

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Calais, Etc.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Parks went off on a pleasure trip by the C. P. R. on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Clinch (Rothsary) spent this week in Halifax.

Sir William, Lady Ritchie and family returned to their home in Ottawa on Monday last, after spending the summer at Quispamsis. Their son, the Rev. F. Ritchie, is still in St. John.

I am glad to hear Mrs. Thomas Adams has recovered from her late illness. Mr. and Mrs. Adams are now settled in their new home on Germain street.

And/or General Beck was in the city this week. Count DeBury, Madame DeBury and family, arrived home on Monday after spending the last six months on the continent. Miss Jeanne DeBury remained there to finish her education.

Mr. H. L. Sturdee, accompanied by Mrs. Sturdee, went to Ottawa on Saturday last to attend the court there.

Mrs. White (Shediac) is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert Jardine, Coburg street.

Major H. D. Likely, of the Northwest Mounted Police, who has been in the city for the last six months on account of ill health, is still an invalid, and will probably be unable to rejoin the force.

Mr. Murray Botsford, who is at present stationed in the Merchant's Bank, Halifax, spent a few days among his old friends in St. John this week.

Invitations have been issued by Dr. and Mrs. Steeves, of the P. L. asylum, Lancaster, for a ball next Tuesday night, to which the young people are looking forward with much pleasure.

Mr. G. W. Daniel, of Sussex, spent Sunday with his relatives in this city. Col. Beer, of the same place, was also here for a day or two.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Busby and Mr. C. F. Harrison attended the wedding of Miss Prescott, at Bangor.

Mr. C. W. Weldon, Mr. W. Pugsley, Mr. George Gilbert, Mr. Silas Alward and Mr. L. Allen Jack are attending court at Ottawa.

Mrs. Beddome, of Moncton, is in the city. Mr. Bruce Scovill is spending his holidays in Boston and other American cities.

Mrs. R. P. Starr, with her son, Mr. Frank Starr, left last week for a fortnight's trip to Boston, New York and Upper Canada.

Mr. Jack Robinson, son of Mrs. Wm. Beverly Robinson, is in St. John. Mr. Robinson has spent the last few years at St. Paul, Minn.

I understand that the rector and vestry of Trinity church have decided to have a surplus choir there, as soon as the requisite number of male voices can be had, but as the training of boys is quite the work of time, it is hardly probable they will be proficient enough before Easter. The vestry have also decided to procure a water power arrangement for pumping the organ.

St. John's (stone) church has secured the services of Mr. James S. Ford as organist. Mr. Ford comes from England with the highest testimonials, and is expected to arrive in this city next month. I hear that Mr. H. Swanton, a late organist of the same church, is on this side of the Atlantic again, having accepted a position as organist in Sioux City, Iowa.

Miss Maggie McLaren is visiting friends at Bathurst.

Mrs. Ward, of Newark, N. J., is the guest of Mr. R. P. Starr, Carleton street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Straten have returned home, after a pleasant trip to Montreal and Ottawa.

Mr. Shireff, of Bathurst, is in town. The proceeds of the very successful tableaux given by the Aicot club, last week, at the residence of Mr. Fairweather, only amounted to $10, the rooms not being large enough to accommodate as many as would like to have been present. However, this small sum is wealth to the young people interested, as it is to be used to purchase materials for work which they hope will realize more than double the amount, by a sale in the spring.

Mr. Murray, of the Halifax Banking company, at Moncton, spent Sunday in the city.

The quarterly meeting of the Half-Hour Reading club was held at the residence of Mrs. Murray McLaren, on Thursday evening last. Several literary subjects were both read and discussed. Some musical selections were given by several of the ladies, refreshments were provided by their hospitable hostess and a very pleasant evening was spent. This club was formed some five or six years ago and has never lacked in interest. The object is to improve the mind by reading some standard work for not less than one half hour each day, and a fine impulse if not carried out, the funds going towards purchasing prizes and keeping up the club.

Mr. J. Miller, who has been stationed in St. John in the bank of B. N. A. for several years past, has been ordered to fill a position in the bank at Montreal. He will be much missed in society circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber Arnold have left their country residence at Wellsford, and are residing at their home on Carleton street.

TEBRISCHORE.

[OTHER CORRESPONDENTS.] Mrs. William Conant and her daughter, Miss Emma L. Conant, of Portland, Me., are the guests of Mrs. T. Wm. Bell.

