EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN ST. JOHN AND HALIFAX

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Newcastle, Caraquet, Kingston and Amherst.

In looking over some English papers lately I noticed in the descriptions of recent weddings, some of the bridesmaid's dresses, which struck me as very pretty, and as I hear rumors of several weddings coming off in the early summer months, I thought it would not he out of place to describe some that I thought most effective.

One of the prettiest was where the maids wore Empire dresses, of white crepe de chine trimmed with pale green moire, white straw hats with green velvet and moire trimmings to match, and bunches of lillies of the valley on the crown. They carried bouquets of the same flowers, tied with broad green moire ribbon.

In another they wore Directoire costumes of pale green faille Française, with white moire vests, lapels and sashes, and hats entirely covered with grey and white ostrich feathers. Their brooches composed of "1889" in diamonds, and pearl horse shoe in the centre were the gift of the bridegroom. They carried bouquets of red anemones intermixed with white

The following dresses were pretty, but simple: Kilted skirts, of fine cream serge, with loose skirts of china silk and Zouaves of the serge, white straw sailor hats and bronze shoes and stockings; loose bouquets of pink carnations and green orchids tied with white ribbon.

I noticed in the Ladies' Pictorial that, at the last drawing room held by Her Majesty at Buckingham palace, Mrs. James I. Fellows and the Misses Amy and Zoe Fellows were among those presented, and the dresses were most graphically described, accompanied by an illustration of Mrs. Fellows' gown. It was made at the firm of Messrs. Russell & Allan, Old Bond street, and was most magnificent in every particular. The skirt was of grey silk, with broad panels of black silk velvet, on which were embroidered a design of feathers. The train was of grey satin, on which oak leaves were brocaded and outlined with black and silver. At one side it was bordered with oak leaves in silver filagree, intersected with soft bunches of grey ostrich feathers. The Misses Fellows' presentation dresses were of white silk, the trains falling from the shouldersone being trimmed with ostrich feathers, Greece water grapes and vine leaves, and the other with feathers and snow drops. Both wore the regulation veil and ostrich plumes in the hair.

Miss Edith Burpee left on Thursday for Kingston, where she intends paying a visit. Mrs. Cotton returned this week to her home in Halifax, after spending a few weeks with her St.

John friends. Mr. W. Malcolm McKay has returned from his trip to England.

Mrs. DeSoyres is spending a few weeks at Gondola point. I am sorry to hear Mr. W. E. Vroom's youngest boy has a slight attack of scarlet fever. Mrs. Stocker and Miss Stocker, mother and sister of the late Mrs. Gollmer, leave by steamer Ulunda for England, accompanied by the four children of Rev. A. J. Gollmer. Mr. Gollmer intends giving up housekeeping and will board at the Clifton

Mr. A. Chipman Smith, who met with an accident at the curling rink, on Monday evening, has been confined to the house for the past few days. Lieut. T. P. Vroom, of the 62nd Fusiliers, left on Tuesday for Fredericton, to take a short course at the Royal School of Infantry. A pleasant family gathering took place on Monday last, at the residence of Mrs. H. Boyer Smith, Carleton street, when her relatives met together to celebrate her 80th birthday. I hear that Miss Nita Carritte sang lately in Paris before Queen Isabella, as well as at several Parisian drawing rooms. She leaves for London in May, where she will appear in concerts. Miss Carritte is said to have a very fine voice and has been much complimented on her singing. Mr. J. Almon and Miss Edith Ritchie, who were married in Halifax on Tuesday, passed through St. John on Wednesday, en route to New York. They will reside in Montreal, at which place Mr. Almon is stationed in the Bank of Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wilson are boarding at Mrs. Beard's, No. 127 Duke street.

Mrs. C. D. Corey, who was so dangerously ill last week, is, I am glad to hear, gradually improving. HALIFAX, N. S. APRIL 3-Old St. Paul's was the scene of another brilliant wedding, yesterday, the principals in the interesting event being Mr. J. C. C. Almon, youngest son of M. B. Almon, and Miss Edith Ritchie, youngest daughter of Mr. Justice Ritchie. The bride who was given away by her father, wore a beautiful gown of rich white silk, made in Directoire style, the bodice being trimmed with lace and orange blossoms, with a wreath of the same flowers and a long plain tulle veil. She carried a handsome bouquet of white flowers. Her costume was extremely elegant and beautiful. The bridesmaids were Miss Ritchie, sister of the bride, and Miss Nellie Almon, sister of the groom. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. M. B. Almon, jr. Among the guests, who enjoyed a wedding lunch at Judge

Ritchie's residence, were : Ritchie's residence, were:

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL. known Granville street jeweller, is soon to marry Miss Albro; also that Dr. Carlton Jones and Miss Susie Morrow will, in a short time, be made one. The well known athlete, Mr. W. A. Henry, and Miss Troop are another couple for whom the merry wedding bells will soon ring out. The engagements of Mr. Waliace and Miss Kinnear, and Rev. N. R. Raven and Miss Wilson will, it is said soon result > in weddings. A brilliant wedding is announced to take place at St. Luke's cathedral on the 25th, the principals being Miss Sophie Almon, daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Almon, of Windsor, and Hubert Hensley, son of the late Prof. Hensley, of Kings's college.

