

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Calais, Etc.

Although the doctors of St. John, as well as those of other places, lift up their voice against the mild form of feminine dram drinking of these days, five o'clock teas are becoming more and more fashionable, and the ladies love to preside over their dainty tea tables and vie with one another in the beauty of their china and the flavor of their teas.

The young people in St. John and Rothesay who received cards of invitation from Mrs. C. H. Fairweather last week for a dance, at her residence, Rothesay, on Thursday last, have been anxiously watching the weather all week, and wondering if the fog, of so many days, was going to clear.

Mr. Morse and Mr. Jenkins, of Boston, Mass., college friends of G. K. King, have been visiting Mr. King for a few days.

St. John—West End. On Thursday evening week a very successful drawing room concert was held in the Masonic Hall by the members of the band of mercy in aid of the public fountain fund.

Mr. C. E. L. Porteous, of the Bank of Montreal, Kingston, Ont., has joined Mrs. Porteous in Saint John, and will spend his holidays here.

Mr. J. J. Ritchie, of Ottawa, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. R. W. Crookshank.

Mrs. George Dunn and children, of Houlton, Me., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Dunn at "Riverside cottage," Lancaster Heights.

Mrs. Frank Stetson, of Lancaster Heights, who has been visiting in Halifax, N. S., has returned home.

I believe that Rev. John A. Clark has rented the nice cottage on Prince street and, with his family, will occupy it during the present year.

Mr. Newton Glasgow, formerly of the West End, but now of Denver, Col., who has been passing a few days with his friends here, left on Monday for home via Boston.

Mr. George Dunn, of Houlton, Me., who has been visiting his father, Mr. E. G. Dunn, at Riverside cottage, Lancaster Heights, has gone to Bangor.

On Wednesday evening week quite a large dinner party was given by Senator Lewin at his residence on Lancaster Heights in honor of Sir William and Lady Ritchie, of Ottawa.

St. John—North End. Dr. George Roberts left for New York for England on Saturday. He spent the last few days in Westfield, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur MacDonald.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Vaughan gave a pleasant little party in honor of Mrs. Taylor, of Halifax, who has been visiting among her friends for the past few months.

Mr. and Mrs. William Carleton, of New York, were the guests of Mrs. John Connor the past week.

Miss Alice and Miss Grace Ring are visiting Digby.

Rev. Stanley Boyd, of England, is in St. John, the guest of Mr. W. M. Jarvis.

Mrs. Crane spent a few days in the city this week, the guest of Mrs. Charles Kinnear.

Mrs. Charles MacDonald and family are visiting Sussex.

Mr. C. E. L. Porteous, of the Bank of Montreal, Kingston, Ont., has joined Mrs. Porteous in Saint John, and will spend his holidays here.

Mr. J. J. Ritchie, of Ottawa, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. R. W. Crookshank.

Mrs. J. B. Thompson, of St. John, is spending a few weeks at the Barker house. Dr. J. Hetherington, of St. John, was in the city last week.

Mr. John J. Jennings has gone to New York on his holidays. Mr. Charles A. Sampson, Sec. of school trustees, and daughter, are taking a trip through different parts of Nova Scotia during the vacation.

Miss Ella Thorne, Miss Harvey, Miss Janie Harvey, and Miss N. J. McLeod are at Brackley Beach Prince Edward Island.

Misses Fannie and Mamie McNally returned home on Saturday, after having thoroughly enjoyed their visit to Woodstock.

Mrs. Etta Fenety will leave tomorrow to return to her home in Cambridge, the guest of her parents, "Linden Hall."

Mrs. Charles Roberts arrived from Windsor, Tuesday evening, with her two youngest children, and will remain some weeks, the guest of her parents, "Linden Hall."

Mrs. and Miss Hawker, of St. John, are here, the guests of Mrs. Bebbington, Charlotte street.

Mrs. D. G. Seely, of Dorchester street, to a large number of her friends. From four until six o'clock the drawing rooms were filled with guests, and the Misses Seely, who presided over the tea cups had no easy task.

The same evening a few guests were entertained by Mrs. Seely at a card party, which was also most enjoyable.

The young people in St. John and Rothesay who received cards of invitation from Mrs. C. H. Fairweather last week for a dance, at her residence, Rothesay, on Thursday last, have been anxiously watching the weather all week, and wondering if the fog, of so many days, was going to clear.
