MONCTON.

Oct. 2.—The colder weather of the past few days seems to have awakened thoughts of festivity in the minds of our society people, for last week was rendered bright by several delightful little social gatherings.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. R. A. Borden entertained a few friends, and on Wednesday there were no less than three little parties. Mrs. Edward Trites entertained a few friends at a little whist party.

Mr. W. P. Proctor invited a few of his friends to assist him in keeping his birthday, and Mrs. J. B. Bruce gave a delightful little dance at her home on Bonnacord street.

Mr. A. A. Rankin, of Saratoga Springs, New York, who has been spending a week among his old friends in Moncton, left town on Friday to spend a few days with relatives near Fredericton.

Mr. P. S. Archibald is enjoying a visit from her mother and sister, Mrs. and Miss Lindsay, of Antigonish.

Mr. R. W. Simpson, of the engineering department of the I. C. R., returned this morning from his home in Pictou, whither he had been called to be present at the death bed of his mother.

Mrs. G. J. O'Donohery left town on Monday for Boston, where she will spend some weeks.

Moncton is meeting with some very serious losses lately, so far as her social circle is concerned, and I fear there will be some vacant places in our society this winter which it will be hard to fill.

Mrs. J. S. Benedict left on Monday for her home in Washington, D. C., called by the dangerous illness of her father, who has been in failing health for months past.

Mr. Proctor has broken up his charming little home on Bonnacord street, and will in future reside at the Brunswick, Miss Grassie, of Halifax, cousin of the late Mrs. Proctor, who has been presiding over the household since Mrs. Proctor's death.

As soon as I begin to write about departing friends I grow alarmed when I count them up, there are so many leaving us. Mrs. and Miss Lindsay, who have been spending the summer at Riviere du Loup, are paying a short visit to Moncton at present, and I regret to say that their object in coming is to make arrangements for leaving Moncton, if not permanently, at least for the winter.

Mr. Lindsay being engaged on the Temiscouata railway, the family have decided to make their home at Riviere du Loup for the present. I am sorry to say that by this arrangement we shall also lose Mrs. King, Mrs. Lindsay's mother, one of our most zealous and active church workers.

The loss to St. George's will be almost irreparable, but we shall look hopefully forward to their early return.

Last, though by no means least, Miss Milliken left town this morning for Saratoga, N. Y., where she intends entering for the winter term at Temple Grove seminary. Miss Milliken is a universal favorite in Moncton, and will be greatly missed by her many friends, who will look forward to her return with the June roses. She goes under the escort of Mr. A. A. Rankin, and intends visiting her brother, Mr. Albert Milliken, of Port Henry, before entering on her studies.

Two more of Moncton's gilded youths have turned their backs on single blessedness forever, resolved to prove to all whom it may concern that marriage is not a failure.

One of the two happy bridegrooms is Mr. R. W. Hewson, of the law firm of Hamilton, Teed & Hewson, who went happily off to Dorchester yesterday morning, with triumph in his heart and smiles on his face, followed by the warm good wishes of his friends, and was married in the evening to Miss Chandler, daughter of Mr. George Chandler, of Dorchester. The other is Mr. James Taylor, C. E., son of Mr. George Taylor, of the I. C. R., who was married today to Miss Hudson, of Pictou.

Mr. and Mrs. Hewson passed through Moncton, last evening, en route for Upper Canada. They intend visiting Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Niagara and all points of interest in the upper provinces.

Mr. E. W. Jarvis, of the bank of Montreal, returned last Saturday from his holiday trip, looking all the better for his vacation.

Mr. W. Cowling, who has been so ill with typhoid fever, is progressing slowly towards recovery, and though still very weak the fever has left him, and all that is needed now to complete his restoration to health is rest and care.

Moncton wants a hospital, and the Rev. G. M. Campbell preached an eloquent sermon on the subject in the Methodist church last Sunday evening. The Transcript remarks, with unconscious humor, that with one or two exceptions, the entire medical profession of Moncton were present.

It is rather rough on the medical profession of our town that the papers should consider the fact of their all being at church on the same evening sufficiently wonderful to merit a special notice. I wonder who the "exceptions" were? and whether they don't feel awfully "cut up" now to think they didn't go, too?

Mr. Harvey Atkinson's friends are glad to welcome him home after his trip to the United States, but sorry that Mrs. Atkinson's health was not sufficiently re-established to enable her to return with him. It will be remembered that Mrs. Atkinson has been an inmate of Battle Creek sanitarium for some months.

Dr. C. W. Bradley left town last night to spend a week in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Boggs returned last week from their visit to Halifax.

St. Bernard's bazaar closed last Saturday, after a three weeks' session, during which its energetic promoters cleared the very neat sum of $5,000. I could not much mind being a promoter myself, if I could only have a modest share of the profits, which of course I couldn't.

JUDGMENT.

We open the second half of our fourth inning with every man in his position and every one working for victory.

We are strengthened at the bat by some heavy hitters in the shape of special drives. Our catcher receives and sends back every ball (with change) in quick time, and our pitchers never fail to get a ball where they want it.

Our first baseman gets everything thrown to him, and the gentleman on second never fails to satisfy his man, while the third baseman never allows his victim to get by him.

Our "short stop" applies more to goods than to men.

The gentleman in left field has lots of work to do, and our right fielder accepts every possible chance, while "centrefield" covers an immense pile of territory.

Our mascots bring us lots of luck, and our spare men consist of reserve stocks of goods. Our grounds, to which ladies are admitted free, are convenient and popular, and while we endeavor to always have the grand stand with us we never question the umpire's decisions, and all we ask on a fair play is
