

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN ST. JOHN AND HALIFAX

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Richibucto, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Milltown, Bathurst, Sussex, Amherst, Truro, Calais, Etc.

If my article for this week begins with a dissertation on the weather, I hope it will not be considered, as it usually is, a sign of lack of subject matter...

Lady Tilley returned on Sunday from her visit to New York, and on Monday evening entertained a few young people to an angling party.

On Tuesday evening the handsome rural residence of Gen. D. B. Warner was the scene of a very brilliant gathering of young people.

Lady Tilley will receive her friends on the 18th and 25th of this month, and on the first Tuesday in July.

On Tuesday evening the handsome rural residence of Gen. D. B. Warner was the scene of a very brilliant gathering of young people.

Mr. Lyon (Toronto) who has been spending the past week in St. John, returned home on Tuesday last, much pleased with his visit.

Miss Bradford and Miss Nutt (Boston) are the guests of Mrs. S. T. King.

Mrs. John Magee, Jr., is visiting her sister in Prince Edward Island.

I understand that Mr. James I. Fellows intends very shortly to visit St. John.

Mrs. L. T. Stedman has returned from Bathurst, where she has been spending a few weeks.

Mr. M. S. L. Hickey, of the Bank of Montreal (Chicago) is the guest of Mr. James Straton, Hazen street.

Miss Gilmour is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cotton, in Halifax.

The many friends of Mrs. T. Dowling, both in Fredericton and St. John, will hear with regret of her death which took place in Winchester, England, on the 28th of May.

Mrs. John Berryman's first reception day was on Tuesday last, and many availed themselves of the opportunity to pay their respects to the bride.

A wedding will take place on Wednesday next, in the Mission chapel, when Miss Fanny Frye and Mr. Charles Lee, of the Halifax Banking company, will be married.

Rev. W. O. Raymond and Mrs. Raymond have returned from New York, where they have been spending some time.

Mrs. W. G. Vroom is visiting friends in Windsor, N. S.

Quite a number of the fair sex visited the range on Thursday last, when the interprovincial rifle match was fired.

Mr. George F. Smith has returned from England, looking all the better for his trip.

FRERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Penney and by James H. Haw thorne.]

JUNE 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Tabor arrived home from their wedding trip, Tuesday evening, and the Fredericton brass band gave them a royal serenade between 10 and 11 o'clock.

Mr. Arthur Glasier entertained his friends Tuesday evening at a moonlight picnic on the river. These moonlight picnics are most enjoyable affairs.

The lovers of pleasure are looking forward to a little bit of excitement next Tuesday evening in the form of a party to be given by Dr. and Mrs. Bailey.

Mrs. Fisk, of Boston, formerly Miss Beckwith, of this city, is visiting her friends here. She is the guest of Mrs. Henry Phair, Queen street.

Mrs. Henry Phair returned home from Boston Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Annie Tibbits, of the University senior class, is announced as the successful competitor for the Governor General's gold medal.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr, of New York, are here visiting their friends, they are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. DeLaney Robinson Douglas, parents of Mrs. Carr.

Quite a party left here Monday for Tororo. Among the number was Mrs. Atherton, who will spend the summer with her son, Dr. Atherton.

Mr. Charles Everet was also one of the party.

Mrs. John G. Gilbert, of Sheffield, has been here visiting friends. She was the guest of Mrs. Varasour.

Miss McGalley, Brunswick street.

Mrs. Graham, of St. Stephen, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maher, Regent street.

Mrs. George Taylor has returned from Calais, where she has been for a year. She is with her mother, Mrs. Moore, St. John street.

MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the bookstore of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main street.]

JUNE 12.—Moncton society is about to sustain a very severe loss by the removal of Mr. W. E. Stavert from his present post of manager of the Moncton branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Mr. Stavert has been transferred to the charge of a branch about to be opened in Kingston, Jamaica. A little thought last spring when I spoke of the shock it would be to Moncton people if either Mr. Stavert or Mr. Butcher were to be removed that the spirit of prophecy was resting for a brief moment on my unworthy shoulders.

Mr. Stavert has been succeeded by Mr. J. F. Teed for Cape Breton, to spend the summer there. It was a false alarm, but though he will spend the summer here, Mr. B. Teed will take his place in Cape Breton, and words can hardly express the amount he will be missed in Dorchester between now and next September, when he hopes to return.

staying with Mr. H. C. Hanington. He returned to Moncton on Monday.

Hon. Bliss Botsford spent Sunday at his home in Moncton, returning to Dorchester on Monday to resume his work in court.

Last week I bemoaned the coming departure of Dr. J. F. Teed for Cape Breton, to spend the summer there. It was a false alarm, but though he will spend the summer here, Mr. B. Teed will take his place in Cape Breton, and words can hardly express the amount he will be missed in Dorchester between now and next September, when he hopes to return.

Mr. A. W. Chapman returned on Tuesday from his visit to New York, where it is safe to say he has enjoyed himself. I am told that he is already talking of another visit to Gotham.

Rev. F. H. Almon, of Halifax, spent Thursday in Dorchester, the guest of Rev. J. Roy Campbell at the rectory. He was on his way back to Halifax from Richibucto, where he has been holding services in the absence of a permanent clergyman.

Mr. Leander A. Palmer returned on Monday, from Acadia college Wolfville, where he has completed a very successful course, and has taken the degree of B. A. Mr. Palmer is meeting with a hearty greeting from his many friends in Dorchester.

Rev. J. Roy Campbell left on Tuesday for Westmorland, to attend a meeting of the members of the deanery of Shediac. He will be absent until Saturday.

Mr. H. R. Butcher, of St. John, spent Wednesday and Thursday in Dorchester, the guest of Mr. Hiram W. Palmer.

Moncton, was in Dorchester on Friday. Mr. Robinson studied law in Mr. Robinson's office here, and his Dorchester friends have by no means forgotten him.

Dr. J. W. Sangster, D. D. S., of Sackville, has taken rooms at the Weldon house, and is spending a week in Dorchester, engaged in the practice of his profession.

Mr. R. B. Smith, barrister, of Moncton, adorned the court-room with his presence, yesterday, and is still in town today.

Mr. Charles Sayre, barrister, of Richibucto, is here, trying a case in the court.

Mr. Bliss Hanington, formerly of St. John, but now of Port Mulgrave, Nova Scotia, is stopping off a day in Dorchester, at the residence of Mr. D. L. Hanington, on his way to St. John for a couple of months' rest.

Mr. Joseph H. Harris, barrister, of Moncton, was in Dorchester yesterday, engaged in court.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Godfrey returned yesterday from a short visit to Shediac.

We are dismayed to hear a rumor to the effect that Dr. J. E. Church intends giving up his practice in Dorchester and removing to Amherst, together with Mrs. Church and their charming family. Surely this must be a mistake. Dorchester would be no better than a wilderness without Dr. and Mrs. Church and that family of theirs, especially the twins. An alleviating circumstance is the report that Dr. J. F. Teed will remain here and take Dr. Church's practice, should the latter decide to leave Dorchester. (Calls promptly answered, day or night.)

Mrs. David Chapman spent last week in Amherst, visiting her son, Mr. David Chapman, Jr.

Mrs. Cooke, the mother of Mrs. J. B. Forster, returned last week from an extended visit to Pictou, N. S. Mrs. Cooke has been away nearly all winter, and seems glad to get back.

Mr. P. A. Landry M. P., spent last Friday and Saturday in St. John, on legal business.

Mrs. Botsford, who has been spending the winter in Boston, is in Dorchester, visiting the Misses Backhouse.

Mr. J. H. Harris was in Dorchester for Sunday.
