Gordon, were the guests of Mrs. A. F. Randolph, during their stay in this city.

Mr. Fred Emerson, was visiting friends in this city last week.

Miss Porter, daughter of the late Rev. Mr. Porter, and teacher in the Charlotte Street school, has resigned her position.

Mr. A. G. Beckwith, has returned from his visit to Restigouche.

Dr. Bridges, of the University, has gone to St.
John to attend the Matriculation examination at the Victoria school.

Rev. A. D. McCully is the guest of Mr. and Mrs.
H. Chestnut, Waterloo Row.

A very interesting and select wedding took place at Keswick Ridge, eleven miles from the city, on Friday. The day was charming, with enough wind to temper the heat and keep the flag on the Rectory flagstaff in motion.

The ceremony was performed in All Saints' church which was decorated with flowers and ferns for the occasion, by the Rev. Wm. Leff McKell, father of the bride, assisted by Rev. Mr. Jaffey, of St. John.

The Rev. Finlay Alexander, sub-dean of the Cathedral, having been detained on the road arrived too late to take part in the ceremony. The groom—Mr.
D. D. Storehouse, M. D., of McGill college, Montreal—was sustained on the right by Mr. Norman Zwickler, of Lunenburg, N. S., and by Cecil R. and John Medley McKell, brothers of the bride. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. Albert McKell, was attired in cream colored cashmere with train; white silk tulle trimmed with diamonds, veil and orange blossoms, the gift of her aunt in Boston, Mass. Ornaments, gold brooch with diamonds and ruby setting, the gift of the bride. The bride's bouquet of the choicest hot-house flowers was from Bebbington's conservatory.

The brides three sisters, who acted in the capacity of bridesmaids, wore pink Danish cloth, with pink silk trimmings and veils; ornaments, silver, the gift of the groom.

After service the company returned to the wedding breakfast at the rectory. Rev. F. Alexander in a neat speech proposed the health of bride and groom, to which the latter responded by a few words of thanks. The bridesmaids as the next, Mr. Norman Zwickler replied.

The newly married couple left by coach to catch the train at Fredericton for St. John, en route to Boston.

DORCHESTER.

[Progress is for sale in Dorchester at George M.
Fairweather's store.]

JUNE 18.—Miss Clara Barnes, who has been staying in Fredericton for some months with Mrs. F. H.
Riordan, returned to Dorchester last week.

Mr. E. Girouard, barrister, of Moncton, spent several days in Dorchester last week engaged in court.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Pascoe, formerly of Dorchester, but now living in Shediac, spent a few days here last week, the guests of Mrs. Pascoe's sister, Mrs.
Thomas Kilgour.

Mr. H. A. Palmer narrowly escaped serious injury last Wednesday while attempting to jump from a rapidly moving train. He was thrown violently into a cattle-yard and received a severe shaking up, in addition to being badly cut and scratched by coming in contact with a barbed wire fence.

Mrs. Hanington, of St. John, spent Thursday in Dorchester, the guest of Mrs. E. V. Godfrey.

Mrs. George W. Chandler went to St. John last Wednesday, where she will remain for a week.

The Misses Chapman spent a few days in St. John last week, returning to Dorchester on Saturday.

Mr. R. C. Tait, of Shediac, spent Thursday in Dorchester.

Hon. D. L. Hanington went to Shediac on Friday, returning to Dorchester on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. W. Palmer and Mrs. M. B. Palmer, who have been spending the last six weeks in New York, returned to Dorchester on Saturday delighted with their visit.

Sister Ivaline, formerly Miss Iva Chandler, of Dorchester, spent a week last week, together with her father, Dr. A. H. Chandler, now of Moncton. Sister Ivaline has since returned to her work in Boston.

Mr. F. W. Emerson, barrister, of Pettoicodoc, was in Dorchester on Thursday and Friday, occupied in court.

Mrs. Macnamara, of St. John, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Chandler.

Miss Edith Lowerson, of Amherst, is in Dorchester, the guest of Miss Sarah Godfrey.

Mr. R. B. Smith, barrister, of Moncton, spent a day or two in Dorchester last week, on professional business.

Mr. S. Edgar Wilson spent Friday in Moncton.

Mr. F. A. McCully, barrister, spent Friday here on legal business.

Rev. J. R. Campbell returned on Friday from his visit to St. John. He goes to Sussex today on church business.

Miss F. Chandler returned on Monday from St.
John, where she has been visiting for a fortnight.

Mr. Harvey Atkinson, of Moncton, is in town today.

Mr. M. G. Leed is in Moncton to-day on professional business.

Mr. R. W. Hewson spent Sunday here.

Messrs. J. H. Hickman, G. F. Wallace, Fred King and Barron Chandler went to Moncton today.

BATHURST.

[Progress is for sale in Bathurst at A. C. Smith & Co's store.]

