SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Calais, Etc.

Last Thursday evening the Eclectic club met at the residence of Mrs. Holden, Charlotte street. There was a full attendance of members present, several of whom gave most interesting readings, while others furnished music.

Mr. Thomson, Q. C., of Halifax and Mrs. Thomson were at the Dufferin last week. They returned home on Wednesday.

Mr. J. Keator, of the Bank of Montreal, arrived from Montreal last week, and spent a few days with his relatives in the city.

Mrs. Neales, widow of the late Rev. Wm. Neales, of California, is in St. John, and will make her home with her mother, Mrs. Symonds, Peters street.

Another old and respected citizen, Mr. Osmond, passed away since last I wrote. His familiar face will be much missed on the streets of St. John.

Mr. Keltie Jones is recovering slowly from his late accident, and has been out several times.

Rev. Mr. Eatough, the new curate for Trinity church, arrived in St. John this week. He will enter upon his new duties tomorrow. Mr. Eatough has taken rooms at Mrs. Arthur Daniel's.

Mr. J. Carruthers, of Kingston, Ont., accompanied by his brother, Mr. W. Carruthers, spent a few days in the city this week, the guest of Mrs. Isaac Burpee, Mt. Pleasant.

Mrs. W. L. Busby went to Boston on Tuesday last to pay a short visit.

Cards of invitation have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. J. DeWolfe Spurr for a reception on Tuesday next from 4 o'clock till six, and also for a large dance on Thursday evening next at half past eight o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Spurr with their usual love of hospitality are giving their first house warming at their new residence, Germain St., and by having two entertainments the same week are giving pleasure to all their friends.

The young people are looking forward with much interest to the one provided for them on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Murray returned home from their wedding tour last week. Mrs. Murray received her friends this week, when numbers called to offer congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Murray are residing on Sydney street, in the residence formerly occupied by Mr. G. W. Whitney.

Mrs. Arthur P. Tippet went to the North Shore this week, to pay a short visit.

Mrs. W. H. Adams is confined to her residence, Coburg street, through illness.

On Wednesday evening, Miss Alice Tuck entertained about 20 of her young friends at a drive whist party, at her father's residence, Elliot row. Two prizes were competed for, which made the game all the more interesting, the fortunate winners being Miss Nellie Cushing and Mr. J. McDonald.

The former a large box of sweetmeats and the latter a handsome monochrome case. After enjoying whist for some time, and being refreshed with supper, the rooms were cleared for dancing, which was kept up until a late hour.

Miss Nellie Snider, who has spent the last few months in Boston, returns home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Clowes Carman and family will remove from Musquash next week to the city. They will reside on Summer street.

At the sale held in Trinity church school house last week, the handsome sum of $480 was realized. Part of this will be given to the diocese of Algoma, part to the home for Indian boys, and the remainder to domestic missions.

ST. STEPHEN.

Mr. Roger Bonnell and family, of Metuchen, New Jersey, are spending the winter in St. John for the benefit of Mrs. Bonnell's health. Mr. Bonnell lived in this city many years, and his wife will be remembered by her friends as being formerly Miss Helen Gerow. They will board with Mrs. Chapman at the Barton house, Elliot Row, for the season.

Miss Mabel Fairweather is at school in Virginia. Her many friends, and those especially among the Albert club, of which she was a valuable member, will miss her very much.

Mrs. Herbert Flood is receiving congratulations on the birth of a son. Mrs. G. Warren Fairweather is also the happy mother of an heir.

A Bread and Butter Club has been organized among the young people, the principal members being Miss Lena Waters and Miss Low Parks. Mrs. Clark has had two meetings so far, one at Miss Mollie Robinson's, Broad Street, and the other at Miss Low Parks'.

Miss Carrie Fairweather is shortly to make a visit to New York.

Miss Katie Murray, who has been making a visit of several weeks in New York, is now at home again.

