SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Calais, Etc.

Last Friday a most enjoyable dance was given by General and Mrs. Warner, at their residence, Mount Pleasant, for Miss Macdonald, of Montreal, who is their guest. Everything was done to make the evening pass off pleasantly. There is always a diversity of opinion among good dancers as to whether a waxed floor or linoleum is preferable, but the most fastidious were pleased that evening, as the guests had their choice of a waxed floor in the ballroom or a linoleum stretched over the large hall. Perhaps the waltz most enjoyed throughout the evening was to the familiar strains of "Annie Rooney," which was played (while the musicians were indulging in supper) by one of the gentlemen guests present, who was obliged to repeat it three times before the dancers were satisfied. This, without casting any slur on the musicians, who played an excellent programme of dances.

On Monday Miss Edith Robertson gave a pleasant picnic to her young friends, after which the picnicers returned to the residence of Mrs. J. C. Robertson, Paradise row, and finished up a most enjoyable day with a dance and light refreshments. On Wednesday evening cards of invitation were issued by the Misses Parks at their residence, Westbank, Mount Pleasant. A waxed floor, handsome supper, and plenty of room were great incentives towards the enjoyment of the guests, but the downpour of rain that evening prevented any outdoor promenade or quiet flirtations under the trees, which is always the charm of a party in the country. Mrs. Parks being absent from the city with her two sons, at Restigouche, the party was chaperoned by Mrs. Arthur Howe.

JULY 9.-I don't know when the Celestial city has been so free from the matrimonial epidemic, as it has at last the spell is broken, and from what I hear, it is likely to rage quite fiercely during next month.

This seems to be the widow's year in Fredericton. I understand that three of our most fascinating ones, are about to give up their liberty for the second time, and if this sort of things continues, Fredericton will soon cease to be noted for its charming young widows.
