

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN ST. JOHN AND HALIFAX

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Richibucto, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Milltown, Bathurst, Sussex, Amherst, Truro, Calais, Etc.

Wednesday was the afternoon fixed on by the Tennis club for opening their grounds for the season, but the weather proved so unfavorable that the members were unable to play.

The remains of Rev. Canon Walker were taken to Hampton for interment, on Monday last. As so many members of his family are scattered in different parts of the world, they were not able to be present at the funeral.

Mrs. Francis Ferguson and Miss Lucy DeBrisay, of Bathurst, who have been spending the winter in Baltimore, arrived in St. John this week.

Dr. Berryman and Mrs. Berryman returned home, on Wednesday last, from their bridal tour through the Southern States.

Mr. Gellibrand, father of Mr. W. Clarke Gellibrand, arrived from England on Sunday last, and proceeded to Fredericton the following day.

Society people are looking forward with great interest to a fashionable wedding in Trinity church, the date for which, I hear, has been fixed for the 19th of June.

Unusual regret was expressed last week when news reached St. John that Mr. A. T. Glazebrook, of the Bank of British North America, in this city, had been removed to the Montreal branch of that bank.

Miss Florrie Adams has returned from Boston, where she has been visiting. Miss Julia Magee has also returned after spending the winter in the same place.

Mrs. Lawson arrived on Sunday last from England to spend the summer months in St. John, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Harrison.

Mrs. T. S. DesBrisay, of Bathurst, spent a few days in town this week.

Miss Kitty Ketchum, of St. Andrews, is visiting St. John, the guest of Lady Tilley.

Mr. T. Kirkwood has returned from Fredericton. Rev. Goodrich Roberts, of Fredericton, was in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudne Breeze have removed from 191 King street (east), and have taken rooms at Berton House, Elliot row.

Mr. and Mrs. John McMillan and family have removed to their residence in Rothsay for the summer months.

HALIFAX, N. S.

[Progress is for sale in Halifax, every Saturday noon, at Knowles' bookstore, corner George and Grandville streets.]

May 22.—I met that very handsome girl, Miss Norton Taylor, a few days ago. She is visiting Mrs. Moran. Miss Taylor is a handsome blonde.

Her complexion is pink and white, and she has an eye peculiarly inclined to attract and be attractive. She has unquestionably improved during her absence from the city.

Mr. D. T. Hanbury is again in Halifax, and is stopping at the Queen. Mr. Hanbury has only lately returned from England.

Senator and Mrs. Kauback were passengers by the Parvian, last week, from Quebec to Liverpool.

Mr. G. E. Francklyn and wife, Miss and Master Franklin, arrived home from England per Oceanic.

Major Bayrt, R. E., is in Lunenburg on a fishing excursion.

Mr. N. E. Clarke, an old resident of Halifax, died last night. Mr. Clarke was the oldest lawyer in the province.

I met Miss Minnie Burns, from Bathurst, on the street yesterday. I hear she is stopping with some friends at the Halifax Infirmary. Miss Burns is a very pretty girl.

His Lordship the Bishop and Mrs. Courtney leave for London tomorrow morning. His Lordship is paid to administer the rite of confirmation to two of his family now in Boston.

Mrs. Wiswell, widow of Charles E. Wiswell, died at her late residence, Fawson street, this morning. The deceased lady was the mother of Mrs. MacMillan, Mrs. Neish and Mrs. Wright.

Mr. J. McD. Cromar, late of the Halifax Banking Co., left this afternoon for New Brunswick, where he will take charge of the Peoples' bank agency at Edmonston.

FREDERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Hawthorne.]

May 22.—If possible society news is even more scarce this week than it was last; but I hear rumors of parties and weddings to take place in the near future, and from all I hear I am hoping to have something particularly nice to tell you very soon.

The one event of interest this week was the University sports, which took place yesterday afternoon, giving the young ladies an opportunity to air some of these pretty new dresses they have been having made during these past few quiet weeks.

There was a goodly number of the beauty and fashion of the city adorning the College green with their presence, and watching with great pleasure and interest, the performance of these well trained young athletes.

