S. H. White & Co.] May 15 .- When the curtain rose on Pinafore, last Thursday, a large and fashionable audience greeted the performers. It was an appreciative audience also, but one that certainly did not give more applause than was deserved. The performance was wonderfully good, and pronounced excellent even by St. John people. Miss Grace Hallet, as Josephine, looked so sweet and sang so beautifully that she quite took the heart of the audience by storm. Miss Kaye, as cousin Hebe, looked lovely, and acted the patrician cousin to perfection. Little Miss Kinnear made a sweet Little Buttercup, and really did wonderfully well. She gives promise of being a re- The ladies were greatly frightened, but fortunately markably fine singer. Mr. Kinnear, with his fine tenor voice and splendid acting, made the part of Capt. Corcoran a rare treat. Mr. Guy Kinnear, as Ralph Rackstraw, and Mr. Charles Kinnear, as Sir Joseph Porter, both took their parts in an admirable manner. Mr. Theal, as Dick Deadeye, and Mr. Goold, as Boatswain, also deserve honorable mention. The choruses were very good, and too much praise cannot be bestowed upon our young people for their energy and perseverance. After the cur-

May 15 .- Misses Emma and Lena Burns, who were called home by their mother's death, returned on Tuesday to resume their studies at Mount St. Vincent, Halifax. Their eldest sister, Miss Minnie Burns, accompanied them. She will remain a week at Halifax and then will go to Bersemis, where she will probably spend the greater part of the summer. Mrs. S. Bishop has returned from her visit to Halifax, bringing with her Miss Clarke of that city, who will be her guest for some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ahier, of Shippagan, were in town during the week.

Mr. B. M. Lannagan was in charge of the C. R. R. passenger train for a few days last week, owing to the illness of Conductor Melvin. I am pleased to learn that Mr. Melvin has quite recovered from his TOM BROWN.

We are are not going to make comparisons, but in a general way to demonstrate our claim to the title of The Other Store we want to remind you of the stock of all stores. Take for instance the largest stock of Dress Goods in the city. Go in to buy a dress-how much of the stock do you see? Perhaps you do not know exactly what you want, and have yet to make up your mind as to color. Don't you find that the largest stock dwindles down to a few pieces on the counter out of which to make the selection? Why doesn't the clerk show you that lot on the top shelf-their last season's: Clerks do not like to show goods that are a year old. What about the lot in paper? -Fall goods-no use.

There was a gentleman in the store yesterday, one who is in a position to be posted, and is posted—he said: That is the best stock of dress goods in St. John. We considered that a pretty strong statement until we thought out the above, then it did not seem nearly so strong, and we think more of that gentleman's judgment than ever we did, of course.

ST. STEPHEN.

[PROGRESS is for sale in St. Stephen at the book stores of C. H. Smith & Co. and G. S. Wall.]

May 15 .- The new hotel is a sure thing. Prepara. tions are being made to remove the buildings on the bank lot, and excavations for the cellar will soon begin. Workmen are very busy, and house-building is the order of the day. Messrs. W. F. Todd, J. G. Stevens, J. E. Ganong and Alex. Murray are among those who will have new residences before winter is again with us. The friends of Miss Belle Grant were grieved to hear of her death, this morning. She has been ill since last fall, but so uncomplaining her friends did not realize she was passing from them. She was a great favorite, her bright and pleasant manner endearing her to all who knew her.

Mrs. McMonagle and Miss McElroy were driving in Calais, last Thursday afternoon, when their horse grew unmanageable and fell, breaking the carriage.

Miss Sarah Short, formerly of this town, is here on a short visit. Mrs. Jed Duren is in Portland, Me., visiting her and accomplished young ladies, was married, on the 2nd of May, in San Antonio, Tex., to Mr. Arthur Stanley Burdette. The happy couple proceeded to San Luis Potosi, Mexico, where they will make their future home. Several ladies in St. Stephen and Calais intend to visit Europe during the summer, and will spend some weeks at the Paris exposition. Mr. Harold Clarke left, last Thursday morning, for British Columbia. Mr. Clarke is greatly liked and popular among his lady friends, who regret his departure very keenly. Miss Ellen Todd leaves, on Friday morning, to visit friends in Augusta, Me., and will also spend a Mr. John D. Chipman has been spending a few days with Sir Leonard Tilley's family before his departure for British Columbia. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Todd are making preparations to move from their present residence, which they have sold to Capt. McAllister, of Boston. They will be guests at the Border City hotel, Calais, until their new house on Union street is completed. Mr. Henry Webber is making a business trip to St. John this week. Mr. Lewis Harris, whose pleasing recitations have made him so popular, will give an entertainment next Thursday for the benefit of the Calais High school library. Mr. Will McKay is home for a short holiday. The play, Anita's Trial, in which so much interest has been felt, was presented to the public last night. It was the most successful amateur entertainment ever given in St. Stephen. The eleven young ladies all looked and acted their parts finely, and reflect much credit on Mrs. Wetmore and Miss Abbot, who so ably trained and directed them. The music by Baas's orchestra was good and added greatly to the entertainment. The proceeds amounted to more than $75, and go to swell the public library fund. I hear it will be repeated in Milltown at an early date, and feel sure a crowded house will greet it. ## RICHIBUCTO.

