ST. STEPHEN.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen at the book-stores of C. H. Smith & Co., and G. S. Wall and H. M. Webber.]

Nov. 5.—The drive whist club met at the residence of Mrs. T. J. Smith last evening. There was a larger attendance than last week, and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. F. A. Grimmer, Mrs. J. E. Algar, Mrs. Waterbury and Miss Mary Abbott drove to St. Andrews to-day, to spend Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. Durrell Grimmer.

Rev. Randall Smith, of St. George, is spending a day or two at Christ church rectory, the guest of Rev. O. S. Newman.

General Warner, of St. John, spent Sunday in town, the guest of Mr. C. H. Clarke.

To the regret of his friends here, as well as in Calais, Rev. James Vincent is still quite ill, and confined to his residence.

Mr. James Murchie, of Milltown, has quite recovered from his severe cold, and is able to be about town, and attend to business.

Mayor McCullough, Hon. G. L. Downes and Hon. E. C. Goodnow, of Calais, left on Monday, for a tour in the Southern states.

Mrs. James Sayre, who has spent a month here, left on Wednesday for her home in Moncton.

SACKVILLE.

[Progress is for sale in Sackville at C. H. Moore's bookstore.]

Nov. 4.—Permit me to correct a typographical error, in last week's PROGRESS in describing a young lady's evening dress, it read cream satin sash, when it was cream satin dress.

A refined and appreciative audience greeted the performers at Lingley Hall on Friday evening. The music was all that was anticipated. Mrs. Harrison looked charming, and sang very sweetly, and is fast winning laurels from the people of Sackville. Mrs. Mack took the audience by storm, in her rendition of "Sing, Smile and Slumber," with violin accompaniment. The scenes from "Shakespeare" were very amusing, though some of the "bits" were not quite up to the mark, but that is to be expected in amateurs.

Miss Vail, of Bathurst, is spending the winter at Acadia Grove.

Mr. T. Estabrooks, and Mr. McDougall returned from their shooting trip last week. The story goes they captured about fifty wild ducks, brant, snipe, but this season rather fishy. Rev. C. F. Wiggins and Mrs. Wiggins are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter at the rectory.

Miss Desbrisay, of Bathurst, is spending a week in town.

Mr. H. B. Allison, Jr., went to Halifax on Saturday for a few days.

It is reported we are to lose one of our popular young men, viz: Dr. Calkins. This seems very unfortunate for us. Just as we were beginning to find out that Dr. was pretty nice, Sussex had to step in and take him from us.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. C. Ketchum and Miss Milner went to New York on Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Trueman returned from a pleasant visit to the States, last week.

Mr. J. R. Ayer went to Halifax last week.

A. McE. Howard and children, of Halifax, spent last week with Mrs. A. B. Atkinson.

Mr. Josiah Wood has returned from his trip West.

We have been taking a rest this last week or two, so as to be all ready for the "manually" that is to take place at the Brunswick house, under the auspices of our young men. The girls, of course, are all excited over their dress. I saw one young lady, bright and early the other morning, who was going. "I am going to the dress-makers, sir," she said. "I believe they are about 300 invitations out."

The friends of Mrs. A. T. Parson are sorry to hear she has been quite ill for a week.

SHEDDIA.

[Progress is for sale in Shediac at A. Stone's store.]

Nov. 5.—How are the mighty fallen! Considering the wet state of the weather, it is said that there is a decided dryness apparent around town, caused by the last cruise of our gallant Scott Act Inspector and his detectives, who have, or think they have about dried up certain "springs" and "invigorating fountains" situated in different localities in our town.

Two of our sailor friends have again come back to visit us again. Mr. Albert Smith and Wm. Milne, (both first mates) are home visiting their homes. It is said that the surprise party given by the Rev. C. E. McKenzie at the Cape on Friday evening last, proved a grand success.

Mr. E. J. Cochrane, manager of the Peoples Bank of Halifax, who was obliged to leave for his home some weeks ago, through attack of fever, is reported to be recovering slowly but surely. In the meantime Mr. Clarke fills his position.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

TO THE EDITOR OF PROGRESS: (From Progress.)

"Hon." Chas. L. Richards Heard From.

"Hon." Charles L. Richards, once such a well known figure in the streets of St. John, is in Hebron, Nebraska, doing what he can in a legal way to build up the country. The "Hon." Chas. L. has evidently become a changed man since he entered the "wild and woolly" west. When in St. John it was said that he had an interest in a Canterbury street liquor saloon. Now he writes to the New York Times, the great prohibition organ, concerning the prohibition amendment to be voted on in Nebraska, in the following strain:

"I have no doubt that the closing of the saloons in Nebraska, if it can be accomplished, would tend to benefit the social, moral and financial condition of the people. I advise all to vote for the prohibition amendment."

Is this our own Charles?

You are sadly mistaken in your man. I was never within 1000 miles of St. John, N. B. The Chas. L. Richards you are after, I think, is living in Lincoln, this State. Unfortunately for myself his name is identical with mine. I have suffered already several times by my names being the same, but your article above is the "unkindest cut of all."

