Mr. W. E. McKay is spending a few days in

Miss Stewart, of Hampton, is the guest of Miss Berna Main. Mrs. J. McKenzie left on Friday for Dexter, Maine, to spend some weeks with her son, Mr. John

Miss Mary Gove, of St. Andrews, made a brief visit in town on Monday, and was the guest of her

K. McKenzie, who is engaged in railroad building sister, Mrs. Hazen Grimmer. Miss Mabel Burns has returned from the west, and will spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. W.

H. Todd. Miss Cora Maxwell entertained several of her friends with whist on Monday evening. Mrs. Henry Hill left on Friday afternoon for Montreal, to attend the meetings of the Women's Missionary society. Mr. Edwin Ganong, who has been spending a few days here, has returned to his home in New York. To the regret of all their friends, little Connie, the young daughter of Mr. John D. Chipman, is suffering from an attack of diphtheria.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Clarke are preparing to occupy the house on Hawthorne street in which Mr. J. G. Stevens lately lived.

Mrs. W. F. Todd, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Bolton, went to St. John yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Stancliffe, of Montreal, are visiting their friends Mr. and Mrs. John Black. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moran, of St. George, spent Sunday in town. Several ladies and gentlemen from Calais enjoyed a buck-board drive and picnic dinner at Oak Haven, on Friday last, Miss Flora Veasey, who has been away for some time, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Stevens have moved into their new residence, on Hawthorne street.

The ladies of Trinity church are contemplating an entertainment, early in November. Something new and unique is expected.

Mrs. Main entertained her friends very pleasantly on Tuesday evening.

SACKVILLE.

[Progress is for sale in Sackville at C. H. Moore's bookstore.]

Oct. 22 .- Miss P. Robinson left for her home in St. John on Thursday. She has been visiting her sister here and has made many friends. Mr. R. A. Trueman and daughter have returned from their visit to New York. Mr. B. C. Borden has returned from Prince Edward Island. Dr. and Mrs. Inch have returned home from their visit to the United States and other places. Mr. Richardson, of New York, vice-president of the New York Free Stone Quarrying company, was in town for a few days last week. He visited the ship railway with some American friends, and left for home on Tuesday.

Mr. George Robinson, of Richibucto, is in town visiting his friend Capt. Amos B. Atkinson.

Mr. Joe MacQueen was in town Monday. I regret to report the sudden death of Mrs. William Bulmer, which occurred on Friday. Capt. Ernest Anderson and wife have gone on a short trip to Havelock. Rev. Mr. French, of Ontario, and Rev. Mr. Harris of Amherst, spent Thursday at the rectory. The former clergyman is to take charge of the new Episcopal church at Fort Lawrence, which will be opened at Christmas. Mr. Alfred T. Parson has gone on a business trip to St. John. I fear I will soon have to chronicle the departure of both Mr. and Mrs. Parsons for New York where they are to spend the winter.

Mr. Josiah Wood went to Moncton on Tuesday. He is a veritable "will o' the wisp" and often escapes "Mitten's" eye in travelling to and fro. Mrs. Fred Thompson (nee Snowball, of Fredericton) has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph L. Black. Miss Minnie Estabrooks is contemplating a visit to St. John next week. Mr. and Mrs. C. Atkinson celebrated their china wedding on the evening of the 22nd inst. No guests | Friday and Saturday. were present from the land of the Orientals, but a number from Moncton, Dorchester, British Settlement and Wood Point. The gifts were useful, varied and numerous, one wedge wood cheese platter being especially beautiful. Among the list of marriage notices in the St. John Sun of the 19th inst. to my amazement I read, "Botsford-Estabrooks." Dr. Botsford resided here several years, and was highly esteemed as a physician. Since removing to the south, his letters to friends here did not disclose his intentions; and not even his own family was aware of the engagement to Mrs. Francis Estabrooks, of Moncton, until the papers announced the marriage at New York. Should the happy couple chance to pick up Prog-RESS, on their wedding trip, they will please accept hearty congratulations from old friends in Sackville, N. B., who forgive them for their silence. Mr. Ernest Ford and bride returned home from their wedding tour on Saturday. They appeared out in Salem church on Sunday and Mrs. Ford is receiving this week. She was becomingly attired in black satin, heavily trimmed with silk passementerie. Miss Anderson, her sister, assisted her.