I guess everybody about town will be getting married soon. A goodly number of our girls have been already captured by non-residents. I am glad, however, that some of our boys are not getting too far behind in the race.

Mrs. Longley will give an At Home at her residence, South street, on Thursday evening.

FREDERICTON.

APRIL 3 .- My budget of society news will be very limited this week, as there is really nothing of interest going on in a social way, save an occasional whist-party and a few lunch and dinner parties. Of course this is nothing more than we should expect during the penitential season; but I hear rumors of a number of entertainments to take place after

Mrs. Long's whist-party, last Thursday evening, was a most enjoyable affair. Everyone had a "lovely time." There were about 40 guests, and the first prize was won by Mrs. J. K. Hazen and Mr. James Tibbits, while the booby prize was taken by Miss Minnie Richards and Mr. Fred. Fisher. A choice supper was served at the usual hour, soon after which this pleasant party came to an end.

Everything has been done to make the sacred concert, which will be held in the City hall, tomorrow evening, a grand success, and it is thought a large audience will greet the singers. The following is God Save the Queen. The ladies' gallery at the house of assembly, this evening, was full of the leading ladies of the city, both married and single, besides a large number who had seats down stairs, all eagerly listening to the spirited debate on the woman's franchise bill, showing conclusively by their presence in such large numbers how anxiously they are watching the result of this debate. I think Mr. Emmerson won the hearts of all the ladies present this evening by his able speech on their behalf.

Mrs. Murray will give a drive-whist party next Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lugrin entertained a number of their friends at a drive-whist party last evening. Major and Mrs. Gordon gave a dinner party, one of a series, last evening.

Judge and Mrs. Fraser entertained a number of ladies and gentlemen at lunch, yesterday, from 2 to 4.30 o'clock.

Yesterday was reception day at government house, and despite the unpleasant day and bad walking, there were quite a number called. A number took lunch at government house today. Lieut. Herbert Tilley left here yesterday for a visit to Toronto and Ottawa. I understand Sir Leonard Tilley and his son, Mr.

Leonard Tilley, will soon leave home to take an extended tour to British Columbia. Mrs. A. G. Beckwith left home, last week, for

New York, where she will spend some weeks with her relatives. She will be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Markwald.

Miss Janet Rankine, of St. John, is the guest of Miss Louise Ritchie. Mr. and Mrs. Sewell are going to give a fancy dress ball on the evening of the 25th of this month. This will be quite a novel entertainment for Fredericton as there has been nothing of this kind given here for some years. No doubt the lovers of gayety will find this a pleasant change from the conventional ball costume.

A large number of our citizens went up to Marysville this evening, to attend the last carnival of the I hear the Hiconie club intend enjoying tomorrow

Miss White, of St. John, accompanied by her brother, Mr. Oscar White, of New York, came to Fredericton yesterday to spend a few days with their brother, Mr. White, M. P. P. They are boarding at Mrs. Barker's.

Miss Nellie Randolph, who has been attending Mount Holvoke college, is spending her holidays with Mrs. Sutton Fenety, at Cambridge, Mass. Messrs. Arthur Akerly and J. Dashley Harrison have returned home from McGill Medical college.

Mr. Edward Jack will lecture on Newfoundland in the old kirk, Friday evening. Dr. Geo. A. Hetherington, of St. John, was in Fredericton, last week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Risteen. Miss Florence Barker, formerly of Woodstock, young lady well known in Fredericton, was married recently at White Sulphur Springs, Montana, Zembra. to Mr. Elijah Edwards. From letters to Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Fenety's

Mrs. Capt. Tabor intends moving the first of May from the house she has been occupying, on Waterloo row, to that very pleasant residence formerly owned by Judge Steadman, on Sunbury street.

Mrs. Sills and her family will leave this city tomorrow for Boston, where they intend making their future home.

MONCTON.

[Our correspondent, "Cecil Gwynne," has explained that the Moncton letter which should have been printed in the last issue of PROGRESS was mailed at a post-office box, Wednesday evening. It has not yet reached us! Nor has the letter which should have appeared this week, though long experience of our correspondent's fidelity and punctuality warrant us in believing that the fault is not his. His letters have always been plainly addressed, properly stamped, and mailed in good season, and the responsibility for the vexatious delay rests altogether with the post-office officials. It is needless to say that our Moncton readers are not more keenly disappointed than are

ST. STEPHEN.

APRIL 3 .- Gayety in St. Stephen has been suspended during the past few weeks, owing to the Lenten season. Now and then some one is brave enough to give invitations to a quiet whist party, but every one seems religiously inclined and never before have the daily services at Christ church been so well attended.

Miss Ella Broad has returned from Montreal, where she spent the winter. Miss Broad looks as charming as ever, and wise Dame Rumor says she will go back very soon, to reside permanently. Miss Sadie Rideout is in St. John for a brief

Eleven of our most talented and prominent young adies are carefully rehearsing a play for the benefit of the long-needed public library. The play is called Anita's Trial, or Our Girls in Camp. The young men are much chagrined that there is no place for them. One gentleman felt his disappointment so keenly that, in the last act, where pistol shots are heard, he is allowed to fire the pistol, which humble part he most gratefully accepted.