Mr. Will Adams is visiting his mother at her residence, Coburg Street.

Mr. Frank Colwell, Mr. Ernest Blair, Mr. Frank Read, Mr. Rupert and Master Fred Blair who were boarding with Mrs. Chapman have taken rooms at the Carville House, Warren Street, which is now under the management of Mr. A. Drake, formerly head clerk of the Dufferin Hotel.

Mrs. F. A. Jones, of the Dufferin, is making a flying trip to New York.

St. John—West End.

The ladies of St. John's church held a very pleasant High Tea and Fancy Sale on Tuesday evening, which was largely attended.

Miss Hattie Bartlett, who has been visiting in Boston for some weeks, returned home on the first of the week.

Mrs. D. W. Clarke has friends visiting her at her home on King St.

Mrs. Andre Cushing left on Tuesday for a trip to Boston.

Mrs. Noble arrived at the West End last week, and is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Edward J. Scamell, of King Street.

Miss Nasse, who has been visiting her grandfather, Mr. Barnabas Tilton on Lancaster Heights, returns to her home on Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Clarke has returned from a two month visit in Boston.

Much sympathy is felt for Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Crisp in the serious illness of their little daughter.

Mrs. Frank Stetson, who has been in New York for some time with her mother, Mrs. Neilbur, is expected to return home the last of the week.

The Grand Concert given by the Music Union in the City Hall on Thursday evening, was one of the finest entertainments ever given at the West End. Among those who assisted in making the concert such a splendid success were the members of the Union, Harrison's Orchestra, Mr. Arthur Neville, the celebrated violinist, and Mrs. Parker, of Boston, who is now teacher of elocution in the St. John School of Music. At the close of the concert, those taking part assembled in the large room below to enjoy a social chat.

PETERS MORS.

The Fort Macleod, N. W. T., Gazette, of Sept. 11th, gives an extended notice of the sad death of constable James Macleod, of the N. W. T., M. P., son of Captain and Mrs. James Vaughn, of Liverpool, England, and grandson of the late Thomas Vaughn of this city, and John Macleod of Carleton. Constable Vaughn was stationed at Prince Creek, and while on duty was seized with typhoid fever, in spite of every care he became rapidly worse and died after a fortnight's illness. The remains were brought to Fort Macleod, and taken to the Church of England, where the burial service was read by the Rev. H. Bourne, and afterwards interred in the Protestant cemetery with full military honors. The deepest regret was expressed by all classes for Constable Vaughn's early death. He was a favorite with all who knew him. Captain Vaughn's absence in Calcutta will add an additional pang to Mrs. Vaughn's and his own sad loss.

Miss Sarah Savage, a popular young lady at Pleasant Point, Milford, was married to Mr. M. Reynolds, of St. John, on Monday last, at St. Rose church, Fairville. Only the immediate relatives of the family were present. The bride, who is a favorite in that locality, received many beautiful presents.

St. John—North End.

Nov. 28.—Mrs. S. McLellan and Mrs. J. Holly returned home last week, after a pleasant trip to New York.

Last Thursday evening a number of friends invaded the quiet precincts of Mr. Smith's domicile. Dost and revenue are exacted at the West End, and an odd case the occasion being his birthday. The address was accompanied with a costly gold ring as a mark of the esteem and appreciation with which he is held by his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wisely returned home from their honeymoon on Tuesday.

Dr. Fred Walsh, formerly of North End was married at Rockville, Conn., on Wednesday, at 4.30 p. m., to a wealthy young lady of German descent belonging to Conn. He went to Washington the same evening, on his honeymoon. Dr. Walsh has an extensive practice in Rockville. We congratulate him.

The drive I spoke of last week to take place at Hollys, South Bay, came off on Tuesday. The young men invited drove in single buggies, with the young lady of his choice.

I hear of the engagement of a dentist of South End to a fair widow residing at present on Douglas road.

FREDERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton at the book store of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Howlthorne.

