the church was crowded to the doors, and numbers were unable to obtain admission. The interior was very beautifully decorated with flowers by the ladies of the choir, of which the bride is a member. The bride looked charming in a dress of cream colored cashmere, trimmed with brocade of the same shade embroidered with pearls and silver braid, and court train. The bridesmaids were Miss Riddick, of Sussex and Miss Knight, of Moncton. Miss Riddick wore a dress of red cashmere and cream colored satin trimmed with gold beads. Miss Knight wore a beautiful dress of blue and silver brocade trimmed with white plush, and looked most charming. There were two groomsmen, Mr. Stanley Kierstead, barrister, of St. John, and Mr. Hawkins, of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, Dorchester.

After the ceremony, the guests returned to the house of Mr. P. A. Macgowan, brother of the bride, where the reception was held, after which Dr. and Mrs. Murray took the train for St. John, en route for the eastern states, where they will spend several weeks taking in the White mountains and Niagara Falls.

As an evidence of the esteem in which the happy bridegroom is held among the young men of Moncton, a number of his friends tendered him a farewell supper on Monday evening, at Tennant's restaurant, and after the more serious business of the evening had been disposed of various toasts were proposed and drunk with all honors, and just before breaking up the Dr. was presented with a very handsome walnut sideboard, as a slight token of the cordial regard his friends felt for him.

Mr. Albert Stevens, son of Mr. R. M. Stevens, locomotive inspector of the I. C. R., reached Moncton on Wednesday morning, to pay a visit to his friends. Mr. Stevens was formerly in the train despatcher's office here, but has been in the service of the C. P. R. in British Columbia for some two years. His many friends are glad to welcome him back again.

Mr. E. C. Jarvis, inspector of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, was in town on Thursday.

Hon. D. L. Hanington, of Dorchester, was in town on Wednesday.

Mr. James Taylor, C. E. of the Pictou Branch railway, spent last Sunday at his home in Moncton. Mr. Taylor was bronzed by his outdoor life, but was looking unusually well, and was cordially welcomed by his friends.

Mr. D. H. Duncan, cashier of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, was in town on Thursday.

We have got quite a number of "our boys" back again, just at present.

Mr. Will Harris is at home from Sackville college for the summer holidays.

Mr. Owen Campbell, of the Bank of Montreal, St. John, son of John Campbell, of the I. C. R., spent some days at his home in Moncton, last week, leaving yesterday for St. Andrews, where he will spend the remainder of his holiday among relatives.

Mr. Wallace, of the Bank of Montreal here, left town on Monday to spend a fortnight at his home in Halifax.

Mr. Percy Woodworth, of Kentville, was in town yesterday, attending a meeting of the Servis Tie Plate company.

Mr. Edward McSweeney returned, last night, from an extended visit to New York, whither he had gone for his health, which, I am happy to say, is very much improved.

Judge Wedderburne, of St. John, was in town yesterday.

Hon. John Lafarge, of Summerside, paid a short visit to Moncton on Monday.

Mr. Lewis Carvell, of Charlottetown, was in town on Monday.

The Rev. W. B. Hinson and Mr. Crandall, of the P. O. department, have been spending a week on

That's a new thing! What is it? 2 1/4 yards of Pongee; looks like a sash; 'tis a sash, but it is also the correct article for tying back Curtains. Latest colorings.

Is it time to think about your Cambrie dress? The season is an early one, the "quicker" you get it made up the more service you have from it, for no matter how late you get it, you'll have to put it off with the season, and of course you will want a brand new one next year.

Naturally our assortment of goods of this class is large. We pride ourselves on the completeness of our store; but we could never think it complete, especially at this season, without a large, very large stock of these goods.

We had not intended to refer to ourselves in this article. Having concluded that you must have a new dress, the next thought would be, of where to buy it, and among the numerous names and places arising before you as "eligible" we do not think that we would be forgotten.

the trout streams of Kings county, and returned last Saturday well satisfied with the result of their labors.

