SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Calais, Etc. Mr. F. H. Tippet, who has spent the summer in St. John, returned to Montreal the first of the week. Miss Eva Drury left for the South last week. She accompanied Miss Gunn, of Kingston, Ont., who has gone there for the benefit of her health. Miss Gunn is fortunate in having such a valuable nurse and companion, as Miss Drury, who will be much missed from her post in the St. John Hospital. Miss Louise Symonds, who has spent the summer at Bathurst, has returned home. Mrs. Wm. MacLachlan, sr., left by C. P. R. on Monday night for Montreal, where she will reside permanently with her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Glazebrook. Miss Maggie McLaren, who has spent the last few months at Chatham, returned home this week. Rev. Mr. Reid leaves next week, for Toronto, to enter upon his new field of labor in that city. Rev. Mr. Eatough, of Peitedoak, spent this week in the city, and did duty at Trinity church last Sunday. The Misses Nicholson have returned from their trip to Halifax. Mr. Robert P. Hazen left this week for Boston and New York on a holiday trip. Rev. J. W. Davenport is expected home to-day. He will be accompanied by his brother, who, with his wife and family will make him a visit. Mrs. J. W. Daniel received her guests this week at her residence, Princess Street. Mrs. Daniel's reception dress was of rich Peacock blue merveilense silk trimmed with brocade to match. I hear that a young St. John man, who is walking the Hospitals at Edinburgh, has fallen a victim to the charms of a Baroness's daughter. Last Friday was the quietest Hallow'e'en I have ever known in St. John. I think Hallow'e'en parties must have gone out of fashion, except among the juveniles. The choir boys of Trinity church were entertained that evening by Dr. and Mrs. Holden. They enjoyed the usual games, tricks, etc., and finished up with a supper. Miss Katie Bayard is improving slowly from her late severe illness, though still confined to her room. On Wednesday last, a very enjoyable dance was given by Mrs. George Schofield, at her residence, Wright street, at which over 50 of the young friends of Miss Gertrude Schofield were present. An immense deal of trouble was taken to make this a pleasant affair. Carpets were lifted and the floors waxed for dancing, while the supper table was loaded with all the delicacies of the season. It was not until an early hour on Thursday morning that the party broke up. A number of young ladies and gentlemen spent last Thursday (Thanksgiving day) picnicking at at Rothesay. Although the day was lovely it was rather late in the season to have tea in the open air, so through the kindness of Mr. Harry Fairweather, his father's residence was opened and bright fires lighted to receive the party, after spending the day playing baseball, rowing etc. Miss Belle Albro, of Halifax, is in St. John. She will spend the winter with Mrs. T. S. Adams, German street. Mrs. Samuel Girvan, who has been an invalid for some months, leaves next week for the South, where she will spend the winter months. She will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Richards, of Fredericton. Mr. Charles Campbell was summoned to St. Andrews this week, in consequence of the severe illness of his father. Mrs. C. A. Robertson, with her son, Mr. Mortimore Robertson, went to Hillsborough on Wednesday last, having been summoned there in consequence of the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. Wallace of that place. The marriage of Mr. Murray, of the dry goods firm of Barnes & Murray, with Miss Ranne, is fixed for next Tuesday evening. This promises to be a very brilliant affair. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Troop, and Miss Nellie Troop, are visiting New York. Mrs. John Kinnear, of Annapolis, N. S., is the guest of Mrs. Charles Kinnear, Carleton street. Mrs. Thomas S. Adams went to New York, this week, to meet her father, Mr. James I. Fellows, who arrived there from England a day or two ago. Mr. Fellows will not visit St. John this autumn. The Misses Blair, Orange St., gave a very pleasant whist party last Tuesday evening. About fifty of their friends received invitations, among them were Miss Katie Smith, Miss King, Miss Watters, Miss Katie Murray, the Misses Troop, Miss Dunn, Miss Jones, of England, the Misses Cruikshank, Miss Whitney, Miss Gregory, of Fredericton, Messrs. Troop, Sayre, Tilley, Starr, Seely, Fraser, Godard, Cruikshank, and others. Sir Leonard and Lady Tilly and party will attend the second concert of the Oratorio society, Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. S. T. King