

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Among the visitors on the 24th noticed Mr. Frank McCully, of Moncton, Mr. E. Seedor, Mr. W. Noble, Mr. Clem Noble, of St. John, spent Sunday in town.

BATHURST.

[Progress is for sale in Bathurst at A. C. Smith & Co's store.]

MAY 29.—Mrs. P. J. Burns and Mrs. Jacob White have returned from their visit to Moncton.

Driving and fishing parties were the order of the day here on the 24th; the Papineau Falls and Rough Waters being the principal points of attraction.

Sunday services for the Reformed Episcopal congregation were held by the Reverend Mr. Cuthbert, of Chatham, in the large hall of W. R. Johnson's new building.

On Monday, Mr. Robert Hickson and Mr. Henry White were returning from Carron Point, whither they had gone angling.

Mr. W. F. Todd has erected telephone communication between his stock farm at the Ledge and his store in St. Stephen.

The Rev. W. W. Campbell has taken lodgings at Oak Bay for the summer, to give his children the benefit of country and sea air.

Mrs. Peabody is spending the summer here, the guest of her brother, Dr. Todd.

Miss King and her sister, Miss Louise King, of Calais, have returned from Boston.

Dr. W. H. Osborne and Mr. Edwin Cockburn, of St. Andrews, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Alice Robinson is making plans to join a tourist party to visit Paris some time in July.

Mrs. Wilder, of Augusta, Me., is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. F. Tidel, of Milltown.

Rev. Mr. Hoyt, of Andover, was here, on Friday, to attend the diocesan meeting in Trinity church, and was the guest of Mr. W. E. Vroom.

Mr. Robert Wetmore, of St. George, spent last Friday in town.

Miss Clara Barnard has returned from Europe. She is looking well and enjoyed foreign travel immensely.

Mrs. J. A. Grimmer is visiting friends in Bangor. The hotel company was organized last Saturday, and work on the hotel will soon begin.

At a meeting of the Cricket club, Mayor Grimmer was elected president and Mr. Campbell Whitlock vice-president.

The play Antia's Trial was presented to the good people of Milltown, last Wednesday evening, in the Academy. The audience was small but appreciative.

Mr. Robert Phinney spent Sunday in Moncton. Mr. Herbert Irving, of Buctouche, was in town on Monday.

Mr. J. McGowan, of St. John, spent Sunday in town. Mr. George McLeod, of St. John, was in town on Monday.

Mr. J. A. Thomson, of Chatham, is in town; the guest of Mr. Geo. Wilson.

Mr. Wm. Funcheson returned a few days ago from the West. His many friends are pleased to welcome him back to his native town after years of absence.

REGINA.

MAY 29.—The Queen's birthday was celebrated here as usual, by the merchants of the town keeping their stores open for business, of which, however, there was very little done.

Mr. Jas. D. Phinney, who has been confined to his house for about a week, suffering from a severe sore throat, is able to be out again.

The pulpit of St. Mary's church was occupied for the first time on Sunday last, since Mr. Gwylno's departure, by the Rev. Mr. Watkins, of Parrsboro, N. S. Mr. Watkins is the guest of Mr. Wm. and Mrs. Hudson.

ST. STEPHEN.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen at the book-stores of C. H. Smith & Co. and G. S. Wall.]

MAY 29.—The 24th was a very quiet day here. About 300 people went to St. Andrews on the W. C. T. U. excursion. The day was charming, and every one enjoyed the sail down the river, the salt sea air, and the ramble through the Algonquin Hotel, which is nearly finished.

Bishop Kingdon confirmed twelve candidates in Christ Church, on Thursday, and 20 in Trinity church, on Monday. The services were solemn and interesting, and large congregations were present in both churches.

There are rumors of weddings early in June. We have pleasant stories of a prominent dry goods man of Calais and one of St. Stephen's fairest daughters, and also of an esteemed young grocer on Water street, who will soon bring a bride from St. John.

Mrs. Henry Graham went to Fredericton on Saturday for a short visit. Miss Jessie Inches has returned from St. John.

Miss Kate Bolten sails from New York this week to Europe. She will travel on the continent, visit the Paris exposition, and will not return to America until fall.

Quite a number of Miss Stewart's Amherst friends have received invitations to attend her marriage to Capt. Boileau of the Royal Artillery, which comes off on the 5th June at the Cathedral, Halifax.

Two more marriages are to come off here shortly, the contracting parties being well and favorably known.

Mrs. John Brown of Halifax, mother of Mrs. Medley Townshend, has been in town for a few days.

I heard so many exclaim when Progress arrived last Saturday, "Why is it that the Amherst correspondence has failed this week?"

[Progress has a large amount of correspondence to handle, and unless the MS. arrives Thursday morning insertion is not assured. The Amherst correspondence arrived too late last week.—T. H. BURTON.]
