

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

out of Dorchester, where the pretty flowers grow luxuriantly and may be found by the cartload. The pupils of the Superior school are to be given a half holiday on Friday for a like purpose.

Messrs. George F. Wallace and J. H. Hickman are enjoying a trip to Prince Edward Island, where they will probably remain for a couple of weeks. During Mr. Wallace's absence Mr. Hickey, of Amherst, will have charge of the Dorchester House, Mr. Wallace's hotel.

SHELIAC.

MAY 8.—I have to record the death of Hon. D. Hanington, M. L. C., which occurred last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Hanington was with one exception the oldest resident of Sackville. He leaves a large family, eleven in number. Two of his sons were unable to get home to his funeral, Dr. E. Hanington, M. D. and Mr. L. C. Hanington, they being in Victoria, B. C.

Miss Belle Ward has gone to Moncton to spend a few days with her friends.

There was a large party at the beautiful residence of Mr. Christopher Conolly, last evening, in honor of his daughter, who goes to Halifax, shortly, for the summer. There were about 50 guests.

Our amateurs are going to give a performance of Pineapple next Thursday. Considering the talent of the performers, and the persevering way in which they have practised, I am sure it will be a success.

Rev. Mr. Hatheaway, of Jemseg, was in town on Tuesday.

A number of Sussex people have received invitations to the Berton House ball. It is very kind of St. John people to remember their friends in the country, but it is rather unfortunate that Pineapple comes on the same night, as it will prevent a number from going. The Misses Robertson intend to go.

Mr. George W. Daniel, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, is having his vacation now. He is relieved by Mr. Munro, whose old friends were pleased to see his familiar face in Sussex again.

HOW'RE YOU GETTING ON COLLECTING ADS?

There is one question to which Hunter, Hamilton & McKay is the only possible answer. The question is, What do the letters H-U-N-T-E-R—H-A-M-I-L-T-O-N and M-C-K-A-Y spell? There are other questions to which the same answer is the only possible answer: these will, no doubt suggest themselves.

A NAME FOR THE STORE.

Hunter, Hamilton & McKay—that's a mouthful. The name is used too much of late to say it all—cut it down—give the store a name, but what? That which would be all right as a hotel name is not now considered good for a business like ours. Call it then "The Other Store." There's not much in that! What does it mean? Simply this, we want that our store shall be contrasted and set apart from competing stores, as the other. And not amongst them as another.

To be different.

We were almost going to say, whether the change were a loss or a gain (we'll endeavor that it shan't be a loss) but to be different—that's the point, and that is about the only merit we see in our ads.

DIFFERENT: DIFFERENT!

If you can't find the goods you want, the style you want, the price you want, try The Other Store; HUNTER, HAMILTON & MCKAY.

A dizzy feeling came on him and unable to help himself, he fell off the swiftly moving train. He was hurled forward on the ground with such force as to break his arm and leg.

Dr. F. L. Wood gave a delightful impromptu dance at his rooms on Tuesday evening. The music, which consisted of harp, violin and flute, inspired the feet of the dancers until a late hour. Dr. Wood deserves much praise, for it was a great success in every way.

The guests were: Mrs. Downes, Mrs. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lord, Miss Kelley, Miss MacNichol, Miss Helen MacNichol, Miss Carrie Washburn, Miss Kate Washburn, Miss Josephine Moore, Miss Simpson, Miss Nellie Hill, Miss Helen Foster, Miss Nellie Smith, Mr. Lewis Harris, Mr. Charles King, Mr. Henry Gillespie, Dr. Moore, Mr. George Townsend, Mr. J.