left town on Wednesday, for a very extended trip in the United States. Their first destination will be Boston, whence they will journey to Hot Springs, Arkansas, Florida, Washington, and other American cities, returning to St. John in May. Their friends join in wishing them a pleasant journey. Mr. J. Miller, of the Bank of B. N. A., left for Toronto on Wednesday last. He will be absent on a three weeks' holiday. Mr. Arthur Boyd, of the Bank of Montreal, Moncton, spent Thanksgiving day in the city. Mr. Herbert Schofield, of the Merchants Bank, Fredericton, spent Thanksgiving day in the city. ST. JOHN—WEST END. Mrs. Thomas Allan is visiting her niece, Mrs. Valpey, in Detroit. Mrs. Arthur Clark has returned from Yarmouth, N. S., where she has been visiting relatives for some weeks. Miss Annie Scammell, who has been visiting on Lancaster Heights, the guest of Mrs. E. G. Dunn, at Riverside cottage, has returned to her home at the East End. Rev. Mr. Ford, pastor of the West End Baptist church, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist church at St. Martin's, N. B. During Mr. Ford's three year's residence at the West End, he has made many friends who will regret very much his removal from their midst. Miss Mary Knight, who has been confined to her home, on King street, through illness, is able to be out again. Mr. Edward J. Scammell, accompanied by Mrs. Scammell, left on Tuesday, on a business trip to New York. Mr. Harry McDuffee is confined to his home through illness. Mr. and Mrs. Drake have moved to the East End, where they will make their home with their son, on Waterloo street. Mr. Frank Stetson, with his little son, has returned from New York. Mrs. Stetson, owing to the illness of her mother, Mrs. Neilson, will not return until later. Mr. and Mrs. Rudman Allan are this week receiving the congratulations of their friends on the arrival of a little daughter. It is with the deepest regret that the congregation of St. George's church accepted the resignation of Master Fred Blair, as their organist. Master Blair has accepted the position of organist in St. Andrew's church, where the vacancy, caused by his departure will be supplied by Miss Pilgoun. FRERE MORS. ST. JOHN—NORTH END. Mrs. Geo. S. Miller, of Elmira, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Marsh. Miss Blanche Wisely is expected home from Sackville tomorrow, to spend Thanksgiving week. Friends will be pleased to learn that Mr. A. L. Bonnell, who has been seriously ill for a few months past, is rapidly improving in health. His family have moved to High street. Dr. Smith is spending a few weeks in New York. On Friday evening last, the Misses Shaw gave a large party to a number of their friends. Dancing was the chief feature of the evening. Towards evening a sumptuous repast was partaken of. There were many handsome dresses among the ladies.

Mrs. Shaw received in an elegant black corded silk. The Misses Shaw wore white embroideries. Mrs. George Robertson, black satin and silk gauze. Mrs. Wm. Shaw, pale pink satin and fish net over-dress. Miss G. Holly, handsome white satin. Miss Butcher, scarlet satin and black silk lace, poppy trimmings. Miss Alice Ruddock, black net and yellow trimmings. Miss Tapley, exquisite green silk, combined with pink brocade. Miss Quinton, black lace, jet bodice, scarlet feathers. Miss Armstrong, exquisite Nile green silk, pink trimmings. Miss Farmer, delicate green, with exquisite pink and silver brocade. Miss B. Shaw, black silk and velvet. Miss Fleming, bengaline, embroidered with pale green. Miss N. Tapley, scarlet satin and striped gauze. Miss Peters, pale blue silk, white lace. Miss C. Tapley, buttercup silk. Miss Robertson, pale green silk, black lace. Miss Beverly, white silk, white lace and ribbons. Miss Thompson, pale pink silk. Miss J. Peters, rose colored china silk, velvet trimmings. Miss Tapley, white grograined silk, with gold fringe. Miss Scoboria, white embroidery, with green and pink ribbons. Miss Smith, pale gray, with blue and silver brocade. Miss McDuffee, delicate blue and white striped pineapple silk. Miss Frazer, black lace, white feather trimmings. Miss Godsoe, elegant heliotrope poplin; fine white lace trimmings. Miss Little, garnet satin and fishnet. Miss Little, plaid silk. The gentlemen invited were Messrs. Robertson, Ellis, Holly, McBeath, Dr. Addy, Messrs. McLellan, Armstrong, Kitching, Taylor, Drury, Dr. Maher, Messrs. Peters, Atherton, DeForest, Merritt, McLean, McAvity, Drake, McFarlane, Sullivan, Magee, Farmer, Brantley, Tilley, Logan, Rowan, Russel, Frazer, Stevens, Jones, and others. PEANUTS.