There were two old graduates present, Messrs. T. M. Denaide and J. B. Kerr.

Mr. W. Forester, of the Bank of British North America, here, has been transferred to Halifax. Mr. Forester left for that city Thursday, and Mrs. Forester will very soon follow.

They leave many friends in this city who very much regret their departure, while wishing them every success and happiness in their new home.

Miss Alice Tippet, who has been for the past year in Boston, has been spending a week or two with relatives in Fredericton, and spent last Sunday with her brothers in St. John. She will return to Boston again very soon.

Mrs. Parkin left here Saturday morning, with her children, for Newcastle, where she will visit her brother.

Miss Louise Skinner, of St. John, is here, the guest of Mrs. Blair, of George street.

Miss Edith Skinner and Miss Kitty Jordan, of St.

John, are the guests of Mrs. David Hatt, King street. These young ladies were here to attend the sports.

Miss Ethel Mollison, of St. John, is here, the guest of Mrs. T. Tibbits.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Dibblee arrived home from Woodstock this morning. Mrs. Dibblee is looking much better for her trip.

Mrs. Howell, of St. John, is expected here tomorrow, to visit her sister, Mrs. Tibbits.

Miss Bailey's many friends are very pleased to welcome her home again after her long visit among our American cousins. Her brother, Mr. J. W. Bailey, has also returned from Harvard, and will join the geological survey for the summer.

Mr. Temple, M. P. arrived home from Ottawa, Friday evening.

Mr. W. T. Whitehead is off on a fishing expedition in company with Manager Cram, of the New Brunswick railway. They are at Green river.

Mr. Stephen Whittaker, an old and much respected citizen of Fredericton, died at his residence on Waterloo Row, last evening.

Mrs. George Palmer spent Sunday in St. John, the guest of Mrs. Peake, Coburg street. She returned home last evening.

The Coadjutor Bishop is in New York, and occupied the pulpit in Trinity church, last Sunday.

I am pleased to say Rev. Mr. Alexander is slowly recovering from his recent illness.

Mrs. Crawley is ill in Boston, with diphtheria, in consequence Rev. Mr. Crawley will not be home for next Sunday.

Ladies' and Children's Dresses, Satens, News selling or Cotton cleaned at Ungar's Steam Laundry.

MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the bookstores of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main street.]

May 22nd.—It seems but the other day that I proudly announced Moncton at the head—or, to speak more correctly, at the foot—of the list as far as cold went, I think it was on the 25th of February that the mercury dropped to 35 below zero, and last Monday it climbed up to 97 and stayed there for some little time.

It was a terrible day, and all the upper ten of Moncton society donned their white dresses and the tennis suits, crawled into the coolest spot they could find and alternatively fanned themselves, and gasped for breath.

Even the pugnacious English sparrows forgot to bark and bite, put off the settlement of their numerous quarrels till the cool of the evening, and wandered languidly about with drooping wings and open bills.

The only refreshing sight or sound in the whole town was on the lawn of Mr. Oliver Jones's charming residence, at the upper end of Main street, where the beautiful fountain gave forth "a noise like a hidden brook in the leafy month of June," and proved a veritable refreshment of spirit to all who were fortunate enough to dwell within the sound of its cool murmur, causing them to rise up—metaphorically speaking—and call Mr. Jones blessed.

And now I am anxiously waiting to hear what "Stella" will have to say about the Fredericton weather, and only hope the Celestial City may not have got more than two or three degrees ahead of us, for if one only has a cold in their head, they do love to have it just a little more than their next door neighbor.

Dr. E. Chandler left town last Wednesday night, for Rimouski, where he joined Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harris and party on board the Parvian, to add one more to the group of pleasure seekers that floating palace will carry to the other side.

Of course there is walling and gnashing of teeth among Dr. Chandler's large clientele, to whom the prospect of a whole summer without "the doctor" is as "an arid plain, wherein there are no water springs." Nevertheless, they are unselfish enough to be glad that he has taken a much-needed rest, and to heartily join in wishing him a pleasant journey and a safe return.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Williamson returned to their home at Chipman, Grand Lake, on Thursday. Their stay seemed all too brief to their friends, but duty called them home.

