SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amhrst, Calais, Etc.

This week has been quite a week of weddings in St. John, three weddings having taken place. On Wednesday at the early hour of half-past six in the morning, the marriage of Miss Ella McAvity and Mr. G. H. Flood was celebrated at St. Johns church. the ceremony being performed by the Rev. John deSoyres. The wedding was a very quiet one, only the immediate relatives being present. However, as the connection is a very large one, quite a goodly number was represented, as well as many spectators, despite the early hour that it took place. Miss McAvity (who is the youngest daughter of the late Thomas McAvity) looked uncommonly well, attired in a handsome brown travelling costume. Her niece Miss Ada McAvity acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. John L. Thomas supported the groom. After the ceremony the bride and groom drove to the I. C. R. station and took the express for a short trip to New York. On their return to St. John, they will reside on Princess street, east. The bride was the recipient of many costly presents, among which was a handsome piano from Mr. C. Flood, father of the groom.

Another interesting wedding took place the same day, and although very quiet, was a very pretty one, Miss Hattie Mathers, daughter of the Rev. B. Mathers, and Mr. DeVeber, son of the Rev. Canon DeVeber, being the happy parties. The ceremony took place at 8.30 o'clock in St. Pauls church, and was performed by the Rev. Canon DeVeber assisted by the Rev. A. J. Reid. The service was very impressive, and the music by the surpliced choir, yery good. Miss Mathers, who was attended by her sister, Miss Lizzie Mathers, looked very well in a gown of white serge trimmed with white fur. She wore a tulle veil and wreath of orange blossoms. The bridesmaid wore a dress of cream cloth trimmed with gold pasmentree, a girdle of the same being tied loosely around the waist. A rubens hat with feathers to match completed this pretty costume. Mr. Frank Starr, cousin of the groom, acted as best man, and Mr. Roy Campbell and Mr. Robinson were the ushers. Only the relatives of the bride and groom were present, among them- being Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Mathers, Miss Mathers, Canon and Mrs. DeVeber, Mr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Lee, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Bois DeVeber, the Misses DeVeber and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. DeVeber left by the C. P. R. express the same afternoon, for a trip to the upper provinces, after which they will take up their abode at Woodstock, where Mr. DeVeber has an extensive farm, and has recently built a handsome residence. Miss Mathers had many friends in St. John, who will regret her departure, and in the musical world she will be sadly missed, as she was an amateur organist of great skill, and was always ready to give her services in the churches, as well as assisting in concerts, etc., for charitable objects. She was also a member of Trinity church choir, as well as the St. John Oratorio society.

On Thursday, which was Thanksgiving day, St. sembly to witness the marriage of Miss Lucy Maclauchlan, who for some years past has been organist of the church, and Mr. A. J. Glazebrook, of the bank of B. N. A., Montreal. Precisely at 1 o'clock the bride entered the church, leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. W. A. Maclauchlan, and attended by her bridesmaid, Miss Nellie Snider. Mr. M. B. Edwards acted as groomsman. Mr. Morley presided at the organ, and the choir sang the wedding hymn as a processional, in splendid style, as was also the rest of the music. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. J. de Soyres, assisted by Rev. Henry Street, uncle of the bride. The bride wore an elegant gown of white silk, made en traine, trimmed with white lace, and the usual veil and orange blossoms, and looked remarkably well. She carried an elegant bouquet, tied with ribbons.

Miss Nellie Snider was attired in cream surah silk, with large felt hat to match, trimmed with handsome ribbon of terra cotta, while the large bouquet she carried was of crysanthemums of the same color. The chancel of the church had been tastefully decorated for the occasion with white flowers, and as the wedding party stood there during the eeremony the effect was very pretty. The guests consisted only of the immediate relations of the bride, who, after the ceremony, drove to the residence of Mrs. Maclauchlan, Coburg street, where an elegant luncheon was partaken of. At 3.30 o'clock, the numberless friends of Mr. and Mrs. Glazebrook assembled at the station to offer their eongratulations and wish them good-bye on their departure for Montreal, where they are to make their-home. The bride (who was a great favorite in society circles) received a large number of elegant wedding gifts. The church wardens and vestry of St. John's church presented her with a cheque for $60; the choir with a large and handsome reading lamp; the rector a silver fruit basket, and the sexton of the church, Mr. Cook, wishing to remember her as well, gave her a case of carvers and steel. The gift she received from the groomsman was a set of solid silver spoons in a handsome plush case; the gift of the groom was a handsome gold bracelet, mounted on which was a wish bone set with rubies. To the bridesmaid he presented a gold pin, also, in the form of a wish bone.

Before leaving Montreal, Mr. Glazebrook was the recipient of a case of silver forks and also one with knives from the officers of the bank, with whom he is a great favorite. Miss Maclauchlan has for some time past been instrumental in getting up amateur operas, concerts, etc. In this, together with her efficient work as organist, she will be sadly missed in St. John.

The Misses McMillan gave a pleasant picnic on Thanksgiving day to a few of their young friends who gathered together at the residence of Mr. J. McMillan, Rothesay, where, after spending a few hours and partaking of lunch, they returned to the city and finished the evening at their house on Germain street.
