SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Little Miss Edna Golding had a large picnic on Saturday. She and her little friends drove out into the country in lay-carts and judging from the sound of mirth which proceeded from the depths of the lay-carts on their return to the city in the evening, they had a jolly time.

On Tuesday last a very happy party from St. Stephen and Calais drove to Raven's Head, five miles down river, and enjoyed their annual outing. The party consisted of Messrs. C. N. Vroom, T. R. Mitchell, Hugh Stevenson, Sedge Webber, W. H. Edwards, Dr. Harry McKelvey (of Philadelphia) and Mr. H. M. Webber, Mrs. T. R. Mitchell, Mrs. Sedge Webber, Miss Minnie Millan (Bayside), Miss Bertha Markoe, Miss Agnes McDiarmid, Misses Kate, Ada and Lottie Halliday. With but slight changes, from year to year this party has had an annual outing during the past eight or nine years, and no picnic party out of St. Stephen enjoys a better time, the day being looked forward to with eager anticipation, and remembered with fond recollections.

The first tennis tournament ever given in Calais was held at the grounds of Mrs. Frank Nelson last week. Miss Kate Nelson, as hostess, presided over the contest, and at sun-down was not finished, so Monday of this week was appointed to finish the contest. The prize was a handsome racket, but I was unable to hear who was the fortunate winner. Luncheon was served on the grounds at noon, and refreshments were served several times during the day.