Oct. 22.-We are all much greived to hear of Mr. Dunn's serious accident, and we hope for his speedy

Miss Clara Reed has returned home, after a lengtley visit to her friends in Fairville. Mr. William Wallace and Mr. C. A. Clarke have returned to St. John, after spending a few days at their camp at Hall's Lake. Mr. Stone, of Worcester, Mass., and Conductor Rand, of the Boston and Albany railway, are staying at the Musquash Hotel, enjoying a two weeks shoot-Mr. Wyatt, manager of the Englewood club, has goue to Boston for a brief visit. Mrs. Clowes, of Oromocto, is visiting her sisters, the Misses Carman, at the Willows.

Mrs. C. Clinch, of Boston, who has been spending the summer here, has gone to spend a week in St. George, in company with her aunt, Mrs. C. F. Clinch. Mrs. Russell, of Chatham, is visiting her friend,

Miss Knight, of Annapolis. is visiting her cousins, the Misses Knight. Mr. E. V. Richards. of the Shore Line railway, is

KINGSTON, KENT CO.

Oct. 23 .- Mr. Rich. Kinnear, of Moneton, spent Sunday with his friends at Virginia cottage Mr. T. Jardine, of the firm of J. & T. Jardine, with his son Sandy, returned from Scotland last week. The many friends of Rev. D. V. Gwilym were pleased to see him occupy his old place in the pulpit of the Episcopal church last Sunday afternoon and evening. The church on each occasion was full to its utmost capacity, and though the reverend gentleman's stay was extremely short, yet he managed to see a large number of his old friends. Mr. Geo. Morrison spent Sunday with his friends

Miss Sarah Scott has returned from St. John, where she has been selecting new goods. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ferguson entertained a few of their friends last Monday evening. A feature of the evening was the christening of their infant son. Rev. Mr Hamilton (Presbyterian), performed the ceremony.

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL.

[PROGRESS is for sale at Annapolis Royal at Fred S. Symonds & Co).

Oct. 23.-Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCormick returned from their wedding tour on Saturday, and are boarding at the Clifton house. They are a most welcome addition to Annapolis society.

Mr. William Malcolm and Prof. J. B. Barnaby returned last week from their trip to Halifax, on the Rochampton. They report a most enjoyable trip, but quite rough at times. Mrs. C. D. Pickles and two daughters, after spending a pleasant three weeks at the "Hub," reached home on Friday.

Mr. Herbert Crosskill, of Bridgetown, is home from Boston, on a vacation, but Annapolis possesses superior attractions to Bridgetown for Mr. Crosskill. I hear that an entertainment is in course of preparation for Thanksgiving eve. Some of the members of the Athletic club are taking an active part in it, under the management of Mrs. Munroe, which will insure its success. I also hear a rumor of another penny reading week, with a very attractive programme.

A very pleasant dance was given by the young people of Round Hill, at their new hall, last Friday evening, at which the youth and beauty of Annapolis was well represented. Among the number present were Mrs. Jameson, the Misses Buckler, Miss Robinson, Miss Gates and sisters, Mr. Kennedy, Mr. G. K. Thomson, Mr. P. Cowling, Prof. J. B. Barnaby, Mr. William Malcolm, Mr. George McLaughlin, Mr. K. Leavitt, Mr. C. McCormick.

Bishop Courtney was in town on Monday. Mrs. Binning and daughter, of Halifax, are the guests of Mr. F. S. Whitman.

This is an age of China painting, embroidary, art needlework and countless other beautiful and mystifying accomplishments -mystifying, at least, to the clumsy-fingered men-and the ladies who do as much to make this age what it is, will rejoice to know that the Misses Jordan and Manks are about to open an art room at No. 17 King street, early next month. This means more china painting, more emtroidery and more art needlework.
