SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Harris returned on Wednesday from her fishing trip on the Metapedia.
The many Moncton friends of Mrs. R. B. Boggs were inexpressibly shocked to hear of her death. She was a woman of rare mental endowments, and though advanced in years, her brilliant wit and many accomplishments made her seem ever young, while her unvarying brightness and readiness of path made her a universal favorite with young people.

A great many strangers have been in town this week, the attraction being the Harkins dramatic company. Many of our absentees returned to town for a brief space also.

Amongst others I noticed on Monday Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Beddome, Mr. and Mrs. James Mowatt, and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hewson.
Lady Smith, of Dorchester, accompanied by Mrs. Joshua Chandler, Miss Robinson, and Miss Forsyth, was also in town on Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. J. O'Connell, of Hillsboro, paid a short visit to Moncton on Monday.
Lt. Colonel Bremner, of Halifax, was registered at the Brunswick on Friday.
Mr. L. B. Archibald, of Truro, paid a short visit to Moncton on Thursday.
I am sorry to say that Mr. Busby, general passenger agent of the I. C. R., has been seriously ill for past day or two, but I believe he is very much better today, and his physician hopes to have him out again in a few days.

Mrs. and Miss Ryan, of Sussex, and sister of Mrs. F. A. McCully, are in town visiting Mr. and Mrs. McCully.

DORCHESTER.

[Progress is for sale in Dorchester at George M. Fairweather's store.]

Aug. 6.—Miss Florrie Palmer gave a tea party last Wednesday to a number of her young friends. Several more "dropped in" during the evening, and an hour or two was pleasantly passed in dancing and other amusements.

Mr. Chas. S. Hickman went to Moncton on Wednesday, making a flying visit to St. John. He returned to Dorchester on Saturday.
Hon. D. L. Hanington left on Thursday for a visit to Shediac, and thence to other places, returning home on Monday.
Miss Lowerson, of Amherst, spent several days in Dorchester last week, visiting her friend, Miss Sarah Godfrey.

Mr. M. G. Teed made a short visit to Albert County on Thursday, on professional business.
Little Miss Ada Palmer, daughter of Mr. M. Barlow Palmer, met with a serious accident on Monday. While playing with some companions she fell, and striking her elbow against a stone, fractured her arm in two places. She is now progressing as well as can be expected, and bears her pain with fortitude, quite remarkable for one so young.

Mrs. Thorne, of St. John, spent a day or two in Dorchester last week, the guest of Mrs. E. V. Godfrey.

Mr. P. B. Chandler paid a short visit to Moncton last Wednesday.

Mrs. George W. Chandler spent last Thursday in Sackville.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Risteen have again been visiting Dorchester for a few days, but returned to their home in Fredericton on Monday.

A number of Dorchester people went to Sackville on Friday to attend the funeral of Mr. Christopher Milner. Among the number were: Messrs. W. W. Wells, A. E. Oulton, W. H. Chapman, H. R. Emmerson, W. B. Chandler, A. J. Chapman, Chas. E. Knapp, M. G. Teed, and Hon. Judge Landry.

Mr. Milner numbered many Dorchester people among his friends.

Mrs. Moore, of St. John, has been spending a week in Dorchester, the guest of Mrs. M. B. Palmer.

Mr. Carvell, of Charlottetown, was in Dorchester for a few hours on Thursday.

Miss Hay, who has been visiting friends in Amherst for the past month, has once more returned to Dorchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Professor Allison, of Halifax, are here making a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Forster, at the penitentiary, as is also their son, Mr. Charles Allison.

Once more it is necessary to chronicle a departure from Dorchester, and this time a more serious one even than those which have preceded. Dr. Church has been living here among us for twelve years or so, and who numbers exactly warm friends here as there are people in Dorchester who have reached years of discretion, has decided to move with his family to Moncton, and has already engaged the office made vacant by the death of Dr. Baxter. The doctor himself will go to Moncton at once, but there is this much to be thankful for, that probably Mrs. Church and their family will remain in Dorchester until autumn. When Dorchester society will do without Dr. and Mrs. Church is a question that agitates the minds of us all. But while deploring their departure Dr. Church's friends cannot but recognize the fact that he has been a most successful and useful member of both the professional and social sense. Dr. Church's practice would do well to shun Dorchester. Mrs. David Chapman has been spending a few days in Amherst with her son, Mr. D. Chapman, Jr. Mr. J. H. Hickman drove to Amherst Saturday evening to spend Sunday with friends, returning to Dorchester on Monday.

A party consisting of Mrs. Joshua Chandler, Lady Smith, Mrs. A. J. Hickman, Miss Forsyth, Miss Robinson, Mr. W. W. Wells, Mr. Oulton, Mr. Hickman, Mr. P. B. Chandler and Mr. J. W. Y. Smith drove to Shediac on Saturday to spend Sunday, and returned the following evening.

Mr. G. E. Oulton has returned to Dorchester after a six weeks' vacation, to again take charge of the Superior School. Mrs. Oulton is with him.

Mr. Chas. Sayre, barrister, of Rimouski, was in Dorchester on Monday and Tuesday of this week on legal business.

Miss Ford has returned from spending her summer's vacation at her home in Kent County, to resume her duties at her school. Her brother, Mr. Michael Ford is also here with a young son.

Mr. F. McDougall, agent of the Merchant's Bank, Sackville, has been here on business yesterday and today, as has also Mr. Abbott, agent of the same bank in Kingston, Kent County.

Mr. W. C. Milner, of Sackville, was in Dorchester yesterday.

In social way Dorchester is stagnating itself this summer; no tennis to speak of, few picnics, no dances, no nothing. It is time something was done to revive our rapidly withering laurels in this respect.

Then, at the invitation of the hostess, all adjourned to the large dining-room, which was furnished for dancing, and almost before Mr. Burns had time to call, "Gentlemen, choose partners for the dances," the sets were formed, and sixteen happy young people were "tripping the light fantastic" to the merry strains of the violin. Supper was served later, and dancing resumed until 3 o'clock, when adieu was spoken and the tired but happy members of the party wended their way homeward. Several friends from here attended the funeral on Friday. Among them were: Senator Dickey, and Rev. A. E. and Mrs. Harris.

The sad intelligence reached us on Wednesday of the death of Golding, Col. of Mr. W. R. McCully, on Monday the 29th ult. He had been in failing health for some months, and in May went to Dorchester, Mass., for a change and to visit his sister, Mrs. Chubbuck. Feeling somewhat better he was advised to try the invigorating air of Colorado, and went there in June, but he was too far gone to be benefited. He was a rising and promising lawyer, and a most exemplary son and brother, and the deepest sympathy is felt for the widowed mother, brother, and sisters. He was about 28 years of age.

His remains reached here on Wednesday, the 6th inst., and were interred at half-past three, followed by a large concourse of sympathizing friends. The flowers were rare and beautiful, an exquisite wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Pipes, and an anchor from Mrs. and Miss Sleep, were among the many loving tributes of affection to his memory.
