SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Kerr left on Thursday to spend the winter in Sussex.
Miss Des Brisay, of Bathurst, has been in Dorchester since last Wednesday, visiting Miss Hanington. She returns to Bathurst tomorrow.
Mrs. Lister, who has been visiting Mrs. Hanington for the past three weeks, returned to her home in Fredericton.

Mr. Barron Chandler went to Moncton on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with his sister, Mrs. H.
W. Hewson. He returned home on Friday.

Invitations have been distributed here for a grand ball in Sackville on Thursday, given by a number of young men of the place. The names of the committee are sufficient guarantee that everything possible will be done for the enjoyment of strangers, though I am sorry to say the indications at present point to only a very small attendance from Dorchester. However, Sackville must not be angry with us on that account, for several reasons. In the first place, this is our off season in every respect, and not a very favourable time for attending places, for the roads are dreadful, and the nights dark and cold, and uninviting to such expeditions. In the second place, there are almost no party goers left in Dorchester now, so greatly is our population diminished.
Were it July, when our summer visitors are here, or even Christmas time, the Dorchester contingent would doubtless be trebled or quadrupled. Sackville people have always turned out nobly at our balls, and deserve the same treatment from us.
But they will understand how it is, and not blame Dorchester people for what they cannot do to help or prevent, but rather pity us on Thursday in being deprived of the enjoyment which would otherwise be ours.

Mr. Dalziel, who for years was accountant in the in the Merchants' bank here, but who now occupies a similar position at the Moncton branch, spent Thanksgiving day with friends in Dorchester.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Percival Kinder was christened on Thursday morning at Trinity church, receiving the name of Stanley Geoffrey.

Miss Edith Wilbur, who has been spending some months with friends in Woodstock and Fredericton, has returned to her home in Dorchester.

Miss Scobie Robinson went to Sackville on Monday to visit her sister Mrs. J. F. Allison.

Dorchester friends of Mr. Thos. Henry Gilbert, now of Gagetown, were pleased to hear of his marriage last week to Miss Curry, of Gagetown. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert passed through Dorchester on Friday on their way to Halifax, and it is said they will spend a few days at Mr. Gilbert's old home here on their way back to Gagetown.

Miss McKenney, of Dorchester, is visiting her friend, Miss Edith Wilbur.

Miss Hay is in Amherst, making a short visit to friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chandler went to Moncton on Saturday, to spend a few days with their daughter, Mrs. R. W. Hewson, returning to Dorchester today.

I am glad to say that Miss Georgie Godfrey, who has been so very ill with typhoid fever, is now so much improved that she has been able to sit up for a few minutes, and Dr. Teed, who has been attending her, looks for her complete recovery within a short time.

Dr. Church's familiar face was seen in Dorchester on Tuesday, and was as welcome as sunshine after rain. He comes down from Moncton quite frequently in response to calls from his former patients, who are loath to give him up.

Mrs. Dixon, of Sackville, spent Sunday in Dorchester, visiting Mrs. Hickman.

Mr. George McKay, formerly of Dorchester, but now of Boston, has been spending a few days here, together with his friend, Colonel Wolcott, on their way back from a shooting trip to the North Shore. They were banqueted last night at the Dorchester House by a number of Mr. McKay's old friends. About twenty guests were present, and spent a merry evening together, as in former days.

Mr. J. H. Hickman went to Amherst on Monday, to spend a few days with his sister, Mrs. Douglas.

Mrs. Wm. Weldon, of Moncton, spent Sunday in Dorchester, returning to Moncton on Monday.

ST. STEPHEN.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen at the bookstores of C. H. Smith & Co., and G. S. Wall and H.
M. Webber.]

Nov. 12.—Miss Mary Gove, of St. Andrews, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Hazen Grimmer, during the past week.

Judge Stevens has recovered from his recent illness, and is able to be out again.

Rev. V. C. Goucher, who has been away on a short vacation, returned home last week.

Mr. Colin McNichol has gone to Eastport, where he has taken an office, and will practice law.

Miss Alice Topping has gone South to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ninian Hannah, with their family, have gone to Calais to reside during the winter months, with Mrs. Topping, Mrs. Hannah's mother.

Mr. E. B. Harvey, of Calais, is travelling in the Southern States with a party of gentlemen friends.

The latest "fad" in parties here is a "pigs' feet" party. There was one given a few evenings ago at the residence of one of our prominent citizens. I hear it was intensely amusing, and there is to be another very shortly, to which dozens are longing for an invitation.

A number of Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Brown's friends from here gave them a genuine surprise party at their residence, German street, Calais, on Thursday evening. About 25 guests were present.

There has been a perfect outbreak of engagements during the past month, and there are whispers of a fashionable wedding to take place early in December.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Porter and Miss Sara Porter left this morning to spend several weeks in Boston.

Mrs. S. B. Thompson left on Thursday for Ban-stead, N. H., where she will spend several weeks, the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. Warland.

Mrs. J. A. Grimmer and Mrs. Gentry have returned home after a fortnight pleasantly spent in St.
Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Young, of Calais, have gone to Florida, and will spend the winter in Jacksonville.

Mr. Allan Barbour, of St. John, spent several days in town last week, the guest of his cousin, Mr.
Frank E. Grimmer.

Miss Prue Wood, of Canning, N. S., is visiting for a few weeks her friend, Miss Noe Clarke.

Rev. G. S. Newham went to St. John yesterday to remain until Friday.

Mr. Ralph Wood arrived here on Saturday with his bride, and have taken up their residence in Calais.