And still the Sunday excursion over the B. and M. railway is catching on all sides. Rev. Mr. Robinson of the Presbyterian church, disregarding the advice given on Saturday by Progress to adopt an attitude, not of hostility, but of discouragement, preached against it again on Sunday, even requesting the town council to interfere, and yesterday the Sons of Temperance published a rather intemperate resolution of disapprobation in the daily papers, condemning the B. and M. very strongly. And now the general public will probably arrive at the conclusion that Mr. Hanington, the obliging and very popular manager, is being persecuted and that they must rally round his standard. The Sunday excursions will be a pronounced success, and those who have been most energetic in denouncing them will have brought about the very result they were fighting against, by their own lack of judgement. Telle est la vie. CECIL GWYNNE.

DORCHESTER.

[Progress is for sale in Dorchester at George M. Fairweather's store.]

JUNE 5.—The county court opened yesterday, and a good many strangers are in town in consequence—some of them real strangers, and others very frequent visitors at the Devil's Half-Acre. The present session promises to be a pretty lengthy one, judging from the size of the docket.

Miss Stronach, of Moncton, has been making a visit to Mrs. McGrath, at the residence of Mrs. McGrath's father, Mr. J. F. Teed.

Mr. W. D. Wilbur made a short visit to St. John last week.

Hon. Judge Botsford is here attending court. He is always a welcome visitor to Dorchester, where he has a host of friends.

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P. P., is in Dorchester, also attending court. This is his first visit to Dorchester for a long time, and he says he is delighted with the beautiful appearance of the town. Everybody is in the summer time.

Another legal stranger who I noticed in our streets yesterday, is Mr. George Fowler, of Sussex, a member of the firm of Hallet & Fowler. He, too, is engaged in court.

Mrs. George W. Chandler returned yesterday from a short visit to her niece, Mrs. J. Fred Allison, in Sackville.

Mr. W. J. Robinson, of Moncton, was in town yesterday, having been summoned hither to act as grand juror. He returned to Moncton today.

Mr. Josiah Wood, M. P., was in Dorchester on Tuesday, returning to Sackville the same evening.

Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., of Sackville, was here yesterday attending to his business as local representative.

Mr. W. A. Russell, barrister, of Shediac, is in town attending court. Mr. Russell has a number of cases on the term.

Mr. W. B. Chandler paid a short visit to St. John last week, returning to Dorchester on Saturday.

Messrs. John A. Humphrey and A. E. Killam, M. P. P., of Moncton, were in Dorchester yesterday, engaged with their colleagues, Messrs. J. L. Black and D. L. Hanington, M. P. P.'s, in disposing of the by-law money. (P. S.—This does not necessarily indicate the approach of an election.)

A face often seen in Dorchester was that of Mr. George P. Thomas, barrister-at-law, of Moncton, who was in town yesterday to attend the opening of court.

Miss H. I. Hanington returned on Saturday from a visit to her aunt, Miss Hanington, at Shediac. She was accompanied to Dorchester by her cousin, Miss Trixie Hanington, who leaves today.

Messrs. R. Barry Smith and R. W. Hewson, barristers, of Moncton, favored Dorchester with their presence yesterday, and will be often seen here during the present court session.

Dorchester people are glad to see among them again Dr. J. F. Teed, who came down from Moncton Monday evening. They will, however, be disappointed to learn that Dr. Teed is thinking of leaving very shortly for Cape Breton, to spend the summer there with his father, Mr. John F. Teed.

Mr. H. A. Powell, barrister, of Sackville, was in Dorchester yesterday, engaged in court.

Mr. R. C. Tait, of Shediac, has been making a business visit to Dorchester, leaving for his home today.

Mr. Clifford Sayre, M. D., of Moncton, paid a short visit to the shiretown yesterday, but left it again today.

Mr. D. Holmes, of the Merchants' Bank, Sackville, was in Dorchester on Thursday—the first time for a long while.

Mrs. Joshua Chandler and Miss F. S. Chandler paid a short visit to Moncton on Monday, returning in the evening on the first fast train from Moncton.