May 15 .- Mrs. Loggie left last week for Animosa, Iowa, her former home, where she will remain about four months.

Mr. W. Carman Bliss left last week for Winnipeg. He was presented a few days before his departure with a very flattering address by the Richibucto division, S. of T.

Mr. Edward Brown, connected for some seven or eight years with the K. N. railway, left last week for the neighboring republic. His many friends wish him success in his new sphere. Misses Agnes and Maggie White and Josie Murphy left this morning for Boston. Mr. A. I. Angus, of Montreal, was in town last

Mrs. Carey, of Boston, is in town visiting friends. The vacancy in St. Mary's church, caused by the resignation of Rector Gwyllym, has not been filled. He is greatly missed by the people of Richibucto, having during the two years he spent here endeared himself to all denominations.

Mr. Hiram Thompson has purchased the Pagan property, and has a number of men at work repairing and remodelling. The many friends of Mr. John Barnett are glad to see him out again. Mr. Barnett has been confined to his home for about six months, but under the skilful treatment of Dr. W. A. Ferguson, of Newcastle, is fast regaining his former health.

WOODSTOCK.

[Progress is for sale in Woodstock at Everett's bookstore.] May 15 .- Mrs. W. B. Belyea is spending a week in St. Stephen. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hay went to St. John on short visit this week. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lindsay leave this evening for a fortnight's visit to Boston. Mr. Daniel Jordan, of Fredericton, is in town.

Mr. Wm. M. Connell went to Boston Monday. Mayor Hazen, of Fredericton, spent a few days i town last week. Rev. F. Bradley has returned from a very pleas ant trip to St. Andrews. Rev. Aaron Hartt, of Old Orchard, Me., accompanied by his son Bertie, spent a few days with friends here last week.

Mr. L. W. Johnston, of Fredericton, is in town. Mr. H. Ward Fletcher, who has been in Lowell Mass., for some years, has returned to his home in rather delicate health. We hope he will soon re-

Messrs. J. H. Hickman and George F. Wallace returned on Sunday from their trip to Prince Edward Island, after narrowly escaping a serious accident.

They were driving from Point du Chene to Dorchester, when, for some reason, the horses became unmanageable, and started to run away. Mr. Wallace succeeded in getting out of the carriage safely, but Mr. Hickman was thrown between the wheels, and got a bad bruising and shaking up, but fortunately escaped with that. He is able to attend to his business again now.

Rev. Cecil F. Wiggins, of Sackville, was in Dorchester on Tuesday.

Mrs. Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Knapp, left on Monday for her home in far off San Antonio, Tex., together with Miss Ada Nichols and her other children. Mrs. Nichols goes by boat as far as Galveston, and thence overland. She will be sadly missed in Dorchester.

Rev. A. E. Harris, of Amherst, paid Dorchester visit on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hanington left today for a visit to St. John-Mr. Hanington to attend court, and Mrs. Hanington on a shopping expedition. They will return next week.

It Looked Very Large, Then.

It wasn't a Langtry bustle, but it got there, just the same. Called from her household duties to do some hasty shopping, the lady who owned it tied it on outside her dress, buttoned her long ulster over it-and forgot all about it. Once out of the house, she met a friend and talk of bargains seduced them into a well known dry goods store, where they found some sacks that seemed too sweet for anything. Both ladies took off their cloaks to try them on. Then the bustle, large, white and conspicuous, met the eyes of about 30 persons, and its unhappy wearer sank through the floor. She won't forget it again. She takes it to bed with her.

Much Ado About Nothing.

There was considerable "excitement" in and Portland. Capt. Rawlings acted like a man who didn't know whether he was had an excited and angry delegation waiting on Chief Marshall. The cause of all the trouble was a report to the effect that Sergt, Weatherhead was to take charge of the Portland division of the police force.

It would be hard to tell which was the madder man, Capt. Rawlings or Sergt. Weatherhead. Of course the chief said the report was untrue, and Sergt. Weatherhead said it never came into his head to

Who circulated the report? Detective Ring appears to be very busy these times. Portland has a peculiar charm for him, and he is over there very often. Perhaps he is the "official from the chief's office" who set the yarn going.

It Was Given Away-to the First Man.

A Lower cove liquor-dealer was paralyzed by an awful instance of ingratitude, one day last week. Bright and early in the morning an occasional customer came in with a pitiful tale of a large head, and asked for some liquor on the strength of it. The man behind the bar trusted him for several drinks, and the visitor departed. Pretty soon delegations began to arrive from as far away as Water street, and the dealer was busy. Nobody offered him any money, but that didn't strike him as singular until a man who had rushed in hurriedly started out in the same style. Then the proprietor rapped on the counter. "See here, my friend," he said, "you didn't pay me for that drink." "Pay nothin"!" was the rejoinder. 'So-and-So come down to the wharf loaded, an' told us yous was givin' whiskey
