EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN ST. JOHN AND HALIFAX

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Richibucto, Der-chester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Truro, Calais, Etc.

When you go to the country or seaside have PRO-GRESS sent to you every week. It costs only 10

Despite the thick fog and mist last Saturday, quite a number availed themselves of the invitation of Mrs. John McMillan to a boating and tennis party at Rothesay, leaving by the 3 o'clock train. The society people of Rothesay were also well represented, and although the weather prevented their participating in the pleasures, they spent a pleasant afternoon roaming about the grounds (principally in twos), enjoying each other's society, as well as the sumptuous high tea prepared for them. A large marquee had been put up, in which long tables were laid, with all the luxuries of the season, and beautifully decorated with some of Rothesay's choice flowers. The following ladies and gentlemen were

Dr and Mrs Grier (Halifax), Mr and Mrs Douglas Hazen, Miss Tibbets (Fredericton), Mrs Hodgins (Ottawa), Rev F Ritchie (Ottawa), Mr R Ritchie, Mrs Murray Maclaren, the Misses Maclaren, Miss Warner, Miss Mary Sturdee, Miss Fanny Domville, Mr J Domville, Miss Troop, Miss Katie Murray, Miss Holbrook, Dr Steeves, Mr H Drury, the Misses Drury, Miss Hatheway, Miss Adams, Mr Peter Clinch, the Misses Jarvis, Miss Ruel, Mr Keltie Jones, Miss Jackey Hazen, Mr Finlay, Mr Kirkwood, Mr Hodgins (Ottawa) the Misses Bayard, the Misses Robertson, Mr A Adams, Mr Roy Campbell, Mr Simonds, Mr Herbert Clinch, Miss K Crookshank, the Misses Snider, Mr Twining Hartt, the Misses Randolph (Fredericton), Miss Katie Smith Mr W Lawton, Mr Murray (Moncton), Mr Charles Harrison, Miss Ruel (Fredericton) and others.

On Thursday, August 1, a most enjoyable evening party was given by Mrs. Skinner, at her residence,

Mr. G. Y. Crookshank (Ottawa,) who has been spending some weeks in St. John, left on Monday for the Halifax carnival. One of those very pleasant "at homes" which have become so fashionable in St. John this summer, was given yesterday (Friday) by Mrs. W. H. Adams, Coburg street. The cards of invitation were from 4.30 until 7, and during that time the rooms were filled with guests, some remaining the whole time, while others dropped in for a short time as etiquette admits. Light refreshments were served during the afternoon.

Mr. Albert Lockhart, son of mayor-elect Lockhart, arrived from Edinburgh last week. Mr. W. L. Germaine, of the Ottawa branch of the Bank of Montreal, arrived here on Tuesday last to spend his holidays among his old friends in St. | Truro. Her absence was so prolonged that we be-Mr. J. Taylor returned to his home, in London, returned home this week. Mr. C. E. Burpee is able to be out again, after being confined to the house through illness. On Thursday evening last a delightful entertainent was given by Mr. and Mrs. Clinch, at their pretty residence, Rothesay, for their son, Mr. Herbert Clinch, of the Military college, Kingston, who is spending his vacation in St. John. Owing to the perfect arrangement of everything, the evening was a success. All the young people of Rothesay were present, and a great number from the city went out by the evening train, returning at midnight. A most elegant supper was provided for the guests, as well as refreshments through the evening. The heavy rain which fell during the afternoon prevented much strolling about the grounds, which young people so much enjoy at balls in a country place. I am glad to see Mr. Geo. McLeod is able to be about again after hls late accident at the lacrosse match during carnival week. Mrs. C. E. L. Jarvis and Miss Jarvis went to Digby this week. Mrs. Toller (Ottawa,) spent a few days in St. John last week with her sister, Lady Tilley. She is now visiting Mrs. Bayard, Germain street.

Mrs. Carruthers, of Kingston, Ont., is vistting her mother, Mrs. Isaac Burpee, Mount Pleasant.

It is now acknowledged by nearly everyone who reads Progress, that the notice of the whereabouts of one's friends, and the society news generally, is most interesting and useful, and yet it is astonishing how few persons send me items of interest for publication. I will, therefore, repeat what I said some time ago, that anything addressed to "Terpsichore," care of PROGRESS, will be sent to me, and will be TERPSICHORE. strictly private.