Conductor George H. Trueman and Mrs. Trueman were pleasantly surprised, Thursday night, on the occasion of the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding. The visitors made it a genuine crystal wedding by an abundance of beautiful and valuable presents.

FREDERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Hawthorne.]

Oct. 24.—The wedding I foreshadowed in Progress, last week, took place this morning in St. Dunstan's church, at 10 o'clock. The principals were Mr. Charles E. Duffy, barrister, and secretary-treasurer of the Sunbury municipality, and Miss Mary O'Brien, grand-daughter of Mr. Daniel O'Brien. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. McDewitt. The bride, who is a very pretty young lady, looked charming in her bridal costume, which was composed of a perfectly plain dress of white satin silk, with very long train, the only decoration being a wreath of orange blossoms, extending from the left shoulder to the bottom of the skirt in front. The usual bridal veil was worn on the back of the head, extending down the train, and fastened with a wreath of orange blossoms, forming a coronet on the top of the head, which had a very pretty effect. She carried an elegant bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Minnie O'Brien, cousin of the bride. She wore cream sarah. Mr. Duffy was supported by Mr. John Cauty.

After the marriage the wedding party returned to the residence of Mr. O'Brien, Charlotte street, where they partook of luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. Duffy left by the noon train for Halifax, followed by the good wishes of their many friends. On their return from their bridal tour they will take up housekeeping in Mrs. Segee's cottage on George street.

The Women's Aid society will hold a fancy sale in the church hall on the evening of November 12th. Mrs. Vanwart, left for her home in Moncton last week, accompanied by her brother, Mr. Archie Tibbits.

Mrs. Edgar Hanson, of Gibson, has returned from a three week's visit to St. John and Leppaux.

Mrs. Phinney, of Richibouctou, is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Davis, on Brunswick street.

Dr. Currie is in New York.

Mrs. M. V. Paddock, who has been visiting her friends here, returned to her home in St. John last week.

Mrs. G. E. Fenety, who has been in St. John the last fortnight, returns home Friday.

Mrs. B. D. Wilson is here from St. John with her baby, visiting her friends.

Mr. George Hume has returned from his trip to the Pacific coast, where he has been visiting his two sons.

Mrs. Parkin arrived in this city last Friday, and left again on Saturday, for Chatham. She will leave for England on Nov. 7.

Mr. John Richards is very ill.

Mr. George F. Gregory is at Ottawa.

Mrs. Margaret D. Smith, mother of Mrs. T. Clowes Brown, died Saturday afternoon, having reached nearly four score years. Her remains were interred at Douglas, Monday afternoon, Rev. G. G. Roberts conducting the ceremony. Mrs. Smith's husband has been dead nearly half a century.

Mrs. Fred Thompson has returned from her visit at Sackville.

Mr. Henry Phair has gone to New York on his annual visit, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Fanny.

Miss Louise Thompson is ill with diphtheria, at home, at Douglas.

The Chautauqua class met on Monday evening, at Mrs. George Hatt's, on Brunswick street. They will study the works of Dr. Holmes.

Mrs. John Spurdin is in St. John. She is accompanied by her little daughter.

Mrs. J. M. Wiley is going to St. John on Friday, to visit friends.

Mrs. Gillibrand has returned home from St. John, where she has been visiting her friends.

Miss Ruel has a dancing class in the city, where she is teaching the ladies and lasses the "light fantastic." They meet every Friday evening, at the residence of Dr. Bailey, College road. STELLA.

MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the bookstore of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main street.]

Oct. 23.—I think I threw out vague hints of an other surprise party last week. Well, it materialized on Friday evening into a house warming, tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Talbot by their congregation. The greatest care was taken that the recipients should not have the least hint of the approaching festivity. The members of the congregation assembled after the Friday evening service laden with gifts, and literally stormed the rectory. Where the various parcels were stored during the service was then, and still is, a mystery to me, but they were skillfully secreted somewhere and smuggled into the kitchen, where some of the married ladies at once proceeded to establish a sort of limited monarchy, with coffee pot and stove as subjects, and a few, very few, of the most unselfish maidens as aides-de-camp.

