NEW BRUNSWICK BOYS

HOW THEY CAN AND DO MAKE MONEY IN LEISURE HOURS.

"Progress" Grand Offer to Boys in the Country, by Which They Can Have a Good Weekly Income - The Success of Young St. John Hustlers.

New Brunswick boys are not behind their American cousins in push and enterprise. They have plenty of business ability, know a good thing when they see it, and there are few of them who are not earning money in some way.

Boys living in the city have more and better chances to keep a jingle in their pockets than their friends in the country. In the city the young people hear nothing else, see nothing else and many of them are thinking of how they can earn money long before they leave school, and more are making better wages during that time than they will in the first few years of their regular work. A little over a year ago a grand chance was offered the boys of St. John to increase their spending money and they embraced it. Before PROGRESS was started boys selling the St. John papers only made a half cent on every paper they sold; but they buy PROGRESS for two cents and sell it for three, clearing one cent on every paper. They found no trouble in selling PROGRESS. Everybody seemed to be waiting for it. Boys who preparation. never thought of selling papers before saw that they could make money and began at once to try, buying a few at first and increasing the number every week. Some of the boys have long lists of customers, to whom they deliver the paper every Saturday morning and collect the money.

But the city boys did not have a monopoly of the business. Boys in other parts of the province found that they could make money, too, by doing business with PRO-GRESS, and sent in orders for papers. They first visited their friends with a view of having them as customers, and very few people who saw the paper would miss reading it every Saturday for the sake of three cents. These boys have been increasing their orders every month until now some of them have customers for 100 papers every Saturday.

There are many boys in towns and vil-

DALHOUSIE.

JULY 9 .- This favorite summer resort has opened under most favorable circumstances. From the first day of the season the hotel has received additional guests. The house has been thoroughly renovated and made most comfortable and under of The New Review-the first number of the new management of Mr. C. Clapham of Montreal, with his efficient staff, will no doubt continue to merit a share of the patronage of the travelling public.

> Inch Arran was this year selected as one of the places for the meeting of the arbitration committee in connection with the celebrated case of the C. P. R. vs. the Queen. A large court room has been fitted up for the committee, and every day arbitrators, Q. C.'s, prominent lawyers, witnesses and guests wend their way "to court" to hear the arguments and cross-examinations of witnesses. The guests have so far been favored with splendid weather and have most enjoyable evenings, dancing being the favorite amusement.

On Dominion day a large party left by special train for Chatham, having lunch there, returning to display of fireworks took place under the direction of the managers.

The fourth of July was also duly honored by the American guests, the ladies having special decorations appropriately arranged, the large dining hall being decorated with the stars and stripes, while at the head of the room two large flags, the British and American ensigns were festooned with wreaths of ferns and flowers. After dinner a dance took place, the ladies supplying ice-cream supper. The whole passed off most successfully.

Several important improvements have been made by the new manager for the comforts of the guests, and it is expected that this will be one of the most uccessful seasons in the history of this now popular Canadian seaside resort. On Thursday next the guests are invited for a trip over the Baie des Chaleur's new railway, returning by way of Chatham, taking the steamer Admiral to Dalhousie. Many other attractions are being arranged for to take place during the season.

lages of New Brunswick who are unaware of this chance to make money. PROGRESS wants to make their acquaintance. Every boy has a large number of friends who will consent to take the paper the moment they see it.

All the boys have to do is to get some reliable persons to recommend them, and send their order. The papers will be at their post office every Saturday morning, and they can pay for them at the end of every month. There will be lots left in their savings banks after paying their bills.

Last year PROGRESS gave prizes to the city newsboys selling the most papers every week. It cannot do this with boys in outside places, but will reward them for their industry in another way. On SEPTEMBER 28TH, the boy, in any town or village outside of St. John, who orders the most papers every week for regular customers will receive a prize of TEN DOLLARS; the boy boy FOUR DOLLARS. The names of the prize winners will be published with the story of the competition, and the winners be that much richer, besides having a neat weekly income from now until that time, to say nothing of the business experience they will have gained.

Boys, pay your friends a visit next week, and let PROGRESS know the result. Everybody who sees the paper will consent to be a customer.

THE WORLD OF BOOKS.

The Magazines.

