Mrs. M. G. Lane spent Tuesday in town.

Mr. Jack MacKee, of Moncton, spent Tuesday in town.

It is a long time since the walls of the Chignecto hall resounded with such music as that on Tuesday evening. The promenade concert under the management of the ladies of St. Paul's church, assisted by the Peters Orchestra, of Moncton, was a brilliant affair. The ladies have reason to be proud of the success of their entertainment, but when did anything ever fail where ladies had charge. At the

THREE OF A GOOD KIND

OF INSURANCE COMPANIES REPRESENTED BY C. E. L. JARVIS.

The Queen Insurance Company With Its Great Record—The Insurance Company of North America and Manufacturers' Accident.

Insurance has become a great business in St. John and almost every company of note in the world is represented by an agent. Among the greatest of them is the Queen Insurance Company, the first agency for which was established in this city in 1858, just 32 years ago. Twenty-four years of that time Mr. C. E. L. Jarvis has been the head of the agency and carried on the business with success and vigor. Since his appointment he has paid $1,164,804.76 record of the Queen in that disaster is most honorable. He paid every claim without question, and gave in addition a very generous sum in aid of the sufferers.

Among the other companies represented by Mr. C. E. L. Jarvis is the Insurance Company of North America which at one time had a marine branch here under Mr. Henry R. Ranney, who transacted a very large amount of business for it, as it was the favorite insurance company with New Brunswick shipowners, on account of its fair and liberal ways in the settlement of losses. The cash assets of this company January 1st, 1890, were $8,731,250.87 and its surplus, $2,399,783.06.

Mr. Jarvis is also the general agent of the Manufacturers Accident Insurance Co. of Toronto, with W. G. Starr as sub agent.

DURING THE EXHIBITION

are cordially invited to visit

A. O. SKINNER'S
Carpet Warerooms,
58 KING STREET.

Visitors to the Exhibition,

You have heard of Canada's National Song: "My Own Canadian Home." It is now played everywhere. It was chosen by the military to be sung at the great meeting of Riflemen on Surrey Common, England, accompanied by the band of the London Scottish regiment. It is played in New York by Gil-mour's famous band, and is to be played by the Royal British Grenadiers. This piece, words and music, you can get at

"SURPRISE" CORNER.

Look out for it. There are many surprises then for those visiting the Exhibition. A big surprise of $75.00. You can see it right there: this for somebody, and a lot of little surprises for everybody. Everyone who calls at "Surprise" Corner will go away satisfied, and many more than satisfied. Keep your eyes open and