Thomas Williamson, Jr., won many warm friends during his stay. He seems to have inherited a charming disposition from both his parents, who have good reason to be proud of as thoroughly sweet, good tempered and healthy a baby as it was ever my good fortune to see.

What seems to be the only form of amusement indulged in during this warm wave, when dancing is not to be thought of for a moment. Mrs. George McSweeney gave a small but very pleasant party last Wednesday evening; and Mrs. T. V. Cooke gave a large but equally pleasant one on Friday evening.

The good old game requires so little physical exertion that it seems specially adapted for warm weather.

The Rev. J. T. Parsons, of St. John, and Mrs. Parsons spent last week in Moncton visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wetmore.

The Rev. J. D. Murray, of Red Bank, was in town on Thursday.

Mr. H. G. Marr, of Moncton, who has been visiting New York, returned home on Friday.

Miss Caldwell, of St. John, is in town visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. T. Stevens.

Hon. John Letourgey, of Summerside, was in town last week, visiting his daughter, Mrs. George McSweeney.

Mr. W. J. Robinson, one of Moncton's wealthy men, has presented the Y. M. C. A. with the sum of $500 towards their new brick building, on condition that two others will subscribe like amounts.

Mr. John Campbell, of the I. C. R. general offices, paid a short visit to St. Andrews last week.

Mr. Vernon Smith, C. E., who has undertaken the survey of the Short Line route, was in town on Monday.

Last Friday was observed as arbor day by the Moncton schools, and, after the planting of some 20 trees, the boys engaged in the old English game of hare and hounds, which being a novelty here, formed the most attractive feature of the exercises, the hunt being witnessed by numbers of citizens.

Rev. Father Michaud, of Buctouche, was in town on Friday.

Mr. Jarvis, of the Bank of Montreal, who was injured by a fall from his horse last week, is still confined to the house, but expects to be able to resume work in a few days.

Mr. E. Woodworth, editor of the Sackville Post, paid a short visit to Moncton on Friday.

Mr. Charles Fawcett, of Sackville, was in town on Friday.

Dr. B. C. Weldon, M. P. for Albert county, has been spending some days at his father's residence, at Penobscot.

Messrs. D. Pottinger and P. S. Archibald, of the L. C. R., left by special train, on Sunday night, for the north. Mr. Archibald goes as far as Quebec, and Mr. Pottinger direct to Ottawa. Mr. Pottinger was accompanied by his private secretary, Mr. H. A. Price.

Moncton society is divided in its own mind as to how it will spend the 24th. On the one hand, the Buctouche and Moncton railway offers the attraction of an excursion to Buctouche, while, on the other, the stockholders of the Arbutus set forth the advantages of a trip to Hillsboro and back on that trimmest and smallest of steamers. So it is the embarrassment of riches in any case.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P., of Sackville, and Mr. Amos Ogden, also of Sackville, were in town on Wednesday.

The contract for the building of St. George's new rectory has been awarded to Mr. Lounsbury, of Peters, Jones & Lounsbury, and work will be begun at once. The new rectory will be a fine building, and will cost somewhere about $2,500.

Mr. Joseph L. Harris, who has been spending a few weeks in Boston, returned on Friday.

Dr. J. F. Teed is back again in Moncton, having consented to take charge of Dr. Chandler's practice during his absence. Should his health permit, he will probably resume his practice in Moncton permanently.

Dr. L. G. DeBertram, of the DeBertram railway syndicate, paid a short visit to Moncton last week.

Mrs. C. F. Hanington left town last week for Ottawa. She was accompanied by her two children, and will be absent for some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Boggs returned on Thursday from a weeks visit to Amherst.

Mrs. H. A. Whitney is still confined to her room from the effects of her slight accident last summer, it is now nearly a year since she has been able to be out, and her many friends sympathize deeply with her in her long and trying illness.

CECIL GWYNNE.

DORCHESTER.

[Progress is for sale in Dorchester at George M. Fairweather's store.]