Nov. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Street entertained last evening about twenty-four of their friends at a progressive euchre party, which was very much enjoyed by all present. The first prize, which was a handsome mirror, was won by Miss Winslow, while Mayor Allen was the happy winner of the booby prize.

The marriage of Mr. Maurice F. Macklin, of Gilbo, and Miss Beatrice Cropley, sister of Mr. H. A. Cropley of this city, took place last Wednesday in Boston. The ceremony was performed in the church of the Evangelist, by Rev. Mr. J. H. Hall, Mr. Weid, of Charlestown, a relative of the family, gave away the bride. Miss Weid was the bridesmaid and Robert A. Cropley the groomsmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Macklin arrived home on Thursday, and in the evening a reception was held at Mr. Macklin's residence at Gilbo, which was attended by a large number of relatives and friends from both sides of the river. Among the guests were: Mrs. Robert Macklin, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cropley, Mrs. Cropley, Mr. and Mrs. C. Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. P. McFarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Wisley, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Richards, Mrs. Matheson, Miss Thornburn, Miss Cora and Mrs. Gertrude Macklin, Miss McFarlane, and Miss Hoblen. The health of the bride and groom was proposed by Mr. Fowler. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents from friends in Boston, St. John, and this city. Mrs. Macklin spent some months in this city, and made many friends here during that time, who wish her much happiness in her new home.

Another one of these happy events is to take place this evening, at the residence of Mr. Limerick, ex-lieutenant, when Miss Cameron, his eldest daughter, will be united in marriage to Mr. Samuel McFarlane, of Nashwaakiss. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Mowatt. Only the immediate relatives were present.

The bazaar now being held in St. Dunstan's hall is being very largely attended. The hall is very handsomely decorated. There is a forest of trees inside the building, and festoons of these are gracefully entwined with bunting of all kinds. The fancy tables are well supplied with a great variety of pretty things. The bazaar is for the benefit of the Orphan's Home.

The Fredericton brass band will give a concert in the City Hall, Dec. 11th. Mr. Arthur Neville, the celebrated violinist; Mrs. Black, Miss Shenton and Miss Stanger, of this city; Miss Warden, of St. John, and other leading singers will assist the band.

Judge and Mrs. Fraser left home on Saturday for the South, where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Randolph are spending a few days in St. John.

Mrs. Landry and two children have been spending a few days in Fredericton; they returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Charles Gregory, of Antigonish, N. S., is visiting her niece, Miss Byrne, on Brunswick street.

A very pleasant social was held in the audit Kirk last Friday evening, when the University and Normal students of that church were entertained. There was a short musical programme followed by refreshments. Mr. A. Lindsay, of St. John, favored the audience with two songs, followed by two responses. Miss Bailey gave a violin solo, and responded to a hearty encore. Mr. Mowatt gave a reading.

Mrs. Bond and her children, and Miss Maggie Allen will accompany Mr. Bond to their new home in Toronto, on Monday. Miss Allen will spend the winter with Mrs. Bond.

Mrs. C. F. Deacon, of Brooklyn, and her children are here visiting Mrs. Deacon's mother, Mrs. Montgomery Campbell.

Postmaster Hilliard still continues very ill. It is rumored that Fredericton is soon to lose three young ladies by marriage.

ST. STEPHEN.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen at the book-store of C. H. Smith & Co., and G. S. Wall and H. M. Welber.]

Nov. 28.—The handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Corey, on Main street, Calais, was ablaze with light on being the scene of a reception given by Mrs. Corey and Miss Belle King. The invitations were given a week ago, and number of about sixty guests, the elite of St. Stephen assembled.

Miss King most graciously received their guests in one of the spacious drawing rooms. Mrs. Corey wearing a handsome reception dress of black silk with corsage bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums, while Miss King looked charming in a scarlet and black costume. During the evening a clock struck continued until midnight, when supper was served. It was a most brilliant party and the costumes of the ladies surpassed any ever before seen in Calais. Knowing that a description of a party is nothing without speaking of the dresses worn by the lady guests, I will endeavor to describe a few of the most beautiful.