JUNE 18.—Mr. Frazer Napier, a Bathurst boy who has been for some time at Ottawa, in the employ of the New Brunswick Trading company, has accepted a position as assistant bookkeeper in the office of Messrs. K. F. Burns & Co. here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Howell have gone to Newcastle, on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hildebrande.

Mr. Harrie J. Gammon, of Moncton, made one of his rare, but much enjoyed (by his friends), visits to Bathurst last week.

Miss Minnie Burns is entertaining her friend, Miss McDougall, for a few days.

Bathurst people cannot surely complain now of lack of amusements, for we are being unusually favored in that line this season. Harry Lindley's company played Dorcas, and Little Lord Fauntleroy to crowded houses this week, and tonight Gorton's Minstrels will contribute to the entertainment of the music lovers among us. Lindley's company will return next week, playing here for four nights, and donating the proceeds of two entertainments, one to the Episcopal and one to the R. C. Church.

Miss Smith, Miss Dot Meahan's friend, has returned home.

Miss Annie Baldwin is seriously ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. P. H. Melvin. TOM BROWN.

WOODSTOCK, N. B.

[Progress is for sale in Woodstock at Everett's Bookstore.]

The most successful musical entertainment our music loving people have enjoyed for some time was the Lett's benefit concert on Thursday evening last.
Our people are proud of our musical talent, and this concert gave ample proof that the claim is well founded.

Miss M. B. Sharp's rendering of the Aria, Una Voca, Patti's favorite, showed her vocal accomplish-to good advantage. She is a pupil of the famous Patton, and is a credit to even so eminent a master.

Miss Walker, one of her New York students, who has come to Woodstock to continue her studies under Miss Sharp, exhibits skill on the piano quite remarkable for an amateur.

The encores were frequent and hearty, but owing to the length of the programme only open responses were given.

It was generally admitted that not one appeared to disadvantage.

The following is the programme:

1. Piano Duet, "Overture to Tancrède".....Rossini
2. Song, "Two Marionettes".....Cooke
3. Aria, "Una Voca poco fa".....Barber of Seville
4. Song, "The Maid of the Mill".....Rossini
5. Song, "Pauline".....Mazurka
6. Song, "I'll Wait till the Clouds roll by".....Palmer
7. Reading—Dr. Smith.....
8. Song, "The Maid of the Mill".....Rossini
9. Song, "Three Fishers".....Hullah
10. Reading—Mrs. Keith.....
11. Song, "Within a Mile of Edinboro' Town".....
12. Banjo Solo, a "Pavane".....
13. Song, "Queen of the Night".....Mrs. Shuman Torg
14. Song, "Killaloo".....
15. Song, "In Old Madrid".....Trotter
16. Piano Solo, a "Pasquade".....Guthrie
17. Song, "The Song I'll Never Forget".....Jules Jordan

19. Song, "I'm the Merry Postilion".....Franz Abt 20. Duo, "Life's Dream is Over".....

AMHERST, N. S.

[Progress is for sale in Amherst on the streets, by George Douglas.]

JUNE 18.—It goes without saying that anything the engineers undertake is sure of success, and the party given by them on Friday evening last is not an exception to the rule; they dispensed their generous hospitality in an unimpaired manner, and everything passed off most pleasantly. The spacious ballroom—must be sixty feet long by forty wide—presented a gay and brilliant scene, with its electric light, tasteful decorations, and highly polished floor, filled with ladies and gentlemen, who tripped the light fantastic toe, in time to the most delightful music; piano, violin, and cornet; the performers being from Halifax. Supper was served about midnight and was perfect in every detail.

Mrs. Kelsie, wife of the resident engineer, very kindly presided for the bachelor hosts. She wore a charming gown of white silk and an elegant beaded front, and exquisite corsage bouquet. I can not mention all the toilets, for all were beautiful, but there were a few which attracted my masculine taste.

Miss Nellie Moore, in white muslin, with lilies of the valley.

Miss Sutherland, Truro, in Cavender silk, with white spotted net overdress, corsage bouquet.

Miss Dunlap, scarlet moiré silk, black overdress, ribbons and flowers.

Miss Hill, in cream tulle's veiling, with apple blossoms.

Many of the ladies had corsage bouquets of exquisite hot-house flowers.

After a visit of nearly two years in town, Miss Hill left on Tuesday for her home in New West-minister, B. C. She is accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. N. Curry, who intends to remain on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Hill, until October.

Miss Sutherland, who has been visiting her friends Mrs. and Miss Dunlap for three weeks, returned to her home in Truro on Saturday.

Dr. R. and Mrs. Chipman, of Boston, have been in town, the guests of the mayor and Mrs. T. Dunlap, a sister of the doctor.

