SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Calais, Etc.

Miss Annie Wright, of Boston, is the guest of Mrs. Charles Merritt, Charlotte street. Rev. G. Osborne Troop and Mrs. Troop, of Montreal, are the guests of Mrs. R. W. Crookshank, Sydney street. Mr. Troop will preach at both services at St. James' Church to-morrow.

Mrs. John Macaulay is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Alex. Macaulay, Princess street. Rev. J. deSoyres has joined Mrs. deSoyres at Weymouth, N. S.

Mrs. Morris Robinson, who has spent the last few weeks at Halifax returned home last week.

The dance given by Mrs. J. C. Robertson, last Friday, at her residence, Paradise row, was a most enjoyable affair. Everything was done to make the evening pass off pleasantly, the only thing wanting being a fine night, as the grounds, which had been so tastefully hung with Chinese lanterns, could not be used for promenade by the guests between dances. One or two members of Harrison's orchestra furnished excellent music. A well-stretched linen made the floor all that could be desired by the dancers, and last, but not least, a table laid with all the delicacies of the season, that satisfied the most fastidious. Mrs. Robertson was ably assisted in entertaining her guests by her daughter, Miss Edith Robertson. Among those present were: Mrs. Romans (Halifax), Mrs. Esion, Miss Esion, Miss Ella Drury, Mr. Harry Drury, Master Maul Drury, Miss May Beer, Miss Ethel and Miss Charlotte Smith, Mr. Boyer Smith, Miss Florrie Boyd, Mr. Arthur Boyd, Mr. A. C. Thomson, Dr. Esion, Mr. F. Esion, Miss Furlong, Mr. Maurice Furlong, the Misses Campbell, Mr. F. Campbell, Mr. Harry Robinson, Miss Winnie Wright, Mr. C. Coster, Mr. H. Frith, Mr. Harrison, Miss Burpee, Mr. and Miss Schofield.

Miss Caroline M. Seely is visiting friends in Boston. Major-General Richard L. Dashwood, late colonel commanding 1st Batt. 15th Regiment, on his way to Northwest, spent a few hours amongst his friends in this city on Monday last.

General Dashwood, with friends invited to meet him, was entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. J. DeWolfe Spurr at their residence, 184 Germain street; an occasion of pleasant reminiscences for those present.

A delightful picnic, at Rothesay, on Wednesday last, was given by the Misses Robertson to a number of their young friends. Both the afternoon and the evening trains took guests from the city. Boating was enjoyed on the Kennebecasis by some, tennis by others, while all enjoyed the sumptuous high tea provided by Mrs. Robertson at her residence, Rothesay.

Mrs. J. M. Robinson, of Rothesay, who has spent the last few weeks at Fredericton for the benefit of her health, has returned home. Miss Grace Seely and Mr. J. Seely spent a few days in Fredericton this week.

Dr. Boyle Travers has returned home from England after a two months holiday. Miss Bessie Seely, who has been summering at Nova Scotia has returned home. Mr. E. E. Gubb arrived from Kingston, Ont., this week to spend a few days among his old friends in St. John.

Mr. E. Maunell, of the Royal Military College, Kingston, is spending his vacation in St. John, the guest of General Warner, Mt. Pleasant. Mr. E. W. Jarvis, of B. O. M., has spent his vacation in the city, and returned to Moncton yesterday.

Miss Beer, of Sussex, is the guest of Mr. W. M. Jarvis, King street. Miss Annie Hughes of Liverpool, Eng., and Miss Mary Irving of Boston, are visiting Miss Irving at 129 King street, east.

The many friends of Miss Nellie Murphy will be pleased to learn that she has successfully passed all her examinations in the telegraphy department of the St. John Business College, in which she was a pupil. Rev. W. H. Poole, LL. D., of Detroit, Mich., author of Anglo-Israel or the Saxon Race Proved to be the Lost Tribes of Israel, is staying at the Berton House.

Mr. M. U. LeNoir, of Halifax, is staying at the Berton House. St. John—West End.

The Misses Hunter, who have been passing some weeks in the vicinity of the Bay Shore, have returned to their home in Fredericton. Miss Laura Peters is visiting friends in Digby. Mr. Edward Olive, who has been visiting his home in New York. Mrs. Chipman Olive accompanied by her son Harold, left on Saturday for New York, where they will remain until September.