Mrs. George King, rich mauve satin, with white lace and diamond ornaments.

Mrs. Percy Lord, lilac green silk, with trimmings of white lace.

Mrs. Henry Eaton, elegant costume of pale pink satin and black brocade velvet, with adornments of pink ostrich feathers, diamonds.

Mrs. Henry Pike, pearl colored silk, with diamond ornaments.

Mrs. Ernest T. Lee, costume of red silk and red tulle.

Mrs. Frank Woods, rich white satin.

Mrs. C. W. Young, pale blue silk, with silver trimmings and silver ornaments.

Mrs. Lewis Dexter, of Milltown, handsome black lace.

Mrs. C. H. Eaton, of Milltown, pink terra cotta velvet, diamond ornaments.

Miss Mina Downes, yellow surah silk, with white trimmings.

Miss Kate Washburne, black lace dress.

Miss Josephine Moore, white silk gauze, with sash of white surah silk.

Miss Nellie Hill, black lace dress.

Miss Laura Burns, black silk, with gold ornaments.

Miss Nellie Smith, shrimp pink moire, covered with silver brocade gauze; diamond necklace.

Miss Mabel Murchie, white surah silk, with trimmings of pale pink.

Mrs. Frank Lowell, a lovely white tulle dress.

Mrs. Frank Deming, garnet silk, with Medius collar, ornaments, gold.

Mrs. Parker Pike, pale blue, and black silk costume.

Mrs. Wilford Eaton, pearl colored silk; diamond ornaments.

Mrs. Jed Duren, rich black lace, with pearl ornaments.

Mrs. Edmund Brown, costume of black and mauve silk.

Mrs. E. B. Todd, elegant black silk, with panels of gold satin, diamonds.

Miss McNichol, black lace, with diamond ornaments.

Miss Helen McNichol, white surah silk.

Miss Todd, pale pink silk, with trimmings of pink crepe.

Miss Alice Todd, of Milltown, pale yellow silk and plush costume.

Mrs. Cullinan, white silk, with ornaments of pearls.

Miss Alice Cullinan, pink tulle dress and pearls.

Mrs. Harris, white lawn, yellow surah sash.

Miss Lizzie Jackson, gripped silk, with gold ornaments.

Among the guests invited from St. Stephen were: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Young, Miss Bolton, Miss Harris, Miss Mary Abbot, Miss Nellie Smith, the Misses Cullinan, Miss Margaret Todd, Mr. E. Gannon, Mr. John M. Mr. J. T. Whitlock, Mr. Harry Graham, Mr. Alex. Cullinan, and Mr. Harry Petrick.

Col. and Mrs. Neil are still in Boston, where they intend to remain until Colonel Neil has improved in health. His many friends in Calais hope to have him among them again before many days. There have been some hints of a dramatic entertainment for the benefit of the public library. I have not heard of any definite plans, but hear some very energetic ladies are taking it in hand. No doubt, the public will enjoy something new in the way of entertainment before very long. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Boies are receiving congratulations on the birth of a baby daughter. Mrs. Chapman returned from St. John on Friday last. Miss Bessie Bridges, of Fredericton, is the guest of Mrs. C. H. Smith. Miss Mary Vose, of Milltown, has gone to Chicago to spend the winter months with friends in that city. Miss Bern Main has returned from New York city, having spent a month with her sister, Mrs. Harry Mowatt. Mr. J. D. Chapman left on Friday for Toronto, where he will visit his sister, Mrs. W. H. Howland. Gen. S. J. Gallagher, of Washington, made a short visit to Calais a few days ago, among friends. Mrs. S. H. Blair is preparing to leave this week for Boston, where she will remain during the winter.
