The Sailor Hat has Come to Stay, and Black is the Favorite Color-Jackets that are Both Cheap and Charming-Other Novelties in Women's Wear.

The early Autumn fashions are beginning N. S., has been visiting his son, Rev. George A. to announce themselves, and as usual the Maynard, rector of this parish. Canon Maynard jackets and hats seem to arrive first. Very occupied the pulpit of St. Mary's chapel in the village at both services on Sunday. He left for sensible of them too, considering that they Ottawa on Tuesday night. are the first things we shall want.

To begin at the very beginning, the sailor hat shows every indication of having come to stay, for it has made its appearance in a very decided majority, amongst the early importations of millinery. Black seems the most popular color, and I saw a charming black felt sailor hat last week, which was designed for a lady, who has going abroad. It was much more trimmed than we are accustomed to see sailor hats, the crown bring nearly covered with loops of thick lustreless black ribbon, while just to one side, there was a blackbird nestled among the loops. A novelty in black sailor hats, of which I cannot quite see the raison d'etre is to have the crown of felt, and the brim of straw, a sort of combination for all seasons, I suppose. One can buy such lovely ones all ready to put their trip to New York. on, for such a reasonable price, that it seems waste of time and money to get the to attend the exhibition cloth and have your jacket made, besides there is no denying,-is there girls ?-that there is a style about a good ready made jacket, a "snap" as it were, which is rarely see in one made either at home, or to order.

Some of those I saw were of thick, rough blue serge in very dark navy, with rolling collars; high, loose sleeves which were a perfect luxury to put on, after the agony of body and vexation of spirit we are accusarms in the tight jacket sleeves of last season. Lapels which turned back all the way down, and either blew open or hooked invisibly as the wearer chose; loose fronts, neatly fitting backs and tiny pockets at the sides, covered with jaunty little flaps. Others were of cadet blue cloth, with hair stripes of white, just a tiny silk thread, fronts were loose, and just a little longer than the back. They buttoned just over the bust, lapping well over, and were open the rest of the way down, and you have not the least idea how delightfully stylish and "smart" you look in one till you try it on. Fawn color still holds its own in fashionable jackets, though many dark ones are

With many people, the effect is immediately noticeable; but some constitutions are less susceptible to medicinal influences than others, and the curative process may, therefore, in such cases, be less prompt. Perseverance in using this remedy is sure of its reward at last. Sooner or later, the most stubborn blood diseases yield to

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For several years, in the spring months, I used to be troubled with a drowsy, tired feeling, and a dull pain in the small of my back, so bad, at times, as to prevent my being able to walk, the least sudden motion causing me severe distress. Frequently, boils and rashes would break out on various parts of the body. By the advice of friends and my family physician, I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla and continued it till the poison in my blood was thoroughly eradicated."-L. W. English, Montgomery City, Mo.

"My system was all run down; my skin rough and of yellowish hue. I tried various remedies, and while some of them gave me temporary relief, none of them did any permanent good. At last I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, continuing it exclusively for a considerable time, and am pleased to say that it completely

I presume my liver was very much out of order, and the blood impure in consequence. I feel that I cannot too highly recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla to any one afflicted as 1 was."-Mrs. N. A. Smith, Glover, Vt. "For years I suffered from screfula and blood diseases. The doctors' prescriptions and several so-called blood-purifiers being of no avail, I was at last advised by a friend to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and now feel like a new man, being fully restored to health."-C. N. Frink, Decorah, Iowa.