In looking around the court room yesterday afternoon the eye was at once struck with the number of leading local lights present. There was the sun to rule the day, in the person of Hon. Bliss Botsford, and a number of attendant satellites such as Hon. P. A. Landry, M. P. P., Hon. D. L. Hanington, M. P. P., J. L. Black, M. P. P., J. A. Humphrey, M. P. P., and A. E. Killam, M. P. P.—what you might call a representative gathering, in fact.

The Ascension music in Trinity church on Sunday is said to have been very fine. Besides a number of new hymns, an anthem quartette was sung with good effect by Mrs. Robb, Mrs. McGrath, and Messrs. Hanington and Fowler. Pansy did not turn out in the evening, and so unfortunately missed what said to have been a rich treat.

Tomorrow will witness the wedding of Rev. John Pascoe to one of our best known young ladies, Miss Moore. Unfortunately for poor us, the ceremony is to take place at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas Keilior, and not at the church, and so the usual wedding guests will have to stay at home this time, Pansy among the rest. Every one wishes the venture some couple every happiness, and none more than your correspondent. Miss Moore will be very much missed in Dorchester, where she has always been a great favorite of young and old. Mr. Pascoe, who was for a number of years in charge of the Methodist church here, has a host of friends in Dorchester, but even that fact will not procure him forgiveness for carrying off Miss Moore from among us.

On the principle of "everybody play ball," the greater part of Dorchester was at the I. C. R. depot Monday evening, to witness the arrival of the first fast express from Montreal. The general impression is that it will answer our requirements in that line, so the C. P. R. company will rest assured.

Mrs. Rankine and Miss Harding left town last week for Halifax, for an extended visit.

The fine weather has brought out the tennis players in full force. The grounds of the A. A. A. club are in perfect order, and it is a very pleasant occupation for the uninitiated to watch the players, the ladies in their pretty colored dresses and the gentlemen in their white flannel suits, making an interesting picture, besides the opportunity for innocent flirtation. Miss Shenton is at home from her studies at Sackville academy.

By the way, it is not a fact that the latest importations in the way of bank officials are, with one exception, great lovers of dancing. So said many of the ladies that attended a social gathering at Cole's hall some time since. "Why she waltzes divinely!" was the general exclamation when the name of our genial agent of the Merchants was mentioned. And they say Mr. Trainor is not slow in the mazurka.

ST. STEPHEN.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen at the bookstores of C. H. Smith & Co. and G. S. Wall.]

JUNE 5.—Rev. W. W. Campbell, so famed for his weird poetry of the Lakes, will soon publish a volume of poems. He is a writer of no mean order, and no doubt his book will meet with a ready sale and will be greatly appreciated by his friends and congregation.

There is to be a "Baby's Reception" in the vestry of the Union church, Calais, Mothers are very busy preparing handsome dresses to make the little ones as lovely as possible. Prizes will be given to the largest child under two years of age, also to the smallest, handsomest, ugliest, crossdest and most good-natured. It certainly will be difficult to decide for every mother will think her own baby has all the graces this world gives. The judges' position is most unenviable.

Mr. Howard Grimmer, of St. Andrews, spent Sunday in town, the guest of his brother, Mayor Grimmer.

Mr. D. W. McCormick was in town for a day.

Memorial day, in Calais, was more noted for the gathering together of the elite and fashion of both sides of the river than for anything else. Of course, the flowers were lovely, the band played the Dead March in the most solemn manner, but the appearance of the soldiers, flags and prancing horses made one forget the solemnity of the occasion. Never for years have I seen so many elegant costumes and handsome carriages. I particularly noticed that of Mrs. McNichol, in which sat four of the loveliest young ladies Calais can boast of; also, Mrs. Albert Neill, a graceful, lively little lady, who, in a pretty basket phaeton, drives a stylish, tall grey horse.

From St. Stephen I noticed Mr. and Mrs. John D. Chipman, who had with them some English cousins.

Mrs. Hazen Grimmer, driving her pretty pony in a village cart; Mrs. Charles Young, with a carriage full of happy little children; also, Mrs. Frank Todd, Mrs. T. J. Smith and hosts of others, all looking gay, enjoying the fine weather and the great crowd of people.