Mrs. Stevens is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Scammell, Fern Terrace, Lancaster Heights. Mrs. Peavy, of Maine, is visiting her sister, Mrs. White, on King street. Mr. and Mrs. E. Jewett and Mr. Eldridge Jewett, of Boston, are spending a few weeks with Mrs. E. G. Dunn at Riverside Cottage, Lancaster Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Cushing, of Moncton, have been visiting at Mr. Andre Cushing's, Lancaster Heights, last returned home. Mr. Arthur Calhoun, of the Boston Traveller, who has been for some time the guest of Mr. John V. Ellis, M. P., has returned to Boston. Mrs. Calhoun will not return until later on.

Miss Mary Knight, of Toronto, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Richard Knight, on King street. Mrs. White and her sister, Mrs. Peavy, who is visiting her, spent Friday and Saturday of last week at Hampton.

Rev. Walter Taylor, B. A., has been appointed to the pastorate of the Methodist church in Shelburne. The many friends of Mr. Merritt Wetmore are pleased to see him out again, after his long and severe illness. Miss Curry and Miss Jewett are visiting friends in Moncton.

Mrs. George Hodge, of Fredericton, is spending a few days at the Bay Shore. Mr. and Mrs. Lippincott, of St. Louis, are the guests of Mrs. Lippincott's father, Mr. Barnabas Tilton, on Lancaster Heights. Mrs. Mary Thompson has returned from St. Stephen, where she has been visiting friends during the last two months, much improved in health. PETERS MORS.

FREDERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Penney and by James H. Hawthorne.]

Aug. 20—The party given last Thursday evening by Dr. and Mrs. Bailey at Sunnyside, their pleasant residence, on College road, was an exceedingly enjoyable affair. The evening was fine and delightfully cool, making dancing a real pleasure. The music consisted of an orchestra of five pieces, and was very fine. Choice refreshments were served throughout the entire evening. The guests numbered about 50. Some of the dresses were very beautiful.

Miss Bailey wore yellow china silk, low neck and short sleeves. Rhine stone necklace. Mrs. Kingston, a party of ladies, black silk, with long train; bodice prettily trimmed with white ostrich feathers. Mrs. Beche, pink silk. Mrs. Charles Beckwith, pink cashmere trimmed with silver. Mrs. Allen, rich black silk. Miss Maggie Allen, white mesvieux satin, with gold trimmings. Miss Edith Gregory, goblin blue China silk, with black velvet trimmings. Mrs. Carr (New York) rich white silk, handsomely trimmed with white pearls. Miss May Robinson, black lace, white flowers. Mrs. Godkin, black silk, with corsage bouquet of white flowers. Mrs. Harry Beckwith, handsome golden brown satin. Rhine stone necklace. Miss Ingram, white lace, national flowers. Miss Frank Elliott, yellow silk, covered with black spotted lace. Miss Crookshank, black lace, natural flowers. Miss Hamlin Crookshank, cream cashmere, natural flowers.

Don't fail to have PROGRESS mailed to you while you are at your favorite country resort. You will find it good company, and like a friend from home. Send address and stamps to this office. Three cents a copy, ten cents a month.

Miss Frank Babbitt, black lace, pink roses. Miss Kerr (Montreal), pale blue fish net. Miss Akery, pale pink cashmere, with silver trimmings. Miss Botford, Nile green cashmere and fish net. Among the strange gentlemen were Mr. Miller, Mr. Jarvis, of Halifax, and Mr. Wallace. The programmes were exceedingly pretty, each one being painted with a different design by Miss Bailey. This pleasant party came to an end about half past two.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beckwith had a small dance at their home last evening. Mrs. Pastor had a family picnic at Camp Comfort on Monday.

Mrs. L. W. Johnston and family returned from the Bay Shore on Tuesday. Canon Roberts and his party, numbering about 16, returned yesterday from their camping out trip. Mr. Goodfriend Roberts is in St. John acting as lay reader to Rev. Mr. Dibble during the vacation. Miss B. Sampson is in Woodstock visiting her aunt, Mrs. Collier.

There will be a grand excursion to-morrow to Grand Lake in the steamer Florenceville. The band of the L. S. C. will accompany the party. This excursion will doubt be the most enjoyable picnic that will take place this season, as the sail on the lake is the most delightful one. All the beauty and fashion of the city, I understand, are going.

Mr. T. W. Peters and Mrs. Peters of St. John are visiting Fredericton. Mr. Herbert E. Yerxa, of Cambridge, Mass., is here. Mr. F. B. Hill and Mr. A. Stocks, of Lowell, Mass., are visiting here on Tuesday.
