Having a large oven on each side of the firebox, it has advantages not possessed by single oven ranges, as both meats and pastry can be cooked at the same time without detriment to either. For that class of trade that demands the best, it at once commends itself, and will be appreciated by the trade for which it is intended.

This magnificent range has been specially made to meet a long felt want, as one which is suitable for large families, restaurants, hotels, boarding schools, hospitals, etc.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst,

Owing to the down pour on Thursday of last week the reception on board II. M. S. Canada, for which Instituti invitations had been issued, did not come off, but quite a large number of prominent citizens and their lady friends enjoyed a very pleasant afternoonon board on Monday last. Boats from the ship, manned by blue jackets, were at the North wharf to convey the guests on board. The decks were cleared and prepared for dancing, and an hour or two was spent in that pleasant pastime.

Light refreshments were provided for the guests, and nothing could exceed the kindness of the Captain and officers. The Canada sailed out of port on Wednesday morning for Digby, N. S. The officers on board turned their backs on St. John with much regret, voting it the most hospitable place they had ever visited. Certainly our entertainers have done their utmost to make the time pass pleasantly durtheir utmost to make the time pass pleasantly during their stay in St. John, for since their arrival there has been one continued round of gaiety. On Monday last a delightful little dance was given for the Captain and officers by Mrs. Dever, Chipman's Hill. On Tuesday a number of them attended a very enjoyable picnic given by the Misses Sydney Smith, assisted by a number of their friends. The same evening they were entertained by Mrs. F. Burpee (Orange street) at a dance, which was kept up until a late hour. These, together with the receptions and balls I mentioned last week, will. I feel sure, be and balls I mentioned last week, will, I feel sure, be long remembered by the officers of H. M. S.

On Tuesday the young ladies of Rothesay gave a delightful picnic. A large number of ladies and gentlemen from the city went out for it, and the day which was one of the brightest we have had this Dame Rumor has not been very communicative lately, hence the dearth of society news. However she informed me, in confidence, a few days ago, of the engagement of a clergyman residing in Vermont State, to one of our society ladies, viz., the eldest daughter of a physician, residing on Lancaster Heights, and that, entre nous, the reverend gentleman would claim his bride when the summer days were gently drifting into autumn.

were gently drifting into autumn. The holiday was well celebrated at the Bay Shore. Seen from a neighboring bank, the shore presented a panorama of ever changing views; merry parties of eager children, as well as older people, children at heart, all but showing too plainly the "picnic fiend" was in the most hilarious spirits.
