MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the book-stores of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main street.

July 9.—Lt. Colonel Mansfield, D. A. G., entertained a party at dinner last evening at the brigade camp. Among those present were: Colonel Wolsey, D. A. G., of Halifax, Colonel Beer of the 7th, Colonel McCully of the 73rd, the officers of the staff, and Infantry school corps, Captain McDonald of No. 2 company of the 4th, Mayor Sumner, Ahlermen Tombs, Cole, and McCully, members of the City Council, and Mr. George C. Peters.

Among the many strangers who have visited Moncton during the past week, were two rather distinguished ladies, both of whom were registered at the Brunswick on Monday. One was Mrs. Marie R. Wright, correspondent for the New York World, who was on her way to Halifax; and the other was the well-known American actress, Miss Rose Coughlan.

Mrs. P. S. Archibald returned on Tuesday from her visit to her home at Rockland, Maine. Professor Bridges, of the University of New Brunswick, has been spending a week with his brother, Dr. Bridges of Moncton.

Mr. W. T. Ross, of the mechanical draughting department, I. C. R., left town on Wednesday for his home in Quebec, where he will spend a fortnight. Miss Thomson left on Saturday to spend the summer vacation at her home in Newcastle. Miss Thompson has become so completely absorbed in her studies that she will miss her very greatly during her two months absence, and will be glad when the cool September breeze brings her back again.

Mr. R. B. Jack's many Moncton friends will be glad to hear that he is not to return to Moncton, having accepted a position on the C. P. R. in Ontario. Mrs. and Miss Cooke returned last week from Kingston, Ontario, where they had been spending some time. Mrs. Cooke has been paying a long visit to relatives in the Western States, having been absent over three months.

Mrs. G. J. O'Donnell's many friends are glad to see her in Moncton again and hope she intends remaining here. Mrs. DeWolf Spurr, of St. John, spent a few days in Moncton last week visiting her sister, Mrs. C. B. Record. Miss Hennigan returned last week from St. John, where she has been spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. R. W. Thorne.

Miss Weldon, who has been visiting at Shelburne, is back in town for the present, but it is said she will be leaving us again shortly, as most of our fair maidens do in summer, to gather renewed health, strength and energy for the gaieties of the winter months. We have lost Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Taylor from our social circle. Mr. Taylor having received an appointment on the Temiscouata railway. They left town yesterday. Mrs. Taylor to spend a few weeks at her home in Pictou, N. S., Mr. Taylor going direct to Edmundston, where Mrs. Taylor will join him next month.

Mrs. C. F. Hanington spent a day in town last week. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hewson left town on Saturday for Shelburne, where they will spend the summer months at the Weldon House. Speaker White, of Kings County, was in town on Saturday on his way home from Dorchester. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Osmond, of Hillsboro, paid a short visit to Moncton last week. Dr. South and his mother arrived in Moncton on Monday, after a visit of nearly six months in England and Scotland. Contrary to expectation, Dr. South is not a bachelor, but he has had a most delightful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Harris returned last week from a short visit to Boston. Mr. Josiah Wood, M. P., was in town on Monday. Mr. Walter Sumner, who has been taking a long trip for his health, reached home yesterday. His time has been spent chiefly in South America. He came home via New York by long sea, and has returned with his health thoroughly re-established.

Mr. D. B. Lindsay, general freight and passenger agent of the Temiscouata railway, was in town this week. Mr. Lindsay is an old resident of Moncton, and his friends were glad to see him again. Mr. W. L. Cotton, of the Charlottetown Examiner, was in town today. CECIL GWYNNE.

Mrs. Kerr is in Dorchester visiting at the house of Mrs. D. L. Hanington and J. B. Forster returned on Friday from attending the Synod meeting in St. John. Messrs. D. L. Hanington and J. B. Forster returned on Friday from attending the Synod meeting in St. John. Rev. J. R. Campbell is absent from Dorchester, visiting friends in St. John and St. Martin. His place on Sunday last was filled by Rev. George Armstrong, of Grand Falls, who attracted large congregations to both services. He returned on Monday to his parish.

Mr. M. G. Teed has been appointed to the office of Clerk of the Circuit, in place of Mr. Kinnear, of Sackville, who recently resigned the position. Mr. H. A. McKown, M. P., of St. John, was in Dorchester on Saturday, on professional business. Mr. J. W. Y. Smith spent Sunday and Monday with friends in St. John.

Hon. A. S. White, M. P., of Sussex, was in Dorchester on Saturday on legal business. Mrs. Carrite, of St. John, together with her friend, Mrs. Jones, is making a short visit to Dorchester, staying with Mrs. Geo. W. Chandler at Maplehurst. Messrs. J. H. Hickman and W. W. Wells gave a small driving picnic on Monday, in honor of Mrs. Carlsie and Mrs. Jones, the destination of the party being Rockport, fifteen miles down the shore. On the following day Mrs. J. E. Church organized a much larger one, the party driving over the hills to the copper mine at Fairfield, and returning by way of Anderson's mills. A very large number of persons took part in the excursion, the chief feature of which was, as is usually the case with picnics, the bountiful lunch which was prepared and dispatched at the rendezvous. The picnicers returned in the evening in time to attend in a body the performance of The Castaways in Roff's hall.

Mr. W. W. Wells is in Moncton today on legal business. Mr. Percy B. Chandler, of whose narrow escape sometime ago, yesterday returned from that city, after a most satisfactory course at the University of Vermont medical department. Mr. Chandler looks and feels well, and is as glad to be home as his friends are to have him here.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen at the book-stores of C. H. Smith & Co. and G. S. Wall and H. M. Weber.] July 9.—Invitations were given by Mrs. Gilbert Ganong, and Mrs. W. Deinstadt, to a picnic last Thursday afternoon, but owing to the steady down-pour it was postponed, much to the disappointment of those who were invited. Rev. O. S. Newham arrived home yesterday, bringing with him his sister, Miss Bishop, who arrived from England on the S. S. Nova Scotian on