Baskets and pre-ents were unpacked and quietly arranged; and while preparations for supper were being made in the kitchen, music and conversation were the order of the evening in the parlor. Mr. and Mrs. Talbot fell quite naturally into the position of guests, but assisted with graceful hospitality to add in every way possible to the genial enjoyment, in which benevolent purpose they were ably assisted by their guest, the bishop coadjutor. Any one who has had the pleasure of meeting his worship will not need to be reminded of the rare social gifts he possesses. The evening was one of the pleasantest I ever spent, and passed all too quickly. The Peters parlor orchestra contributed greatly to the evening's pleasure by rendering some of its most charming selections.

Among the offerings I noticed a very handsome study chair, the gift of Mrs. Jacobs and her brother, Mr. J. W. Binney, and I heard it was accompanied by a pipe and tobacco jar, showing that the rector was evidently expected to take solid comfort in his study. Another handsome gift was a cane lounging chair, presented by four gentlemen—Mr. Proctor, Mr. Jarvis and Mr. Wallace, of the Bank of Montreal, and Mr. James Cooke. There were many others worthy of notice, and the rector and his wife must have felt a glow of satisfaction in seeing so many proofs of the esteem in which they are held by their congregation.

Mr. J. H. Nickerson left town last week for a trip to the upper provinces and the United States.

Miss Addie McKean returned last Friday from Quebec, where she has been visiting friends. Miss Maggie McKean still lingers in the ancient capital.

Another of Moncton's most hospitable households has been broken up during the past week by the departure of Mrs. Tupper and Miss Trites, who intend residing in future with their brother, Mr. George Trites, of Halifax. Another sister, Mrs. Blair Estabrooks, has bidden adieu to Canadian shores, and gone to shed brightness upon the path of a young widower under the sunny, southern skies of Georgia. Mrs. Estabrooks was married at New York on the 12th instant to Dr. Lebaron Botsford, of Georgia, eldest son of the late Warden Botsford, of Dorchester, and her many friends in Canada join in wishing her much happiness, though they cannot but feel regret at her departure.

Mr. Gregory, of New York, paid a short visit to Moncton last week, remaining two or three days.

Senator Poirier, of Shediac, was registered at the Brunswick on Saturday.

Miss Cook returned on Saturday from Pictou, whither she had been called by the serious illness of her uncle.

Mr. Vernon Smith, of Ottawa, was in town on Saturday.

Mrs. C. F. Hanington spent several days in town last week. I believe Mrs. Hanington intends taking a house in Moncton for the winter, and her Moncton friends will rejoice to have her amongst them once more.

Mrs. R. W. Hewson, Moncton's latest bride, appeared on Sunday morning at St. George's church, and she is receiving her visitors this week. Mrs. Hewson is a most charming lady and we are fortunate in having so valuable an acquisition to our circle.

Dr. L. G. DeBertram spent last Sunday in Moncton.

Mr. James Chandler, of the Chandler Electric Light company, spent last Sunday in town, the guest of his brother, Dr. Edward Chandler.

Miss Stavert and Miss Thompson have left us again. Miss Thompson to visit friends in Truro, and Miss Stavert to pay a visit to Newcastle.

Mrs. J. H. Beddome is in St. John, visiting her mother, Mrs. Ring.

Miss Hocken, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hocken, of Moncton, returned to her home in Chatham, last week.

Miss Bliss, of Fredericton, is visiting her niece, Mrs. John McSweeney.

Mr. W. F. Mitchell, of the Merchants' bank of Halifax, is spending a few days in town.

Mrs. C. J. Butcher left town this morning to spend a fortnight at her home in Newcastle. Mr. and Mrs. Butcher hope to take possession of their new residence on Main street on her return.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Harris entertained a number of their friends last evening at a whist party which, it is needless to say, was an unqualified success.

On all sides I hear dreary rumors of an unusually dull season. The spirit of prophecy seems to have rested on the shoulders of many, and they all, with one accord, wag their heads and say, "A dull winter; there will not be much going on in Moncton this winter." But I really cannot see any reason for such gloomy prognostications. Where is the whist club? Yes, and "more betoken," where is our celebrated Dramatic club? With two such institutions in town, why should we be dull? We are beginning already to feel as if we should like to hear from the Dramatic club again. So I hope to learn soon that there has been a call to arms, and another play is being prepared for representation.

The large circle of friends that Dr. Teed made during his residence in Moncton will be grieved to hear that he is seriously ill at his home in Dorchester. Dr. Teed has been in very indifferent health for some months past, and an attack of typhoid fever, which he contracted lately, has utterly prostrated him. His condition is such as to cause his friends some uneasiness.
