SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

summer and take charge of Mrs. Andre Cushing's household during her sojourn at South Bay.

Rev. John A. Clark, pastor of the Methodist church at Newcastle, arrived at the West End on Tuesday, and is the guest of his brother, Mr. James A. Clark.

Mrs. Arthur Calhoun, of Boston, is also with us, and I understand will spend the summer months here, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Ellis.

Mrs. Brown, of Halifax, who has been passing some time with her sister, Mrs. Robert Allan, Prince street, will not return home for some weeks.

Dr. James Steeves, assistant physician at the P. L. Asylum, Lancaster Heights, left on Thursday for a three week's trip to Niagara.

Mrs. Armstrong, who has been until lately, occupying the Jewett cottage, is with her two daughters residing at Mr. Andre Cushing's.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ferris, of Fairville, left on Monday for Boston, where they will reside for the future. On Saturday night the Kingsville Cornet Band serenaded them, and later on in the evening there was a very pleasant gathering in the school room of the Fairville Baptist church, during the course of which the pastor on behalf of the congregation, presented Mr. and Mrs. Ferris with a beautiful souvenir of their residence among them. Mr. and Mrs. Ferris will be much missed by their many friends to whom their departure was a great loss.

Mrs. J. O. Crisp, who has been enjoying a few weeks visit in Halifax, has returned home.

Miss Patterson is the guest of her friend, Miss Ella McDuffie.

Rev. O. G. Dobbs and Mrs. Dobbs left on Wednesday afternoon for their new home in Brockville, Ontario, taking with them many little remembrances of their three years residence at the West End.

The congregation of St. George's church presented Mr. Dobbs with a ebony gold headed cane, and Mrs. Dobbs with a silver water pitcher of very handsome design; it stands about eighteen inches high, and was accompanied by an address tastefully engraved on parchment paper, the work of Mr. Walter Fairweather, of the East End. The West End wishes Mr. and Mrs. Dobbs every happiness in their new home, and will look forward eagerly to an occasional visit by them to St. John.

Mrs. Mary Thompson, who has been quite ill, is now convalescent, but not yet able to venture out.

PETTIS MORTS.

FREDERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton at the book-store of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Hawthorne.]

JUNE 4.—There were a large number of strangers here on Thursday last to attend the convocation at the University. As the audience came down stairs sweet strains of music greeted their ears, coming from the terrace, where the Fredericton brass band was stationed. The large hall was beautifully decorated with Chinese lanterns, and in the center of the hall the beauty and chivalry of the Celestial city were enjoying the mazy waltz, followed by other dances which were kept up until midnight. The University itself presented a magnificent appearance, every window being illuminated with a number of small tapers.

Mr. L. C. Macnutt returned home last week from Philadelphia, where he left Mrs. Macnutt to remain a few weeks longer for the benefit of her health, in company with her mother and brother, Dr. and Mrs. Fletcher.

Mrs. Burton, of St. John spent last Thursday with friends in this city.

Sir Leonard Tilley was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Street while here to attend the convocation.

Mr. J. Douglas Hazen was in the city last week.

Prof. W. F. Stockley, of the University of New Brunswick, has gone to England and Ireland to spend his vacation.

Miss Lizzie Byrne, who has lately been attending as nurse at the Massachusetts General Hospital is spending her holidays at home in this city.

Mr. Charles Neale was here from Clinton on the Queen's birthday visiting his parents, and returned home on Tuesday.

Mrs. T. C. Hall left today for Port Arthur to visit her brother, Mr. G. L. Wetmore.

Mrs. E. H. Allen goes to Antigonish this week to visit her mother, Mrs. Gregory.

Mr. George H. Markwald, of New York, is here for his annual vacation, and receives the warm welcome of many friends. He is the guest of his brother-in-law, Major Markwald, and of Mrs. Markwald.

Judge Steadman is confined to his home by illness.

Mrs. Maxwell and her daughter, Miss Fannie were in St. John for a few days last week, visiting their friends in that city. Mrs. Maxwell was the guest of her son, Mr. Robert Maxwell, and Miss Fannie the guest of Miss Alice Stevens, Exmouth street.

Miss Alice Grosvenor, of Southampton, was in this city for a few days last week, the guest of Mrs. Edwin Vavasour.

Mrs. H. G. C. Ketchum, from Amherst, is visiting her friends in this city. Mr. Ketchum has gone to England on business.

Miss Laristean Bailey entertained a few of her young friends at her home last Wednesday evening, on which occasion a very pleasant little dance was indulged in.

Mr. Clarke, of Woodstock, spent a week with his friends in this city, and on return home, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Mamie, who has been attending the university.

Mr. Robert Poirer, son of the late Postmaster Poirer, died on Saturday at his home on King street, after a long illness.

The many friends of Mr. Charley Appleby, of Woodstock, and Mr. Charles Kinnear and Mr. Jas. Milligan, of St. John, were pleased to see them here last week.

Mr. J. R. Kerr, of St. Stephen, was also here last week.

MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the book-store of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main street.]

JUNE 4.—In spite of the cold and dampness and general hazy weather of last week we had a tennis party on Thursday, absolutely a tennis party, and a very enjoyable one too, though it was a little early in the season to place much dependence on that very uncertain personage, the clerk of the weather. Of course it was cold enough to make the players enjoy an occasional recess in the drawing room to get warm, after which they returned to the fray cheered and invigorated.

The party was given by Mrs. Samuel McKean and the Misses McKean at their charming home, "Ravenwood," and was distinctly an afternoon of entertainment, there being another party in prospect for the evening.