[FROM OTHER CORRESPONDENTS.] Mrs. A. W. Little, accompanied by her daughter

Edith, left the city on Tuesday for the carnival at Halifax, to be the guests of Mrs. Little's brother-inlaw, the Hon. S. H. Holmes, of that city. Mrs. E. Stone Wiggins, who has been visiting friends in this city and vicinity for the last two months, leaves today, via C. P. R., for her home in

Aug. 7 .- No sooner has the St. John carnival begun to fade from our memories, and recede into the shadowy past, than the Halifax ditto looms up in the near present, and all is excitement once more. The Misses Ambrose (Digby) returned home on I do not think very many of our society people have sufficiently recovered from the fatigue of sight-seeing at St. John to feel a very keen appetite for more just at present. But still a large number stayed at home, and reserved their forces for the city of fortifications, so I fancy there will be no lack of Moncton Mrs. Downey, who has been the guest of Mr. | people to add to the attractions of carnival week, for, somehow or other, Moncton folks are always sure to "get there." You meet them in New York, you stumble over them in British Columbia; there are whole colonies of them in Winnipeg, and I Canon Brigstocke and Mrs. L. R. Harrison left on | firmly believe that if I ever wander down the fertile lands on the Pacific Slopes, and stop at the door of some farmhouse to ask for a drink of buttermilk to cool my fevered brow, the farmer would stare for a moment, and then, in a voice choked with emotion, he would say, "Aren't you 'Cecil Gwynne' from Moncton? Bless your heart, I thought so! I'm from there myself; used to live on the Mountain Road. Come right in and take something." I fancy the atmosphere of train smoke and lubricating oil, which the young Monctonian breathes in from his earliest infancy, must have something to do with his wandering tendencies, for he always wants to get on the train and go somewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Borden and their two little daughters left town on Monday morning for Halifax, where they intend spending two or three days, taking in the carnival gaieties, after which they will visit southern Nova Scotia, returning early

Mrs. Hazen, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harris for some months, returned to her home at Sussex last week. Mrs. Hazen will be greatly missed by the many warm friends she has made during her stay.

Miss Hennigar returned last Friday from St. John, where she had been spending carnival week with her sister, Mrs. Thorne. I am glad to see that Miss Thomson has also returned from her visit to gan to fear we had lost her altogether, and though we have plenty of fair maids in our town, we can't spare one of them. Mr. J. L. Harris left for Toronto on Wednesday night on a business trip. Mrs. E. M. Estey returned on Friday from her visit to Fredericton, only to take wing again very shortly, I believe, for Halifax. Mrs. Estey's visits street. Miss Ethel Reed is the guest of Mrs. W. H. to Moncton during the summer are like those of the angels to earth, few and far between. Lieutenant Dundas, of H. M. S. Bellerophon, spent some days in town last week. Mrs. Thomas Williams is spending a few weeks in St. Andrew's, visiting relatives.

Miss Roach, of St. John, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. R. A. Borden, returned to her home Miss Cooke returned on Monday from a short sit to Dorchester.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cresswell, of Springfield, are in town, visiting Mrs. Cresswell's father, Mr. George Taylor, of the I. C. R. Mr. Cresswell occupied the pulpit at St. George's last Sunday, Rev. Mr. Talbot spending Sunday at Shediac.

Moncton is unusually quiet this summer. June, July, and the first week in August have passed and not a solitary picnic-except, of course, church picnics-has enlivened the season. Everybody seems too busy to think of pleasure, and in a very short time it will be getting late for such festivities, and we shall be thinking about fires and wraps in the

Mrs. C. J. Butcher left town last evening to spend a few days at her former home in Newcastle.

The railway station was crowded last evening with pleasure seekers intent upon the Halifax carnival, and on the arrival of the C. P. R. express it was found to be so full that an extra car had to be put on to accommodate the Moneton contingent. By hour late. Quite a large excursion party came up from Dorchester yesterday on the Arbutus. Among the number were Lady Smith, Mrs. Hickman, Mrs. Joshua Chandler, Miss Nellie Chandler, Miss S. F. Chandler, Miss Forsyth and several other ladies. The sterner sex were represented by Mr. John Hickman, Mr. Hawkins, Mr. W. H. Y. Smith and number of others. The party took tea in Moncton, returning to Dorchester by moonlight.

Aug. 7 .- This summer has eclipsed all others for picnics, scarcely a day but we see carriage loads of people starting off for the day, besides scores of picnics by water. I heard of a very pleasant affair given by Mrs. Nehemiah Marks, on Thursday last, at her beautiful grounds some two or three miles from here by the river side, for the entertainment of Miss Ridgeway, a Boston lady who has been visiting Mrs. C. F. Hanington spent a few days in town Mrs. Marks for some time. Only ladies were invited and all went in carriages early in the day. After luncheon the afternoon was spent in playing games fancy work and conversation, returning home at 6 o'clock. This seems the prettiest and most unique way of amusing summer guests, far pleasanter than the old fashioned stiff parties. It is to be hoped others will take pattern, and we shall enjoy more of these delightful riverside luncheons before the summer season has gone.

SPECIAL VALUE.
