

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Rev. G. M. Campbell left for St. John on Monday to attend the annual meeting of the Methodist conference, which opens its session today.

And so Geoffrey Cuthbert Strange has been presented with an annual pass over the B. & M. railway. Well, I congratulate you, Geoffrey, even if you did render yourself obnoxious by writing checky things about dramatic clubs, when we are so proud of ours. But be sure you don't use that pass on Sunday, or you will be sitting out in the cold like Mrs. Humphrey Ward and Mr. Hannington, and a lot of other people, and perhaps getting preached at. Cold! did I say? Perish the thought. No! it will be a palm leaf fan and a refrigerator you will be sighing for in your future abode, if you are not careful, and you may have to listen to a sermon from "Robert Elsmere" himself.

Mr. Owen Campbell, of the Bank of Montreal, St. John, spent Sunday in Moncton.

JUNE 19.—The ladies interested in the public library met on Friday afternoon. A report was read by the president, Mrs. Henry Hill, concerning the amount of funds on hand. Miss Mary Abbot read an account of the expenses connected with the play "Aida's Trial," and presented the president with $87, the sum realized from the play. A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. W. B. Wetmore and Miss Abbot for their energy and kindness in getting up the entertainment, and for the money presented. A thousand dollars has been raised by subscriptions and entertainments, and there has already been several donations of books. It is hoped the library will be open to the public early in January 1890.

The play, "Bo-Peep and Boy Blue," given in Trinity school-room was very pretty and greatly praised. The children all took their parts well, especially Bessie Wetmore, a little miss of nine years, and Willie Algar, only eight, who were Bo-Peep and Boy Blue. Eva Cox, as Dame Thorpe, and George Hill, as Farmer Thorpe, were true to life. Ethel Waterbury, Brown Maxwell and Livingston Strange, for such young actors, rendered their parts finely. A song by Miss Lena Markee, a new star in musical circles, won great applause. Ball's orchestra helped out the entertainment with some fine music.

The baby's reception in the Union church yesterday, Calais, was a success financially and gave great satisfaction to all interested. Mrs. W. F. Todd and Dr. Seymour were the judges and showed tact and taste in their decision. Don Grimmer, aged two years, son of Mayor Grimmer, St. Stephen, received the prize for beauty and heaviest weight, weighing 42 pounds, a little son of Mr. F. Ham receiving the prize for lightest weight. For babies of three months, a lovely boy baby belonging to Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Taylor, carried off the prize for heaviest weight; and a tiny little girl of Mr. C. Hicks' took the prize for lightest weight. A special prize was given to the twin boys of Mr. McKusick, of Calais.