Tea was served at five o'clock, and by seven the guests had dispersed, the married and more fortunate portion to array themselves in gorgeous apparel for the evening festivities, and the single contingent to retire to their rooms to be ready for the appointed hour.

The evening party was given by Mrs. C. J. Butler, and was composed entirely of married people, who amply proved that being married did not necessarily imply any inability to enjoy themselves. Dancing was the principal amusement, though I believe there were a few card tables for the more gravely disposed of the guests.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Borden, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Boggs, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Weldon, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Boulton, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Estey, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. McKean, Mr. and Mrs. James Mowatt, Mrs. Weldon, and many others whose names I failed to obtain. Altogether it was a very delightful party.

Next in order of entertainments came a surprise party, in the shape of a crystal wedding given by the choir and congregation of the Methodist church to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wetmore on the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage. The party was a genuine surprise. The bride and bridegroom not receiving the least intimation of what was in store for them until a very short time before the hour appointed.

Shortly after eight o'clock Mr. Wetmore's peaceful home on Fleet street was a scene of wild commotion, as between sixty and seventy guests arrived almost simultaneously, and entered into immediate possession. The master and mistress were given to understand that they were the guests of the evening, and as such, to be entertained, instead of entertaining.

The ladies of the choir taking entire charge of everything, including supper. Mr. and Mrs. Wetmore have long been leading members of the Methodist choir, and the number and beauty of the presents they received testified to their popularity, not only among their fellow nightingales, but among the entire congregation of the Methodist church. Chief among the gifts were three very beautiful steel engravings, handsomely framed, which were the special offering of the choir.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Record, of Medford, Mass., are in town, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Record. I understand that Mrs. Record and her two little boys intend spending the summer in Moncton, which will be welcome news for her many friends in town.

The condition of Mr. Record, Sr., shows no improvement. He seems to be gradually losing strength, and his friends are very anxious about him.

Matrimony has broken out in our town again, and this time it has claimed as a willing victim Mr. Fred W. Parsons, secretary to Mr. Thomas Williams, treasurer of the I. C. R.

Mr. Parsons resigned his position here last week to accept a situation in the office of the Old Colony railroad at Boston. Before leaving for his new field of labor he secured a partner for life in Miss Ella Montrose of Lynn, Mass., to whom he was married last Thursday.

The ceremony took place in St. Paul's R. E. church, and was performed by the Rev. W. W. Quicke, pastor, and Mr. and Mrs. Parsons left for Boston immediately afterwards. Somehow, it seems to me, that the I. C. R. clerks are addicted to getting married.

Parsons' Pills

These pills were a wonderful discovery. Unlike any others. One Pill a Dose. Children take them easily. The most delicate women use them. In fact all ladies can obtain very great benefit from the use of Parsons' Pills. One box sent post-paid for 25 cts., or five boxes for $1 in stamps. 30 Pills in every box. We pay duty to Canada.

The circular around each box explains the symptoms. Also how to cure a great variety of diseases. This information alone is worth ten times the cost. A handsome illustrated pamphlet sent free on application. Send for it. Dr. J. C. Parsons &amp; Co., 22 Custom House Street, Boston, Mass. "Best Liver Pill Known."

Make New Rich Blood!

Speaking of the I. C. R. reminds me that the clerks have at last succeeded in gaining the concession they have been asking for such a long time—a half holiday on Saturday. It really amounts to nearly the same number of working hours, only that instead of going home to dinner at twelve o'clock and returning to work at half past one, they will fill three, they now work right on till one, when they take a dinner of just half an hour, and the new rule went into effect last Saturday and enabled a large amount of Moncton's bone and sinew to "take in" the base ball match.

Miss Harris returned last week from Halifax where she has been paying a short visit to friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weldon, late of New York, New York, are in town, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon, of Moncton, are in town visiting their relatives.

Mr. Doran, of the late firm of Doran, Wright &amp; Co., and Mrs. Doran, are also in town, the guests of Mrs. Weldon, of Main street.

A number of the ladies interested in the hospital scheme intend giving an entertainment in aid of the hospital fund some time this month. They hold a meeting to consider ways and means tonight at the residence of Mrs. J. L. Miller.

By the way, what has become of the Amateur Dramatic club? About this time last year they gave a splendid entertainment. Has the surplus of professional talent discouraged them? If not they might help in aid of the hospital.

The military camp will be held in Moncton this year. The militia will go into camp about the 30th of this month, and then a gay time may be expected, and I think it would be an excellent idea to have the entertainment then. Think of the prestige that the red coats would impart to it—not to speak of the cash!

Mr. R. J. Gilbert, of Dorchester, paid a short visit to Moncton on Friday.

Miss Leforgue, of Charlottetown, was in town last week visiting her sister Mrs. George McSweney.

Mr. Lewis Carvill, of Charlottetown, was in town on Friday.

The many friends of the Misses Maggie and Lucy Whitney are glad to welcome them home again for their summer vacation, from Sackville academy.

We expect another of our young ladies home this week, and we shall be delighted to have her with us again. Miss Milliken who has been absent for nearly a year, visiting her brother at Port Huron, New York, is expected back today, and if it were not that she is coming by train I would soar into poetry and say that I trusted favoring breezes would huff her safely to shore, but it is so hard to twine flowers of rhetoric around a railway train.

The Rev. Byron Borden, principal of Sackville Ladies' Academy, spent last Sunday in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Borden.

Miss Alice Bent, at San Jose, California, and Miss Amelia Trueman, of Sackville, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Prince at their home on Church street.

Miss Frances Willard, the lecturer, and her secretary, Miss Gordon, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Kinson at their charming Queen Ann cottage on Botsford street.
