BATHURST, July 25.—Mr. R. H. Emerson, barrister, Dorchester, was in town on Monday.

Mrs. John F. Carter's father, Mr. Avaro, who had been here since Mr. Carter's death, returned on Tuesday to his home in Shediac, taking with him his daughter and her children.

Mrs. H. McCullough and her son Master Frank are having pleasant holidays in Carleton.

Mr. O. F. Steacy has returned from a trip through Nova Scotia. Little Miss Draper, of Dalhousie, is visiting Mrs. C. H. Cowperthwaite.

The Misses Mullins entertained a few friends at a very pleasant tea party one evening last week.

Master Arthur Cowperthwaite is visiting Mr. Geo. H. Mersereau at Newcastle.

BEG! Not by any means. We are not begging you to buy "WHITE CROSS" GRANULATED SOAP to use in washing dishes, pots, pans, dish cloths, marble sinks, to make them sweet and clean; to wash clothes, to wash everything about the house. No indeed! We want you to know its remarkable qualities, that's all. Your own common sense will tell you how good it is. Buy a package; it is cheap. Buy it. Try it. Everyone likes "White Cross;" you will; you can't help it.

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR A 5lb. BAG OF WHEATEN GRITZ! Relieves Dyspepsia. Recommended by Physicians.

Misses Nellie and Annie Carman are paying a visit to their friends, Hon. R. Young and family at Carleton. Our Postmaster, Mr. Henry Bishop, and J. M. Burns are camping out at Piquette, and by all accounts are having a "jolly, good time."

There was a delightful little party at Mr. Frank Gatain's on Monday evening. During the early part of the evening there was some excellent music, vocal and instrumental. Mr. W. F. Pepper sang "Swing Nellie Home," and "Kililoo" in his usual good style.

Miss Annie Wilbur's songs, "Robin Adair" and "Lullaby," with piano accompaniment, were beautifully rendered. Mr. Draper sang one or two songs, playing his own accompaniment, and the applause which rewarded him showed how much his singing is appreciated.

Mr. Reginald Boss gave some exquisite selections on the violin. Refreshments were served at half past ten, and the remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Gatain as a host and hostess are simply perfect. Messrs. Bennett Mullins and Warren Meahan spent some days last week trout-fishing on Tracadie River.

Mrs. J. C. Meahan made a short visit to Newcastle last week. Mrs. Gillespie and Master Gillespie, of Chatham, are Mrs. J. Girvan's visitors.

I heard of a very pleasant picnic at Tattagouche Falls last week. Misses Emma Burns and Dot Meahan and Master James Kearney were among those present.

The ladies belonging to the Roman Catholic Church are making preparations for a strawberry festival to be held in the Skating Rink this week. TOM BROWN.

NEWCASTLE. July 25.—Rev. J. H. S. Sweet and family have gone to Dalhousie on a well earned vacation.

Miss M. Watt leaves today for Youghall to join Miss Annie Aitken, who is visiting Mrs. Armstrong. St. James' church is greatly improved since the new organ and window have been put in.

The ladies of the church, with their president, Mrs. Aitken, deserve a great deal of praise for the way they have so earnestly worked.

Miss Pentland has been in town the last week visiting Mrs. C. Fish. I was glad to see Miss Katherine Benson on Saturday. Mrs. Nevin is recovering from her long and dangerous illness.

Mr. Nevin is more successful at killing salmon than gardening. Mr. David Brown and family, accompanied by his brother Burton and wife, from Aspen, Col., are here visiting their father, Mr. Geo. Brown.

Mrs. Moore, from Lunenburg, is also here, making the re-union a happy one. Mrs. Butcher, from Moncton, and Miss McCurdy, arrived home last Saturday.

Miss Thomson is spending her vacation at home. Mrs. John McCurdy and daughter, from Truro, are also spending with Mrs. Thomson. They will have a most enjoyable time, as Mrs. Butcher has brought her pony and phonograph with her.

Mrs. and Mr. Gitz leave on Saturday for Bay du Vin, and intend to have a few weeks enjoyment at the seaside. Mrs. Sinclair is having a picnic today at Redbank. Her daughter, Mrs. Ferguson, will chaperon the young ladies from town.

The Farester's belonging to the town are holding one on Beaubear's Island. Mrs. E. Lee Street and Aubrey returned on Friday from St. Andrew. Miss Maggie Marshall arrived from Boston yesterday.

Mrs. McKay, from Halifax, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Young. Mrs. Robt. Ritchie is expected home next week from Montreal. JACQUES.

GAGETOWN. July 25.—This lovely little village is becoming better known every day. It is fast filling up with tourists. Mr. S. Farlane, of St. John, spent a few days here this week.

Mr. Chas. Babbitt, of Boston, is spending his holidays with his father. Mr. John Woodford, of St. John, is also here. Mr. Allan DeVeber, of New York, paid us a flying visit this week.

Mr. and Mrs. McGuire, of Washington, spent a few days here, and were loud in their praise of Gagetown. Miss Millidge, of St. John, is spending a few days with Miss Peters, and Mrs. Melnyre, of Halifax, is also stopping with Miss Peters.

Mr. Jas. Palmer, of Fredericton, is spending a few days with his mother here. Messrs. Waterman, Allingham and Palmer, with lady friends, are picnicing today at Dingee Bros' beautiful grounds.
