51/2 to 45 cents. The brightest imagination could not picture the successes in patterns and colors shown by this year's Ginghams. Colors heretofore thought sacred to silk and to wool are row a great success in cotton. Difference and novelty in style are expected, but it remained for this season to bring colors to perfection. As we look at the goods today it seems that the limits of cotton beautiful are reached, the ne-plusultra of spinning, weaving, coloring.

But who knows? The Canadian Gingham maker may yet be to the Scotchman as Cutty Sark to Tam-O'-Shanter : cannot capture him body and soul, but may whisk off his horse's tail in a twinkling. Ride fast, Anderson, there's a fiend of a Canadian behind ve?

What woman is not interested in these Ginghams? The shelves and counters are full, and they are long counters. Come, feast your eyes on them. Maybe you'll want to select something now and new styles in Gibsons are only six and a half cents and some styles are vanishing.

We did think that some account of styles and colors should be given here. But no: they must talk for themselves. We open the gates to the paradise of Ginghams. Our duty is done. Yours is begun.