FREDERICTON. [PROGRESS is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Hawthorne.] Nov. 5.—Mrs. Montgomery Campbell's commodious residence was the scene of a very brilliant party on Monday evening. Mrs. Campbell's parties are always enjoyed affairs, and this one was no exception. The guests numbered about 100. The dancing was kept up with unabated zeal until 2:30 o'clock in the morning, excellent music being furnished by Hanson's Orchestra. Ices and refreshing drinks were served throughout the entire evening, and at midnight a charming supper was served. Mrs. Campbell was ably assisted in her duties as hostess by her daughter, Miss Campbell. There were a number of handsome dresses and charming young ladies. Mrs. Campbell received her guests in handsome black velvet and satin. Mrs. Campbell wore yellow silk with tulle over dress, the corsage trimmed with pearl beads. Miss Hooper, who is the guest of Miss Campbell, wore heliotrope cashmere. Mrs. T. G. Allen looked well in black velvet, long train, bodice trimmed with jet. Mrs. Leigh, elegant navy blue silk velvet, en train. Mrs. H. Beckwith, black and yellow silk combined, jet trimmings. Mrs. Gaskin, handsome black satin with lace trimmings. Miss May Robinson, black velvet dress with medical collar, topaz necklace and buckles set with topaz. Miss Winslow, pink silk, pearl trimmings. Miss Madeline Fisher, pink stripe silk, cream lace trimmings. Miss Lella Botsford, white dress, trimmed with rare old lace. Miss Mira Randolph, apricot flowered silk, trimmed with velvet same shade. Miss Maggie Allen, white silk, pink roses. Miss Agnes Wilnot, pale blue silk. Miss Fleming, cream silk and lace. Mrs. Douglas Lazon, red china silk, en train. Mrs. Frank Tibbits, pale blue silk; natural flowers. Mrs. George Manssell, black lace over black satin. Miss Nellie Blair, light grey cashmere, trimmed with pink silk. Miss Edith Gregory, black velvet; natural flowers. Miss Mabel Gregory, white silk and lace. Miss Tabor, handsome black lace; natural flowers. Mrs. Will Allen looked lovely in black velvet. Mrs. Albert Gregory, wore a lovely dress of red silk, trimmed with red beaded fringe and gauze butterfly. Miss M. K. Tibbits, white silk with lace trimmings. Miss Blanch Tibbits, pale blue silk. Miss Blair, black lace over yellow silk. Fredericton has now had its feast of gaiety and for the rest of the season we may expect a famine. Mrs. Campbell has gone to St. John with her husband for a few days.

Miss Wilbur, of Dorchester, who has been visiting Mrs. Edwin Vavasour, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. O. F. George have returned home from their trip to Providence, Boston, and other American cities. Prof. Duff will leave tomorrow for St. Stephen, where he will spend a few days. Quite a number are expected from St. John tomorrow to spend the holiday. Among the attractions for the day will be the foot-ball match between the University boys and the St. John team. Judge and Mrs. Fraser will leave home in a few days for the South, where they will spend the winter, for the benefit of the Judge's health. Mrs. Vavasour has returned home from Southampton, where she has been spending some weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Blair and their daughter, Miss Fanny, are in Boston for the health of the latter. Rev. Mr. Jack has been here, the guest of Mr. Pitts. Mr. T. Lee has been visiting friends in the city during the past week. Sir Leonard Tilley was in the city yesterday. Mrs. C.
