Wrought Iron Oven Range
FOR ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL.

You can cook for 100 persons or more with ease.
Its operation is perfect, and it is guaranteed to be a quick and even baker, more so than either wrought or cast iron ranges of ordinary construction.
Having a large oven on each side of the firebox, it has advantages not possessed by single oven ranges, as both meats and pastry can be cooked at the same time without detriment to either. For that class of trade that demands the best, it at once commends itself, and will be appreciated by the trade for which it is intended.

This magnificent range has been specially made to meet a long felt want, as one which is suitable for large families, restaurants, hotels, boarding schools, hospitals, etc.

What SCHOFFIELD & CO. say: We have much pleasure in stating that the Caligraph purchased from you has been in constant use in our office for several years, and is still in good order. We consider it invaluable as a time-saver.

REV. C. G. McCULLY writes: A point of special value in the Caligraph, resulting from the absence of shifting keys, is the readiness with which original composition may be executed. From my experience, and that of many personal friends using the Caligraph, composition comes to be executed with greater readiness than with the pen. So great do I deem its utility that I would purchase a machine every year rather than be without it.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Calais, Etc.

As is usual in summer St. John is waking up from its lethargy, and society people are giving and receiving invitations daily, both to weddings, at homes, and evening parties.

Yesterday, Friday, Mrs. Charles Holden, Charlotte street, gave a very large At Home to her lady friends, an account of which, I will endeavor to give next week.

Cards of invitation have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn, for the marriage reception of their eldest daughter, Miss Maggie Dunn, to John P. Macintyre which takes place at their residence, Willowhurst, on Tuesday evening next. A large number of guests expected to be present and are looking forward to it with much interest.

Another event for which the young people especially are on the qui vive, is a large dance to be given by Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson, Rothesay, on Friday next, and which promises to be a very enjoyable affair. The invitations are from 8 till 2 o'clock. At the latter hour a special train will bring the guests home.

Bay Shore picnics have commenced already, though the weather has been scarcely warm enough to enjoy them thoroughly. Two quite large gatherings met there last Tuesday and had tea on the beach.

The Church of England synod intend holding their meetings in St. John this year, and will commence on the 1st of July. The ladies association of the Church of England Institute, with their usual thoughtfulness, are making arrangements to provide a lunch daily to the clergy and lay delegates who attend the synod. The meetings will take place in the large upper room of Trinity church school house, and the luncheon will be served in the lower rooms.

Mrs. Le Strange is the name of Mrs. de Soyres' sister who is visiting St. John, not Miss de Soyres, as I erroneously mentioned last week.

I hear Mr. Alfred Morrissey is the proud father of a son and heir.

Sheriff and Mrs. Harding are visiting Boston and New York.

Mr. J. D. Shatford and family went to Digby, N. S., yesterday, to spend some weeks.

Mr. Stanley L. Ritchey, of Chicago, has joined Mrs. Ritchey here, and will spend a week or two in St. John.

Mr. Charles A. Macdonald left for New York the first of the week, on a business trip.

Mrs. Thomas S. Adams and Miss Fellows went to Digby on Tuesday last to spend a week.

Mrs. Bayard returned home by steamer Parisian from England, last Saturday, where she has spent the last few months.

Mr. Simon Jones, accompanied by his son, Mr. Fred Jones, are on a fishing excursion up north.

Mrs. E. T. Symonds and family, are visiting Nova Scotia, where they will remain some weeks.

Mrs. G. Chandler, of Dorchester, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robinson, Broad street.

Mr. George F. Smith and Mr. W. H. Thorne left on Wednesday last on a fishing trip.

Miss Wheeler has returned from Amherst, where she has been visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Collier and family have gone to Rothesay for the summer months.

Mrs. Douglas Hazen and family are visiting Mrs. Tibbits at Fredericton.

Mr. Murray Warner, of Chicago, is spending his holidays with his father in St. John.

Mr. George McLeod and bride are expected home today. They will reside on Orange street.

The reception held by Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McLeod at their residence, King street, east, on Wednesday afternoon was a most enjoyable affair to all who had the pleasure of attending. Extensive alterations have been made in the interior decoration of the house since last season, and the apartments are now most tasteful in their appearance and surroundings.

In the drawing rooms the prevailing colors are coffee and gobeelin blue, and the effect was heightened very much by the judicious arrangement of natural flowers. The table was spread in the room of the second floor, the prevailing color of which is yellow, and on this occasion roses and other flowers of that shade were made very effective as accessories. Music was furnished by Harrison's orchestra during the afternoon.