Mr. Murray Botford, who was married last week, in Kentville, to Miss Chipman, was at one time employed in the branch of the New Brunswick bank, and is a brother of Mrs. Courtney Bliss. The bride is a niece of Mrs. T. Dunlap.

The mysterious departure of Mr. Mowatt, cashier of the N. S. bank, last week, caused some conjecture among his friends as to his mission. However, an interesting item in the papers has revealed the mystery. He was married in St. Stephen to Miss Annie Clark, a popular young lady of that town.

Judge and Mrs. Townshend, child and nurse are in town. V. E. Harris and Mr. Melley Townshend were in Halifax last week attending the Grand Lodge, F. & A. M.

Miss Milner, of Sackville, spent a day in town last week, with her sister, Mrs. Ketchum.

Mrs. Silas Purdy left last Wednesday, intending to spend the summer in Charlottetown, P. E. I.

The marriage took place in Halifax, on the 18th inst., of Miss Helen, eldest daughter of Dr. H. H.
Read, of that city, to Mr. Andrew Taylor, of Messrs.
Ritter & Pugsley, of this town. The bride wore a charming gown of white satin, orange blossoms and veil. She was attended by Miss Mary McGregor and her two little sisters. The groom was supported by Mr. Laird, formerly of this place. Mr.
which include Charlottetown, where the groom's friends reside.

Mr. Miller has been making regular visits to Sackville for some months, and the result is his marriage to Miss Bell, a charming young lady of that town. I expect to chronicle more marriages soon.

Rev. Mr. Hearty left for Yarmouth this week to attend the Conference. He has been requested to take charge of the Methodist church in that town this year, and will probably accept the position.

Mr. Froggart, lately from England, presided at the organ in Christ church, on Sunday last.

Mrs. James Tveddie returned this week to her home at Londonderry Mines.

Rev. S. McCully Black, who has been at the Colonial Springs for the benefit of his health, for a few months, is now in town.

WOMEN BILL COLLECTORS.

A New Occupation for Girls and One that They Enjoy.

Bill collecting is a new job for the women of this town. One of them came in to see a Broadway business man last Friday and telling about it he said: "I had heard that there were a few female collectors in New York, but I had never met with one. It is a good idea, it seems to me. If a man had presented that bill I would have delayed paying for a few days, until I had made my own collections. But she came at me in such a quiet, business like way that I had nothing to say, and went right up to the desk and drew a check for the amount."

One of these collectors, an attractive young woman, talked freely of her occupation. "I enjoy collecting bills very much," she said. "I have plenty of outdoor exercise and the experience of meeting new people every day is pleasing."

"Are you confined exclusively to business houses?"

"Oh, no, I go to the residence parts of the city. There I have a little amusement, which I quietly enjoy. The servants meet ask at the door with silver card servers and ask for my card to take up to the lady of the house. This was at first somewhat embarrassing and I resorted to business cards, but that plan did not work well. Word would usually be sent down to call again.
I had to drop that programme, you see.
Now, when the servant asks my name I say no matter, or something of the kind, and I usually get to see the person I want to find. Often the lady of the house thinks an old friend has called and has a surprise in store for her. She rushes into the room, where I wait patiently with a face beaming with expectant delight. Her disappointment when I make known my business and present my bill is great."

"Sometimes the lady, supposing that I am making a call, sends word that she will be down presently and then sets about making elaborate preparation for her guest.
I have waited twenty minutes or more in this way."

"Are you successful among business men?"

"Business men nearly always pay with promptness. Occasionally I meet a crank, but the downright kickers are hard to find."

The fair collector said that she had been accustomed to bookkeeping. On throwing up a situation she looked around for something else. The opportunity to collect bills happened to present itself, she took it as an experiment, thinking that something better would follow, but she was delighted with her new business and did not mean to leave it."

"Do you collect old accounts?" she was asked.

"Yes. I have collected bills that have been running for a long time. Nearly always I am pleasantly and cordially received, even in these cases. Seldom do I go more than twice to collect a bill. The firm that employs me says it is like doing a cash business."—N. Y. Press.

Sarcasm.

Billy and Johnny were playing pitch and toss with a lemon over a cistern.

"What are you doing, boys?" asked the minister.

"Makin' Sunday-school lemonade," said Billy.

And both boys laughed so heartily that they got no merit cards for a month.—N.
Y. Sun.

A Retort in Anger.

"You needn't talk about keeping one's word," said a husband to his wife during a slight misunderstanding: "when I first asked you to marry me you declared you wouldn't marry the best man in the world."

"Well, I didn't," snapped the wife.—N.
Y. Sun.

Heavy, Waterproof Cake.

"Oh, mamma, won't you, please, give me a piece of that cake?"

"No, my dear; it will make you sick."

"I don't want to eat it; I only want to make some sinkers for my fishline."—Lippincott's.