I presume you will do me the justice to state that you are mistaken. Send to Lincoln, Mo., and I feel sure you will hit the right man.

C. L. RICHARDS.

We do not blame Mr. Chas. L. Richards the second for his indignation at being mistaken for the only and original St. John Richards. Lincoln, Neb., however, is welcome to all she can get out of him. If Richards don't come out ahead in the end Lincoln is a remarkably shrewd and practical town. It is too bad that any decent man should have been so unfortunate as to be mistaken for the "only and original."

If he would avoid such inconvenience in future Mr. Richards the second had better give the Nebraska legislature a job and change his cognomen. In the meantime we are sorry for him.—PROGRESS.

NOUVELLES FRANCAISES.

Il y a maintenant a St. Jean une petite reunion Francaise qui s'occupe de la langue et de la litterature Francaises et il me semble que pareille reunion devrait etre remarquee.

Le nombre des personnes qui parlent le Francais ici a tellement augmente que nous sommes certaines que les lecteurs du PROGRESS seront bien contents d'apprendre qu'a l'avenir il y aura un compte rendu en Francais dans chaque numero de ce journal populaire.

Tout le monde connait bien maintenant l'ecole Ingres-Couturier qui est si bien etablie dans notre ville. Les professeurs de cette ecole qui ne reculent devant rien quant aux interets de leurs eleves sont en jeu, ces professeurs ont commence une serie de reunions qu'ils continueront pendant l'hiver.

Tous les eleves qui ont assiste aux reunions de l'hiver passe n'ont certainement pas oublie le profit et le plaisir qu'ils en ont retire. Le sujet traite par M. Ingres l'hiver passe a ete La France, son peuple et ses mœurs, M. Ingres est malheureusement parti a Toronto.

Ses collegues MM. Masson et Prat dirigeront ces soirées cet hiver et les eleves se reuniront tous les samedis soirs pour parler Francais et écouter les causeries des professeurs. Il va sans dire qu'a ces reunions on ne parle que le Francais, pas un mot d'anglais; car, s'il en echappe un seul qui soit entendu par les professeurs on sait ce que cela coûte, un gage est reclame immediatement. On ne peut pas s'imaginer avec quelle habileté ces messieurs saisissent tout son étranger a leurs oreilles Francaises. Et malheur a la personne qui est obligée de donner un gage, car ces gages: des bracelets, des bagues, etc., etant toujours d'une certaine valeur ne peuvent etre abandonnés par leurs possesseurs, et certes il faut les racheter, mais comment? Oh! c'est tres simple, il n'y a pas a choisir, c'est vrai, car on vous inflige une penitence, sans vous en laisser le choix. Mais qu'est le que-ce que c'est que chanter une romance ou un poeme Francais? Pas grand'chose, ça doute pour une eleve de l'ecole Ingres-Couturier. Mais s'il y a une difficulté elle s'évanouit devant le desir de rentrer en possession des objets donnees comme gages.

Le sujet qu'on va traiter aux reunions cet hiver est la litterature Francaise. C'est un sujet qui interesse beaucoup les eleves, quelques-uns ayant deja une certaine connaissance de cette belle litterature, d'autres la connaissant presque aussi bien que la leur.

On va meme jusqu'a dire qu'il y a des eleves qui peuvent reciter par coeur le Pledge de Racine par exemple. Il y en a, on le sait, qui peuvent reciter des passages tres longs d'Alphonse, d'Hernani, etc.

Tous les eleves n'étant pas encore rentres a l'ecole, les professeurs n'ont pas commence a traiter litterature. A la dernière reunion M. Masson a donne l'intrigue d'un drame-comedie qu'il va jouer, et M. Prat a parle aux eleves du canal de Panama. Pendant le mois de Novembre les reunions auront lieu chez Mlle. Jarvis, Elliott Row.

Rubber Goods.

Intelligent buyers always keep in view two points: the greatest variety, and the greatest experience. The first gives them choice of selection, and the second assures quality. A store that contains both, must be a good one to buy at. Messrs. Estey & Co., Rubber Goods, Prince Wm. street, keep such a store. They make a specialty of rubber goods, and the management has large experience. They have lately added new goods in all departments, to which they ask the attention of readers of PROGRESS.

TYPES OF THE TYPEWRITER GIRL.

Oh, here's to one type of the typewriter girl, Who comes to the office at ten, Whose bleached Psyche twist terminates in a curl, Whose thoughts are of marriage and men. She sits by the desk in a soft easy chair, And prays that no business may come, And reads Frenchy novels of love and despair, The while her jaw masticates gum.

And here's to her sister, whose dresses are plain, Who is practical, earnest and bright; Who honors her work, and would never disdain To labor from morning till night. The former fair dreamer is out of her sphere, And is rapidly fading away; While more of the latter are needed each year, For they are in business to stay.