Among the timely articles in the July number of The New Review, which Longmans, Green & Co. expect to have ready about the 12th, are the "Eiffel Tower," by M Eiffel himself; the "Shah of Persia," by Lord Castletown, and "The Eight Hours Bill," by Mr. Charles Bradlaugh. There will also be an anonymous article on the "Talkers of London." Matthew Arnold's literary executor, Lord Coleridge, has written a paper on the lamented poet and critic, which will appear in the July penses. number of The New Review.

Notes and Announcements.

The new edition of Herbert Fry's useful guide-book, London in 1889, contains in all-and a new map.

A second edition has appeared of Dr. Louis Starr's Hygiene of the Nursery, a fulness of the book. The work has been the illustrations being retained.

Sharp has attempted an impossibility in endeavoring to compile an anthology of 250 good American sonnets, for the simple reason that that number of good American sonnets does not exist.

The next issues in Scribner's Yellow Paper Series will be F. J. Stimson's, The Crime of Henry Vane. and Arlo Bates' strong story, A Wheel of Fire.

The New England Magazine, Arthur P. Dodge, manager, has taken a new lease of life under the editorial direction of Edward Everett Hale and Edwin D. Mead.

Max O'Rell, it is said, is coming to this country to lecture again next year. His first engagement is in Boston in January next.

The demand for Mrs. Burnett's charming love story, Vagabondia, was so great as to exhaust three editions of the book in paper covers within ten days after publication. A second edition of Erckmann-Chatrian's Alnext to him SIX DOLLARS, and the third satian idyl, Fritz, just issued in yellow paper covers, was also called for.

Among the paper-covered books which T. Y. Crowell & Co. will issue this month are two volumes of short stories by English writers, Paying the Penalty and Three Times Tried; Don A. P. Valdes' two books, The Marquis of Penalta and Maximina, and W. Heimburg's Her Only Brother.

Orders for nearly 5000 copies of the Stevenson-Osbourne story, The Wrong Box, were received before the day of publication; and since then the demand for the book has been very active, showing that it is to be the story of the summer season

The summer scattering has by this time pretty well accomplished itself, writes Arlo Bates in the Book-Buyer for July. There are almost no literary workers left in town except the journalists. HAMPTON.

[PROGRESS is for sale at Hampton station by T.G. Barnes and at Hampton village by Messrs. A. & W. Hicks.]

JULY 11 .- Ex-Mayor Thorne spent Sunday here. Mrs. Thorne and her daughter, Agnes, will remain a few weeks, the guests of Mrs. Noah M. Barnes, near the station.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gerow and family arrived last week, and have taken one of Dr. Smith's houses for the summer.

Mrs. Dr. Brady, of East Somerville, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Macpherson.

The many friends here of Mayor Barker were shocked to hear of his death on Saturday morning. The flag on the court house was flying at half-mast on Saturday.

In my last I referred to the serious illness of Mrs. Thomas A. Peters. She passed peacefully away early on Tuesday morning, surrounded by her loving husband and children, deeply mourned. Since her removal here, a few years ago, she has endeared herself to all who made her acquaintance, and her death removes one from our midst who will be greatly missed, not only from society, but from the church in which she was an active worker.

Judge Wetmore was in town on Tuesday. Rev. Messrs. Maynard and Warnford, who were attending the diocesan church synod at Fredericton, returned on Friday last. Miss Addie Culrre has returned home. Mr. Bela R. Lawrence and Mr. Fred Melick spent Sunday at the Hotel Vendome. Capt. F. V. and Lieut. E. Wedderburn returned from camp St. Andrew's on Saturday evening. Mr. William Frost has sold his pleasant residence near the station to Mrs. Evanson, and will remove in a few days to Lower Norton. Mrs. Charles Upham, of St. John, has been spending a few weeks at the Marshall mansion, over the river from the village in Norton.

Judge, Mrs. and Miss Wedderburn returned from Fredericton last week. Coun. Geo. W. Fowler, of Sussex, was in town on Tuesday. Rev. Wm. Tippett preached his farewell sermon to a full house on Sunday evening. He leaves for Campbellton in a few days. C. N. Skinner, M. P., and Mr. A. H. Demill were in town on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. S. Adams and family are enjoying the summer on the banks of the lovely Hammond river at French village.
