Mrs. M. Rutherford, accompanied by her sister, Miss Atherton, have gone to Butte City to spend the fall and winter.
A quiet wedding party gathered at the Congregational parsonage, Calais, on Monday, to witness the marriage of Dr. Chas. Swan, to Mrs. Minnie Horton. The Rev. C. E. McCully performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was handsomely attired in an elegant travelling costume of grey, with bonnet to match. Immediately after the ceremony they left in the noon train for a wedding trip to Boston and New York. The presents were very handsome, and said to be the costliest ever presented in Calais. Dr. and Mrs. Swan have the best wishes of their many friends here.

Miss Alice Stevens arrived from Boston this week and proceeded at once to St. George, where she is visiting friends.

Mrs. James Murray has returned from her visit to Springfield.

Invitations were out for a drive to Robbinston yesterday, but owing to the rain it was postponed until a later date.

Mr. J. E. Ganong went to St. John on Monday for a short visit.

No small excitement was caused on Sunday afternoon when the steamer Oleette, from Bar Harbor with a number of excursionists, appeared in our river. The Oleette steamed up the river about five o'clock, remaining some fifteen or twenty minutes. There was a band on board which played most delightfully during the time the steamer was at the wharf. The Oleette is said to be the largest craft that ever sailed up the St. Croix.

Mr. Gilbert Ganong has so far recovered as to be able to be about town again.

Mrs. T. J. Smith accompanied by her daughter, Miss Berta Smith and Miss Grahame, left on Monday morning for Halifax, where the young ladies will remain for some months devoting themselves to study.

Chief Justice Allen and Judge Tuck opened the circuit court this morning.

SAKENVILLE.

[Progress is for sale in Sackville at C. H. Moore's bookstore.]

Sept. 10.—Dorchester has taken up the thread of life just where Sackville left off. Mr. J. A. MacQueen and Mr. T. Murray attended a jolly dance given by Miss Chapman on Wednesday evening. Everything and everybody was very agreeable, even the girls, as I believe the boys did not arrive home till half-past nine the next morning.

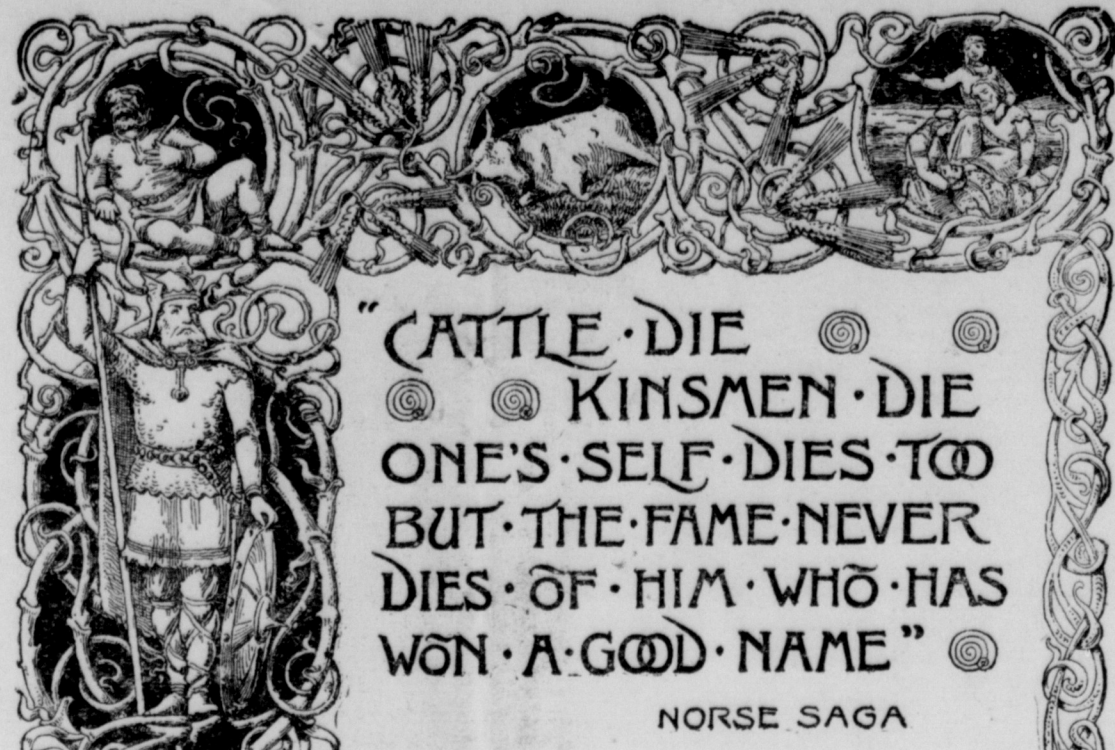

On Friday evening Mrs. Oulton entertained her large circle of friends both here and in Dorchester. It being a fine night and the road to Dorchester especially adapted for a romantic drive our young enjoyed it almost as much as the dance.

The many friends of Mrs. T. B. Millidge here will be interested to hear that she carried off the palm at Mrs. Oulton's party, and was considered the belle of the evening.

The academies having opened on Thursday I hope to hear no more remarks about there being no young people in Sackville, for I think now, we have as many as we can well take care of. Every train for the last week brought a fresh bevy of girls and boys all ready to begin their winter's work after the long holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack, Miss Mack and Miss King have returned much to the delight of their friends.

St. Paul's church mourns the loss of the young organist, Mr. Wry, who left for Boston this week, where he has charge of an organ and a surprised

THE FAME OF NESTLE'S FOOD

WILL NEVER DIE
IT HAS WON FOR ITSELF A GOOD NAME

It came into existence twenty-three years ago in response to a great cry for help from mothers in European cities, whose children were dying from Cholera Infantum. From that time on NESTLE'S FOOD has been regarded as the safest diet and best preventive of Cholera Infantum and other Summer Complaints.

A sample will be sent to any mother mentioning this paper.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hewson, of Moncton, were in town on Monday.

Mrs. Keellor, of Dorchester, was in town on Saturday seeing her friends.

Mrs. Dora Dickson, of Moncton, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. B. Atkinson.

Mrs. Thomas Estabrooks returned on Saturday from a pleasant visit to Halifax.

Miss Minnie Estabrooks still finds St. John attractive.

Mr. Phinney, M. P. P., and Miss Phinney were in town last week. Miss Phinney expects to attend the academy for the winter.

Miss Sutherland, who has been living in Chicago for some years is on a visit to her parents.

I hear of a tin wedding that is to take place at the home of one of our prominent residents. After all the summer gaiety "Cupid" might have treated us with something more exciting.

A great many people took advantage of the fine evening on Saturday to assemble at "Crane's Corner" to listen to the band, but through some misunderstanding they "got left" as the slang phrase goes.

Six of our local sportsmen drove to the head of the lake on Monday afternoon to try their luck at downing the teatery fowl. They reported the birds as few and far between, but were entertained at the hospitable mansion of David Sears. I heard one gentleman say he had not enjoyed such a good supper for years.
