PROGRESS, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 16.

STRANGE NARRATIVE

Of Walter Bates, Esquire, Sub- special interest. ject of the King,

FORMERLY OF NEW ENGLAND

Sometime High Sheriff of the County of Kings,

BIOGRAPHER OF THE NOTORIOUS HENRY MORE SMITH.

In These Chronicles, Now Given to the World for the First Time, is Told the Tale of the Loyalists, and Their Amazing Trials Amid the Enemies of His Majesty in the Colonies.

Year by year the task of collecting reliable information regarding the early history of this province becomes increasingly difficult.

Already through indifference and neglect much valuable information has been irreparably lost. It therefore becomes a matter of some importance to preserve in a more permanent form such trustworthy records as are yet in existence.

It is by no means improbable that much material of real value to the future historian lies hidden from the light of day in many an old dwelling in this province. Old family documents and letters-faded and musty-consigned in numerous instances to the attic or the lumber-room are capable of supplying here and there a missing link or throwing light on on some obscure point in our provincial history.

The publication of the following extremely interesting narrative of the late Walter Bates, Esq., of Kingston, will be especially valuable if it should prove the means of arousing a spirit of inquiry and investigation amongst the possessors of old papers and documents.

A brief biographical sketch may here be given of the author of the old manuscript which now for the first time appears in print.

Passing over for the present the former part of Mr. Bates's manuscript, which is in some places incomplete, I proceed to take up that portion which will be of W. O. RAYMOND.

The Narrative of Walter Bates.

Having through age and other infirmities been much longer with the former portion of my subject than I at first anticipated, I must therefore of necessity be very brief in what follows, hoping that my infirmities in so doing may not be viewed with severity. It is now my desire to give a narrative of events connected with the rise and progress of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Kingston, New Brunswick, recording facts but not inventing anything, rescuing many valuable facts from oblivion. The work in a few minor details may possibly be not always correct, yet in the main it is unaffected-a body of facts, many of which in our day are entirely new and the whole is no where else to be found in so convenient a form. The work has been prepared at great expense of time, under the pressure of many cares not unmingled with sickness, pain and sorrow. In the words of Bishop Bramhall: "No man can justly blame me for loving my spiritual mother, the Church of England, in whose womb I was conceived, at whose breasts I was nourished, and in whose bosom I hope to die."

not wholly pass over in silence.

cause, the Rev. Mr. Peters stood conspihim and his character. In carrying out their systematic plan of persecution, the doors of the prisons were opened, and prisoners became the leaders of mobs, composed largely of negroes, vagabonds, and thieves. The governor and council finally entered the lists, and anxious at all events to get rid of so formidable an opponent, he should have penned the following recipe : accused him of being a spy of Lord North's and the bishops, and proclamation was made to that effect in every Republican pulpit in the colony on Sunday, the fourteenth day of August, 1774. This encouraged an armed mob of "patriots" to surround his house the same night in a tumultuous manner, ordering gates and doors to be opened.

Mr. Peters, from his window, asked if they had a warrant from a magistrate to enter his house. They replied, "We have Joice's warrant, which Charles the traitor submitted to, and it is sufficient for you."

Finally, it was agreed that a committee, composed of the most respectable men in the party, should read all the papers belonging to Mr. Peters. Accordingly, after many Kingsmen in the diocese and they inspecting all his papers as much as they ought to make his work light as well as of some of them within my memory I can- the sheriff of Litchfield county could not withhold his interference, by whose timely As a resolute antagonist of the Puritan assistance Mr. Peters was finally set at party, and a zealous supporter of the loyal liberty and his life providentially saved. Half naked and wounded, he fled to the cuous. Many were the attempts to ruin royal army at Boston, from whence he went to England, by which means he preserved his life, but not his property, from the rapacity and bloody hands of his cruel countrymen.

> After such an experience, it is not to be wondered at that Mr. Peters had but a poor opinion of Republican liberty, or that

Take the herb of Hypocrisy and root of Pride three handsfull-two ounces of Ambition and Vainglory-pound them in the morter of Faction and of Discord-leave over the fire of Sedition until you perceive the Scum of Deceit at the top-strain it through the cloke of Rebellion-put it in the bottle of Envy-stop it with the cork of Malice till settled -then make it into pills of Conspiracy-take nine when you go to bed-say a long prayer that may be heard in the street-then go to sleep if you can, and it will be sure to have the due effects. All the next day you will be well disposed to censure the church, burn all the Bishops, murder the King, plunder the nation and cut the throats of all honest men. (To be Continued.)

To Boom Old Kings.