May 22.—Hon. A. D. Richard and Mrs. Richard have given up boarding, and are keeping home in Mr. Richard's house on Mechanic street. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barnes, who have hitherto lived there, have moved to the residence of Mr. C. E. Knapp, who has given up housekeeping and is boarding with them.

Mr. F. W. McDonald, of the Merchant's bank, Sackville, was in Dorchester on Wednesday.

Mr. Gesner Kerr spent Thursday in Amherst, on business.

Mr. D. McDonald has reopened the Weldon house and seems already to have captured a fair share of patronage. A choice of hotels has long been needed here, and the public will not be slow to take advantage of it.

Mr. A. W. Chapman seems to find the climate of New York congenial. He only returned the other

New Dress Fabrics!

If we do say it ourselves, we only repeat the frequently expressed sentiments of pleased patrons. There is nothing more beautiful in Dress Fabrics, and no larger assortment of them anywhere than is now to be seen at our counters.

Do you recognize Canadian obligation to French art? France opens her galleries to us, admits our art students to her academies, and gives them equal chance, in competitions. Canada buys French pictures. They touch our lives daily, but money paid for them does not pay the debt we owe to the great nation that grows genius, nor to the genius that produces them. That's a spiritual debt for which economists have not yet invented a currency.

The same is true of many arts in which the French excel—not the least the textile art. Come into our store today: stop, look at the new dress fabrics that found their way into the Dress Department last night.

We own the merchandise this morning.

You may own it all this evening. One thing about it neither of us has owned nor can own. The genius—yes, genius, even though expressed in a dress pattern—that made the design and wrought the fibre and colors to such beauty.

There, you may touch, handle, examine the goods. Note specially, we don't say "buy," That's another question. The goods are at your "option." Our thought now is to interest—entertain you.

The colorings, granite sage, grays, old rose, blues, greens the tints of sea and sky, earth and wood. The decorations, wool brocade, silk brocade, silk ribbon stripes, silk bands, and the most delightful effects are produced by varying the tints of self-colors. There are a few contrasting colors also. Here is one: Steel-Blue ground—wool, remember—ecru silk stripes of rich twilled weave, about 3 inches wide, edged with hair lines. Easier to describe a beautiful face than a beautiful fabric. When you see it you will wonder that the price is only $10.00 to $20.00.

The stuffs will suit all styles of make, plain fronts, accorcion sides, Directoire back—all sorts. The prices go 75c. up.

The exclusive styles, the novelty, the beauty, the quality, would warrant more price—but you know we don't do business for a single year—our work is in the long reaches.

See the 55c. French Dress Stuffs, worth $1.10.

day from a long visit to that city and now he is away again for another. He left for New York on Thursday.

Mrs. J. R. Campbell returned on Friday from a week's visit to St. John.

Miss F. S. Chandler paid a short visit to Sackville on Saturday, together with Miss K. E. Chandler.

Mr. D. L. Hanington returned from St. John on Friday, and has been in Shediac ever since, until yesterday. He returns to St. John this afternoon.

Hon. P. G. Ryan, of Gloucester, chief commissioner of public works, was in Dorchester on Thursday and Friday.

Rev. J. Roy Campbell officiated in Sackville on Sunday, Rev. Cecil F. Wiggins conducting the services here in his place. Mr. Wiggins is much liked here, both as a man and as an eloquent and gifted preacher.

Mr. E. V. Godfrey left on Monday for a short visit to St. John, on business connected with his shipping.

Mr. and Mrs. Bent, of Amherst, were in Dorchester on Sunday. Mrs. Bent was formerly Miss Moran, of Dorchester, and her old friends were delighted to see her again.

Rev. J. Roy Campbell went to St. John yesterday, to attend a church committee meeting. He will probably return on Friday. In consequence of his absence there will be no service Wednesday evening.

Mr. Clarence H. Chapman has been making a short visit to St. John.

Mr. George H. Turner, who passed very successfully the examination for admission to the bar, last fall, has decided to seek fame and a home in the far west. He leaves tonight for Omaha, where he will devote himself to the practice of his profession. While approving of the course that he is taking, his many friends in Dorchester cannot but regret his departure very sincerely, and his place will be a hard one to fill in many more hearts than one.
