TROUBLE IN A CHATHAM CHURCH

Men and Women Wrangle Over the Choice of a Minister. CHATHAM, JUNE 14.—Our St. Andrews church business was advanced a stage-I say "advanced" inadvisedly, perhaps-on Wednesday evening, when the annual meeting for the election of trustees, etc., was held. The result, I regret to say, seems to be one that is not encouraging to the progress of the church, for the action of the elders in defeating the expressed views of the congregation in regard to the musical service was up for condemnation, and the erring fathers of the church, only escaped censure by a proposition being carried on the charitable suggestion of one of their opponents, that their conduct ment. Then there was "a scene" between two very prominent members of about three score years—one male and the other female -in which the woman, as usual, had the best of it, after they had practically square d off to each other on the floor of the schoolroom, where the meeting was held. The upshot of the meeting was the increase of the differences between the "moderns" and 'ancients" in the congregation, and the voluntary withdrawal of the "modern" element from the trusteeship. The "ancients" are, however, hugging themselves over having the best of the fight, so far, and the purchase of pews by two "ancients" of tender age and more tender experience, while it qualified them for the advantage they sought, only adds to the weakening elements which seem to threaten the natural advancement of this really fine church organization.

Come, Come, Don't Be Silly. The rumor that Mr. Barker will not keep his seat without defending it in the court, is not well received by the people. Even those who opposed him the hardest are not disposed to question the will of the people. Let well enough alone, gentlemen.
