HAMPTON.

[Progress is for sale at Hampton station by T. G. Barnes and at Hampton village by Messrs. A. & W. Hicks.]

JULY 18.—Mr. and Mrs. James J. Bostwick and family, and Mrs. Pritchard, of St. John, and her daughter, Mrs. Edmund Smith, who was en route to her home in Halifax, spent a few days near the station, returning home on Monday.

Hampton Court, I. O. Foresters was organized on Friday evening, in Dr. Smith's new hall. The court will meet there monthly.

Mr. Ernest Whitaker is spending the summer here, the guest of Mr. S. W. Sprague, jr.

Ex-Mayor Thorne and Mr. S. Hayward went trout fishing to a neighboring lake on Thursday, and were successful in capturing some fair specimens of the "speckled beauties."

Mr. A. H. Hamilton, Mr. Albert Peters and Mr. L. Amos Goddard were in town on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McAvity and family have returned to Lakeside for the remainder of the summer.

Hon. P. A. Landry, M. P., spent a few hours here on Saturday.

What might have been a serious fire took place in Mr. Mabey's establishment at the village, a few days ago, but with the prompt assistance of the hands from Messrs. Flewelling's mills, the fire was confined to that building, which was the only one destroyed.

Mr. Sprague, of the County academy at Liverpool, N. S., is visiting his parents near the station.

Misses Raymond and Hammond, of the village, spent Tuesday in the city.

Col. Donville, of Rousesay, and Mr. S. L. Peters, of Onabog, were in town on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Scammell are here today visiting her sister, Mrs. C. A. Palmer. Messrs. Scammell and Palmer have started on a fishing trip to some point not far away.

Miss Minnie Travis arrived home from St. Stephen last evening, where she has been visiting, accompanied by Miss Annie Newham, who will spend a short time here. Her old friends are glad to welcome her back to this parish, where her father was for several years a popular rector.

Mr. A. C. Fairweather spent a part of Tuesday here.

The many friends of Miss Tibbitts are incensed at the shameful treatment she received at Montreal a few days ago. It is certainly a most astonishing piece of police court business.

AMHERST, N. S.

[Progress is for sale in Amherst at G. G. Bird's bookstore.]

JULY 17.—Society is exceedingly quiet. The rain of last week has dampened everything, even the inclination for a little gaiety. The garden party at Wilkesville did not take place on that account, but came off on Monday evening and was a pleasant affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey entertained a select number at dinner on Wednesday evening of last week.

Mrs. Henry Dunlop and daughter are in town. Mrs. R. W. Chipman, of Somerville, Mass., and family, are visiting her father, Mr. Elderkin.

Miss HIB, who was Mrs. N. Curry's guest, has returned to her home in Sidney, C. B., accompanied by her cousin, Miss Lizzie Hill.

Mr. James A. Dickey, C. E. of the W. A. R., was in town this week.

Mrs. R. C. Fuller entertained a large number of children on Saturday evening in honor of her little daughter Beatrice.

Miss Lena Sutcliffe, of Halifax, is in town.

Miss Brown, of Wolfville, is the guest of Mrs. Tay.

Mrs. Mark Curry has Miss Rice, of Boston, visiting her.

Mrs. Brown, of Halifax, was here for a few days this week.

Miss Harding was in town this week.

Mr. J. Primrose Carritte, of St. Paul, Minn., was in town on Monday, and on Tuesday he was united in marriage to Miss Nellie Knapp, one of Sackville's most amiable young ladies. The happy couple left immediately for their future home at St. Paul, followed by the good wishes of their friends, on Tuesday evening, filling the hearts of the little ones with delight and their pockets with good things.

Mrs. Muncy left on Friday last for home, in Guernsey, Col.

Mr. Alfred Chapman, editor of the Masonic Magazine, in Boston, with Mrs. Chapman, is spending a month near town.

Mr. Walter Higgins, eldest son of Prof. Higgins, Wolfville, was in town this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Bliss gave a small party on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Medley Townshend gave a large and very pleasant party on Wednesday evening last.

The Methodist church was filled to overflowing on Wednesday morning, to witness the marriage of Miss Florence Greenfield to Rev. W. Y. Chapman, pastor of Olivet church (Presbyterian), in Reading, Penn. The bride, who was led to the altar by her brother, was attired in white moire silk, court train, veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried an exquisite bouquet of white flowers, and looked very charming. Mr. J. Albert Black presided at the organ and played the wedding march as the wedding party left the church, the bride and groom being preceded by four little girls in white, who strewed the aisle with flowers. A large number of guests partook of an elegant déjeuner at the residence of the bride's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman left in the afternoon train for their future home, in Reading. Mrs. Chapman has left many friends behind her, and will be greatly missed, for she was always most willing to assist in all concerts or musical gatherings, charming every one with her beautiful voice. The presents were numerous and elegant. The number was a cheque for $50 from the groom's sister, Mrs. Dr. Trueman, of Londonderry Mines.

OSCAR.

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL.

[Progress is for sale at Annapolis Royal at Fred S. Symonds & Co.]

JULY 17.—Miss Esson is at the rectory visiting Mrs. Movat.

Miss Robinson left on Friday for Yarmouth to visit her cousin, Mrs. Ross.

Miss Ambrose and Miss Bacon, of Digby, were in town yesterday.

Miss Fanny Troupe, of Bridgetown, spent last Monday and Tuesday at "The Moorlands."

Mr. Fred Newcombe, of Kentville, was in town last week.

Mr. J. A. Dickey arrived yesterday from Amherst.

I notice that our obliging piano tuner, Mr. A. Lockwood, of Cornwallis, is at the American House. The party given last week by Mrs. Dr. Robinson at "The Moorlands," was enjoyed by everybody present.

The tennis and dancing party at the Rectory was also, I believe, a very enjoyable affair.

I expect our little town will present a deserted appearance next week, as quite a number are preparing to attend school.

The following verses were read at the W. C. T. U. reading rooms several weeks ago, and a copy of them found on the street since:

LOVE'S FIRST KISS.

I never treasured up this kiss,

And faintly now would I forget—

But with its rapturous thrill of bliss

My heart, pulse, brain, are throbbing yet!

Revering it lies upon my lips,

Imbuing all their dewy showers,

A honey-bee the nectar sips

From out the rosy lips of flowers.

And other thirsting kisses come

To claim their share of nectar, too,

But with his little rosy plume

He drives them from his cup of dew.

Oh, Cupid! take thy kiss again,

Did it from off my lips depart;

'Tis sipping life from every vein—

'Tis break is fastened on my heart.

—Amen.