The drive whilst party which meets every Thursday evening of this week on this week, the male members of the club to attend the concert given by Miss Sharp, in the St. Croix hall, Calais, last evening. I believe the club will meet next week at the residence of Mrs. Henry Todd.

Speaking of Miss Sharp's concert, it was very enjoyable and deserved a better house. The audience, I regret to say, was small, and the concert given by St. Stephen people, friends of Miss Sharp, who is a great favorite in musical circles, her fine singing being much admired. She has several times most kindly sung for charitable and church entertainments here. I do not think there were more than a dozen of the elite of Calais at the concert. I hear it was not generally known, and much regret has been expressed that it happened, so many would have liked to have heard Mr. Neville's violin playing, and the duet by Miss Sharp and Miss Gannoy, "O Wert Thou in the Caid Blast."

WOODSTOCK.

[Progress is for sale in Woodstock at Everett's Bookstore.]

Nov. 12.—Probably one of the most successful social events of the season, thus far, was the reception at the new and cosy residence of Mr. and Mrs.
Wendell P. Jones. Beauty and fashion, in so far as Woodstock could demonstrate, were in full array.
All the costumes were very fine, while some were said to be marvels in their line. Although the large number present under the dancing somewhat crowded, everyone thoroughly enjoyed the occasion. All voted Mr. and Mrs. Jones model entertainers, and wish them long years of happiness in their new home.

A whilst club, of only "the select," has been formed, and meets Tuesday evenings.

The X L club, composed of young ladies and gentlemen, has very pleasant evenings every Tuesday. Dancing, snowshoeing and such like are to be the programme for the winter.

Woodstock's "four hundred" has lately been quite convulsed, the throes evidently emanating from some trivial misunderstanding between the solid leaders. "War to the knife" has been proclaimed, and the air is thick with mutual re-proaches. Upon this the new whilst club has been formed, and "hated rivals" has not made known whether to organize something counter or enjoy "odium cum dignitate" by the comfortable house fireside, letting others follow other leaderships, if the record is consonant with their tastes.

A number of events are on the cards for the coming season, which, with propitious weather, will make the winter here quite enjoyable; but of all which more.

SHEDIA.

[Progress is for sale in Shediac at A. Stone's store.]

Nov. 12.—We are all awaiting with anxious expectancy for several parties which will come off in the near future, and it is also expected that the marimonial epidemic will strike this sea-board town ere 1890 has run its course.

last week, and Mr. and Mrs. Kinnear bade adieu to Shediac on Monday of this week.

We are glad to welcome Mr. E. J. Cochran back again, after a long illness at his home in New Port.

Mr. Clarence Purdy was visiting in town this week. He is another one of our young men who have been laid up through sickness.

Mr. S. Kerr departed for St. John on Thursday.
Mrs. Robert Jardine, of St. John, is still in town, at her father's residence.

Mr. J. Arlington Cooke will deliver two lectures, (illustrated), next week, in Tait's hall, one is entitled, "To and Fro in the Sunny South."

One of our promising and young professional men and one of our young ladies are going to join the order of Benedicts some time next month, if rumor tells truth. It is said they have selected their residence, and active preparations are being made for the event.

Miss Isabel Smith is still away, but I believe she is on her way home at present.

A highly successful party was given by Mrs.
Albert Smith, at the residence of Mrs. Newman, on Sackville street. The guests numbered about 20, and under the careful thoughtfulness of their genial host, they enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

We were the most jovial feeling that the happy party separated at 2 o'clock, a. m. Among the guests I noticed Mrs. Robt. Jardine, of St. John, and the following: H. H. and Mrs. Schaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. D. B. White, Mrs. Bourgeois, Miss Hattie Deacon, Miss May Harper, Miss Winnie Harper, Miss Jennie Webster, Miss Carrie Smith, Mrs. J. D. Weldon, Messrs. A. G. Lawton, C. W. Smith, A. J. Webster, James Irving, Wm.
Henderson, Dr. E. A. Smith, E. Hamilton, A. A.
McFadden, E. Roberts, and Wm. Outhit.

BATHURST.

Nov. 12.—Pity the sorrows of the society correspondent for Bathurst, somebody, and take the lead in commencing a winter series of those pleasant little dancing parties for which our town is noted.
I never saw such a dearth of amusements at this season. There is not even a "tin wedding" celebration to report, and even "old ladies' social evening parties" are deplorably on the decrease.

A remarkably jolly shooting party, consisting of Messrs. Havelock Johnston, Jack Russell, Lyman Hartley, Richard Park, and a couple of other Newcastle gentlemen, were registered at the Kerry House on Tuesday. They had driven from Newcastle over the old post road, and returned by the same route. They had good success going and coming and report a capture of some 80 partridges a large number of which were brought down by the thrusty gun of Mr. H. Johnston the crack shot of the party.

Mr. K. F. Burns and Mr. W. H. Chisholm and Hon. P. G. Ryan are in Fredericton.

Master Arthur Cowperthwaite leaves this week to enter a course of study preparatory for the Episcopal ministry.

Mr. Caldwell, of Moncton, spent Saturday in town.

Mr. W. Harriman left Newcastle for Boston a few days ago. Dame Rumor has it that it is for the purpose of joining the Benedicts.

Miss Bessie Wheeler is spending a few days in Chatham.

Mr. McKane is in town, to take Mr. Yeomans' place in the Merchants' Bank of Halifax, as the latter is going to spend the winter in California for the benefit of his health.