About 150 guests were present, among whom were:

Sir Leonard and Lady Tilley, Messrs. Leonard and Herbert Tilley, Dr. and the Misses Bayard, Dr. and Mrs. Barker, Judge and Mrs. Palmer, Dr. and Mrs. Inchee, Dr. Mrs. and Miss Walker, Rev. J. and Mrs. de Soyres, Mrs. L. Strange, Rev. W. O. and Mrs. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. DeWolf Spurr, Mrs. A. P. Holth, Mr. Keenan, Mr. G. G. Keator, Mrs. and Miss Watters, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mr. and Miss Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Hazen, Dr. and Mrs. Holden, Mrs. C. Dodds, Mrs. H. D. Froop, Miss Troop, Mrs. John Boyd, Miss Wheeler, Mrs. G. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Macdonald, Mrs. James Murray and Miss Murray, Miss McLean, Miss Eaton, Mrs. J. R. Armstrong, Mrs. D. McLeilan, Mrs. and the Misses McMillan, Mrs. Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Skinner, Miss Black, Mr. J. Miller.

The friends of Miss Lillian Johnstone will be pleased to hear that she is able to be out again, having fully recovered from the effects of her late accident.

Dr. H. R. Storor, of Newport, R. I., is visiting St. John, accompanied by his wife and daughter.

A Boston despatch to the New York Herald speaks warmly of the ability of Miss Helen Leach Reed, the St. John lady who has been so successful at Harvard this year. The particulars as given will be interesting to her friends.

Boston, Mass., June 14, 1890.—The co-educationalists have the very best reasons for exultation over the triumph which one of the Annex girls has just won at Harvard. The Sargent prize, which has just been captured by Miss Helen Leach Reed, of Boston, from sixteen male competitors, is a prize so difficult of attainment that it has rarely if ever before been awarded in its entirety. Certainly it was not in either of the last four years. In several competitions no poems of even average merit have been presented.

Horace's famous "Invitation to Mæneas" is not always selected for competitors to wrestle with, but it would be difficult to set before a Latin student a more difficult task than that which Miss Reed's brilliant poem in English verse, and a number of the committee said today that Miss Reed submitted two translations, both metrical but of widely differing verse, of which one was awarded the prize.

The ode (No. 29 of Horace's third book) is the celebrated one beginning "Tyrhena regum progenies tibi." Dryden, Bulwer and others have rendered into English verse its description of the joys of summer and its analogy between the current of a river and the mutability of human affairs.

The committee which awarded the prize consisted of Garner N. Lane, vice-president of the Union Pacific Railroad; S. Lophor, Thomdike, a well known Boston lawyer, and Dr. M. H. Morgan, of the classical department.

The joy out at the annex, is certainly not lessened by the fact that the next catalogue of the University will contain the name of a woman—a recognition of the sex and also of the standing of the annex in heretofore accorded. Indeed it is only within three years that such mention has been made possible, for the Sargent prize (whose donor is J. G. Sargent, of the class of '30 was prior to '87 open only to students of the University proper.

The winner of the coveted honor, who is the daughter of a Boston physician, is a member of the graduating class of the annex. She has during her course there done fully as much work as is done by a candidate for the Bachelor's degree, and her teachers are confident that her future rank in literature will be bright.

Miss Reed's ventures in literature have been heretofore in the line of newspaper writing, and it is altogether probable that this will be her vocation. Her poetic debut was made when she graduated from the Cambridge High School in 1882. She compiled a little book which was sold to aid the Cambridge hospital. Longfellow and Howells were among the contributors, and the compiler herself added a poem—anonymous, however.

Mrs. Stetson, of Lancaster Heights, who has been, owing to ill health, spending some months in New York, left, I understand, on Wednesday morning on a visit to her new home, to arrive on Saturday, or the first of the week. Mrs. Stetson's friends will be much pleased to have her with them again, and hear of her improved health.

Mr. Edwin L. Brittain, of the finance department, Ottawa, is spending his holidays with his father, Mr. S. L. Brittain.

Mr. Peters is looking forward to a visit, next month, from her son, Mr. Douglas Peters, who is doing business in California. As Mr. Peters' family and friends have not seen him for three years, he will receive a hearty welcome from all.

Miss Helen Morrison, accompanied by her sister, Miss Isabel Morrison, is visiting in New York. Miss Morrison is slowly recovering from her recent severe illness.

The concert in connection with the opening of the new hall of St. Rose's church, Fairville, on Tuesday night, was largely attended. The orchestra, under the direction of its able leader, rendered some very pretty selections, which with choruses and tableaux, afforded much interest. The quartette, "Come where the lilies bloom," was lovely, and was sung by Messrs. Conner and Gillis, and the Misses MacFarlane.

Rev. J. H. Rice, who has been for some time pastor of the Methodist church at Fairville, is to leave in a few weeks for his new home at St. Andrews, when he will take charge of the Methodist church there. Rev. W. W. Lodge will fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Rice's removal from Fairville. Friends Mrs.

The Very Rev. M. Oates, rector of St. Peter's church, left last Thursday evening for a new field of labor in Quebec. Father Oates has been stationed here for the past six years. During the past few days hundreds of people of all denominations, including many prominent city officials, called to bid the rev. gentleman good bye. During his stay here he made many friends on all sides, all of whom will regret his departure. Before leaving he was presented with an address and handsome present.

Miss Jessie Hilyard and some of her juvenile companions have engaged the valuable services of Miss Maud Seely, to instruct them in the terpsichorean art. The class is held weekly at the residence of Mrs. F. Hilyard.
