Mr. Warren W. Gledhill, now of Lewiston, Maine, one of our old friends of the days of polo and the box-woods, after an absence of five years, has been visiting friends in town. He left Monday for home very much impressed with the beauty of the St. Croix and its charming young ladies. He thinks somewhat of going into the turpin business at Bay

Side, but seems to incline a little more strongly toward Milltown. Come again and we will try and make it just as pleasant for you as we did this time.

Mrs. G. F. Eaton has been seriously ill at her father's, Mr. James Murchie's, for the past week. I am glad to learn that she is much improved.

Mr. Fred Butler, of the post office, drove a party of his young friends to St. Andrews last Sunday morning. They took dinner at the "Argyle" and returned in the evening, all very much pleased with the beautiful drive, as none of the party had ever driven it before.

The "Wee-Smoke-Um" Club of young ladies, who are enjoying the beautiful weather and the balmy breezes of the old St. Croix, at Capt. Cox's, Robinson, are Misses Cora and Millie Maxwell, Nellie Smith, Cora Alger, Helen O'Brien, Nellie Sturtevant (Dexter), and Katie Washburn. Where the name of the club originated I cannot say, but think Cora must have burned the chowder. Last Sunday the young ladies had a number of guests; some their mothers, others their cousins, while the young gentlemen from St. Stephen and Calais were out in force, and the magnetic influence of the young ladies drew several society lights from across the bay, from the Algonquin, and I even met the conductor of the Flying-Yankee wending his way to the beach with a team that would win a smile from any young lady who enjoyed a ride by fair Luna's light.

The ladies return Thursday of this week. They are very comfortably situated and being greatly benefited by their vacation. The visitors who chance to have the good luck to spend the day at the "Wee-Smoke-Um" lodge, are met by the ladies, who, in chorus, sing "Oh! did you bring any beans?" Whether this is a secret inquiry of the lodge or a favorite dish of the ladies, I have been unable to find out.

Misses Carrie Campbell, Addie and Emma. Towers, Annie and Marcella Black are also at Cox's and are having a splendid rest. These young ladies room in the upper flat with the "Wee-Smoke-Um" Club, and have a pleasant suite of rooms. They also return Thursday.

The children's entertainment, musical and dramatic was held in the Owen Musie hall. The little ones performed their parts admirably. The songs and recitations were well selected and the tableaux were very pretty. A large number attended and a neat sum was realized. Much credit is due to the leader, Mrs. Pember.

On Sunday a party will make the excursion in trip of the Oslette, which will pass through the Narrows, sail to L'Etete passage, St. Andrews, to Eastport. The boat leaves Eastport at 3.30 p.m. It will be a pleasant way of viewing the Island. It is expected that the secretary of state, James G. SISTER AND BROTHER.

The types made me make a few errors in my last week's notes, viz., Miss Carrie "Holly" read "Hall," and the French teacher should be Prof. Baud, not "Bond."

A number of riflemen left here during Friday and Saturday for Ottawa, among whom were five of the Langstroth family.

Mrs. Judge Palmer arrived on Saturday and spent a few days with her father, Mr. Gilbert Bent, near the station.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dixon, of Boston, paid Hampton a brief visit on Friday.

their stay has been prolonged. The calm water in vites canoeing. Many ladies have become quite expert in paddling the birch. Others display skill in rowing.

On Sunday, the Olette brought fifty guests, among whom were Count A. de Foreste, the Italian Minister of U. S.; J. Firmo, of Paris; Judge John Lathrop. The latter and Mrs. Lathrop and quite a party of the Tyn-y-coed guests propose spending the remainder of the season here. The Tyn-y-coed usually closes on Sept. 20, and as the Olette intends ramming until the 22nd inst., it will afford a greater facility for returning home later in September.

A large number of Tyn-y-coed visitors responded to the kind invitation of Mrs. and Miss Porter for a very enjoyable musicale.

The concert at Eastport brought together a select audience. Messrs. Poole and Edward Von Etze, as usual played perfectly. Miss Barker responded to an encore and was presented with a bouquet. Miss Peabody read "Ranline Paulowna" very nicely, but her acting and singing of "Money Musk" with piano accompaniment, gained for her prolonged applause. She responded by rendering "The Broken Pitcher." Miss Jonnie Woodbridge, the accompanist of the Tyn-y-coed orchestra, displayed her skill in the beautiful solo "Tarantella."

Hayward (Hampton), Mr. and Mrs. F. McCully (Moncton) and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ryan (Sackville) were her guests. I am sorry to hear that her daughters, Miss Alice and Miss Sara, have since been taken ill with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Baker and Miss Beatrice Whidden, who have been the guests of Mrs. G. W. Daniel, returned to their home in Halifax on Tuesday.
