

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Morrell, of Boston, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. A. Whitney, returned home on Monday.

Mr. H. A. Powell, barrister, of Sackville, was in town on Monday.

Mr. E. A. Record, of Boston, has been spending the last few days in town visiting his parents.

Mrs. McKean gave a very delightful whist party last Thursday evening. The guests were few, but they enjoyed themselves immensely, and voted the evening a success in every respect.

The West End Whist club meet this evening at Mrs. P. S. Archibald's. The temptation was too great to be withstood, even during passion week, for an evening at Mrs. Archibald's always means enjoyment.

DORCHESTER.

APRIL 17.—Miss Bertha Stevens, who has been in charge of the primary department of the Superior school here, has obtained a fortnight's leave of absence, on account of ill health, and left on Saturday for her home in Albert county.

Messrs. D. J. Welsh and D. Grant, barristers, of Moncton, were in town on Thursday.

Mr. Fairweather, of Sussex, father of Mr. George M. Fairweather, of this place, was in town on Saturday.

Mr. W. W. Wells returned on Friday last from a visit from Fredericton.

Messrs. E. B. Chandler and Arthur N. Charters spent Friday in Moncton.

Mrs. Shalloo returned last week from a visit to St. John.

Hon. A. D. Richard, M. L. C., returned on Monday from Fredericton, having given as much time as he could spare to his legislative duties.

The Misses Fannie and Carrie Barnes are making a somewhat lengthy visit to friends in King's county.

Mr. George J. Clarke made a brief visit to St. John, on Saturday.

Mrs. W. F. Todd gave a children's party on Monday afternoon, in honor of her little daughter Bessie's birthday. There were about 25 boys and girls present and some of the little ladies were very prettily dressed. The young hostess, and her sister Winnie, showed a wisdom far beyond their years, in entertaining their guests, and at 7 o'clock when all went home it was generally declared to be a "perfectly lovely party."

Mrs. Percy Lord entertained her lady friends with progressive whist on Thursday evening.

Miss Gertrude Eaton left in the cars on Tuesday morning for a long visit in Philadelphia.

SHEDAC.

APRIL 16.—There are still a few visitors visiting Shediac. Last week I noticed Mrs. C. F. Hanington, of Moncton, over here, and when she returned she took Mrs. J. P. Hanington with her for a short visit.

Mrs. W. E. Bishop arrived here from Boston last Wednesday.

Dr. E. A. Smith, who has been for some time in New Westminster, arrived home on Saturday last. Although he has had a lot of hardship, he does not look any the worse for it.

The many friends of Miss Jennie Webster are glad to hear she is again.

Mr. A. G. Lawton, who has been seriously ill for some time back, was "out on Monday for the first time."

On account of summer weather approaching, some of the people who spend a few weeks in Shediac every summer have already taken rooms at the Weddon house. Among them are, I hear, Mrs. Benedict, Mrs. Beddome and Mrs. Deane.

The many friends of Mrs. Anderson will regret to hear of her serious illness.

The tea party at Mr. John Henderson's, last Wednesday evening, was a great success.

Miss Gertrude Black returned from Moncton, Saturday, where she had been spending a few weeks with her friends.

Mrs. Bourgeois also returned from a visit to her friends.

Mr. Fred Parlee, of Sussex, is in town spending a few days.

BATHURST.

APRIL 17.—Mr. A. J. H. Stewart is travelling abroad. He will visit some of the principal cities of the United States and will be absent, I understand, until the latter part of May.

free from adulterations. You can use it on wash day without boiling, scalding, or hard rubbing, by following the directions on the wrapper. You can use it everywhere a soap is used, with the best possible results. Will not your work glide along more easily if you use "SURPRISE"? We think so.

THE ST. CROIX SOAP MFG. CO.,

ST. STEPHEN, N. B.

I was pleased to meet on the street, last week, Mrs. Nichols and daughter, and her sister, Miss Knapp, of Dorchester. They were visiting Mrs. James Purdy and Mrs. Inglis Bent.

Miss Geraldine Stewart, of Halifax, spent part of last week in town, the guest of Mrs. A. R. Dickey, and left on Wednesday for home.

We miss our genial friend, Mr. J. S. Armstrong, C. E., who spends the greater part of the time at the Tidnish end of the ship railway. Occasionally he spends a day or two in town.

Mrs. Senator Dickey spent a day in Moncton, last week, with her niece, Mrs. John McSweeney.

Quite a number of our ladies have their reception days, notably Mrs. Senator Dickey and Mrs. Ketchum, both receive on Saturday, and Tuesday at the vicarage always finds Mrs. Harris at home.

Mr. Leckie, of Spring Hill, was in town last week, and now that he is soon to leave there, we will miss his pleasant company.

Mr. S. Toolings, of the Bermuda Gazette, and his sister-in-law, Miss Allison, of Sackville, were in town on Saturday last.

Miss Dunlop is better, and able to drive out.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker, of Halifax, are in town.

KINGSTON, KENT CO.

APRIL 17.—Miss Minnie Doherty, who has been spending the winter in Nova Scotia, has returned home.

Mr. R. P. Doherty, our popular young dentist, is expected home Saturday, and will remain till the following Wednesday.

I am sorry to say we are to lose one of our young men, Mr. Wm. Wilson, who starts for the Pacific coast the first of the week.

Messrs. Thomas and Hugh Jardine are spending a few days shooting, at the beaches. Fowl are reported plentiful, and they will no doubt have good sport.

The Misses Jardine, of Jardineville, were in town Monday afternoon.

The many friends of Miss Theresa McDonald are sorry to hear she is very ill.

Mrs. J. W. Kirkland has also been quite ill for a few days, but is recovering.

Mr. O. Smith is on a trip up north on business. He is expected home this week.

The friends of Mr. Allan M. Smith, of Summerside, are glad to hear that he is recovering from his recent severe illness.

Should be Well Patronized.

The friends of the Berlitz pupils and all who are interested in or curious about the Berlitz method ought to crowd Good Templar hall, next Friday night. An entertainment will be given by the pupils then and there, including a French comedy, that will doubtless prove both interesting and amusing. Tickets may be obtained, free of charge, at the Berlitz school, No. 74 King street. There ought to be a large attendance, in testimony of the proficiency of the scholars and the ability of the teachers.

Go There for Your Tea.

The entertainments given by the Ladies' Aid association of St. Jude's church, Carleton, are always so pleasantly successful that it isn't necessary to do more than call attention to the announcement of their high tea and fancy sale next Tuesday.

To Have a Benefit.

Violinist T. F. Sutherland is to have a benefit, Easter Monday evening, in Dominion building. His friends will all go. Harrison's orchestra will be present, and a good time is guaranteed.

The Jesuits' Oath.

La Minerve, of Montreal, publishes what it declares is the correct vow taken by the Jesuits. They take no oath, says La Minerve, but simply the vow of obedience, poverty and chastity. The following is a translation:

Almighty and Everlasting God: I, although in every way most unworthy to present myself before You, but confiding nevertheless in Your goodness and infinite mercy and urged by a desire to serve You, vow to Your Divine Majesty, in the presence of the most holy Virgin Mary and the whole of Your heavenly court, poverty, chastity and perpetual obedience in the Society of Jesus, and I promise to enter this society, to live and die therein, interpreting all things according to the constitutions of said society.

I therefore most humbly beseech Your infinite goodness, through the precious blood of Jesus Christ, that You may be pleased to agreeably accept this holocaust, and that as You have given me the desire and the means to offer it to You, You may furthermore give me abundant grace to accomplish it.