The Rev. Henry Howe, formerly euratein-charge of Shelburne, N. S., is canvassing the people of New Brunswick, on behalf ot King's College, Windsor. There are I must only give a brief statement of pleased, they reported that they were satis- fruitful. His Lordship the Metropolitan orders we invite special attention to this the KING OF COOK STOVES, feeling satisfied that a careful inspection and comparison will prove it to be without an equal. Remember that the Wire Gauze Door can be had on no other Range or Stove made in Canada, the manufacturers of the celebrated line of Charter Oak Ranges and Cook Stoves having the only right to use this valuable improvement. Since the introduction of Wire Gauze Doors, many attempts have been made to Ventilate Cook Stove Ovens by other means, but without success; as the patents secured on Wire Gauze cover the only means of doing the work successfully. In addition to the Wire Gauze Door, the Charter Oak differs from all other Stoves on the market in many respects, having Extra Large Flues, Extra Large Ovens, Greater Weight and Greater Durability, and Excels in Economy of Fuel. We guarantee every one we sell to give better results in Roasting and Baking than any other Stove made.

EMERSON & FISHER, 75 to 79 Prince Wm. St. P. S.-We have a number of SECOND-HAND STOVES and RANGES taken in exchange, which we offer at bargains.

2

Walter Bates was the fourth son of John and Sarah (Bostwick) Bates. He was born March 14, 1760 in the eastern part of the town of Stamford, Connecticut-now known as Darien. The story of his early manhood is given in a very entertaining form in the narrative that follows.

After his arrival in Kingston, A. D. 1783, he soon become quite a prominent personage in the land of his adoption. Indeed during the later years of his life the name of "Sheriff Bates" was familiar in Kings county as a household word.

A man of strict integrity and good ability, he naturally took a leading position in civic affairs. For many years he filled the position of sheriff of Kings county with much efficiency and fidelity.

He was ever a loyal British subject, and a faithful and devoted member of the church of his fathers, in whose welfare he took the liveliest interest.

As a writer, he was possessed of no mean ability. Indeed, it is probable that in no other way will the name of Walter Bates be more widely known or longer remembered than as the author of that remarkable and popular book, The Mysterious Stranger, or Memoirs of the Noted Henry More Smith-a book first published by Barnes & Co., of this city, and which has passed through many subsequent editions by George W. Day.

Walter Bates died, at Kingston, at the advanced age of 82 years.

This very year old Trinity church, in whose erection he greatly rejoiced, commemorated the centennial of its existence. It stands as a faithful sentinel amongst the silent graves of its builders-those hardy pioneers beneath whose axes the giant trees of a primeval forest rang 100 years ago. And there, beneath the shade of the old church he loved so well, the old Loyalist rests from his labors. A square freestone column bears the following inscription:

> In Memory of WALTER BATES, Esq., High Sheriff of this County, Who died Feb. 11th, A.D. 1842, Aged 82 years. In Memory of MRS. ABIGAL BATES, Wife of WALTER BATES, ESQ., Who died July 6, 1820, in the 58th year of her age.

It seems undoubtedly to have been the intention of Mr. Bates to publish the old manuscript, but increasing years and infirmities prevented the consummation of his wishes. In 1840 he drew up the following what took place after the return of those five gentlemen in Orders under the patronage of the society in old England for promoting Christian Knowledge. Whereupon the Episcopal church increased mightily in ministers went to England and obtained Episcopal ordination and soon after their return churches were built in almost every town in Connecticut, to the great annoyance of the old Puritans who cherished great jealousy against the Church of they called "Peterites." On this occasion England, inherited from their ances- intoxicated ruffians spared neither houses, were guilty of writing home amazing falsehood and that it would seem to be an agreeable office to distinguish the innocent from | bishops and kings, who, they said, designed the guilty. About this time mobs were assembled for persecuting the loyal element were hung up tarred and feathered. The in Connecticut.

PROSPECTUS.

DISTRACTED ATTENTION.

tors.

laid to his charge.

On Sunday, the 4th September, the country was falsely alarmed by reason of Colonel Putnam's declaring Admiral Graves Connecticut Several of the Presbyterian had burnt Boston, and that General Gage was murdering old and young, except Tories and churchmen.

The governor seized this opportunity to set the mobs with redoubled fury upon Mr. Peters and the loyalists of Hebron, whom goods nor persons. Some had their bowels They asserted that the Episcopal clergy | crushed out of their bodies. Others were covered with filth and marked with the sign of the cross, in token of loyalty to to crucify all good people. Even women Rev. Mr. Peters, with his gown torn off,

Every town which did not subscribe for was treated in the most insulting manner.

fied Mr. Peters was not guilty of any crime and Bishop Kingdon have given liberally, and the Metropolitan has given Mr. Howe a warm letter to the clergy and laity of the diocese. The Collegiate school, of Windsor, under the headmastership of Mr. Arnoldus Miller is making strides advanceward. Two full-rigged ships, the work of two of the boys, Smith and Raddin, are set up in the school with every separate part named accurately. The healthy interest taken in the school and the school work by both masters and boys is very encouraging.

Progress Engraving Bureau.

Do you want an attractive advertisement reproduced? Write to PROGRESS and you will get prices at once. Send the "copy" and the engraving will be made at once. If you want an idea of the excellence of the work look at the large soap advertisement on the seventh page. The work is better and the price lower than that of any other Dry.Goods Store, and the price lower than that of any other engravings in the country. Write for

