What SCHOFIELD & CO. say: We have much pleasure in stating that the Caligraph purchased from you has been in constant use in our office for several years, and is still in good order. We consider it invaluable as a time-saver.

REV. C. G. McCULLY writes: A point of special value in the Caligraph, resulting from the absence of shifting keys, is the readiness with which original composition may be executed. From my experience, and that of many personal friends using the Caligraph, composition soon comes to be executed with greater readiness than with the pen. So great do I deem its utility that I would purchase a machine every year

E. C. Abbott, Esq., 25 East 14th Street, New York, writes: I was in St. John three years since, and not being well, was advised to try your Dinner Pills, from the use of which I derived great benefit. Please forward one dollar's worth (money enclosed). Some months later—please send another dollar's worth of your Pills (money enclosed). I find them the best I ever used, in fact they are splendid, and no one should be without them in health or out of health.

W. B. Gedney, Gates Ave., Brooklyn, writes: Please forward one dollar's worth of your Pills (money enclosed) having used them and knowing they are what you represent them to be, I desire a further supply.

A. B. Chamberlain, Elmira City, N. Y., writes: A friend informed me a few days since of the benefit he derived from the use of your Dinner Pills in obstinate and protracted Dyspepsia. Being a sufferer, I enclose one dollar for its value in Pills. Please forward at once as I am in immediate need of them.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Calais, Etc. A "grand success" was the verdict universally expressed by those who attended the ball given last Monday evening by the bachelors of St. John. A more enjoyable entertainment in every particular it would be almost imposible to conceive. Many were the conjectures and comments last week, as to the desirability of the place chosen for such an affair, and many, if not all, were agreeably surprised on entering the ball room on Monday evening, to find such a thorough transformation of the old and hitherto dingy Mechanics' Institute rooms, and could see the managing committee had had no easy task in bringing all the arrangements to such perfection. Not a fault could be found with either the floor, music, supper, or floor committee, the latter performing their onerous duties to the utmost satisfaction of all.

The room, formerly known as the museum was used for dancing, while the rooms on either side were reserved for supper, reception rooms, etc. The dressing rooms were ample both for the ladies and gentlemen. The decorations were in very good taste, and consisted of numerous flags, banners, Japanese lanterns, while flowers, foliage, and Roman berries were used in great profusion. When the ball was at its height the scene was one which will not soon be forgotten, the different colors of the ladies dresses blending well with the surroundings. It was a happy thought to invite the officers of the Artillery, Fusiliers, and Rifles which, while being a return for many hospitalities received in a similar way from our militia officers, did much to enhance the appearance of the scene by the many bright uniforms which were seen on the floor.

Notwithstanding the short invitation given, many of the ladies present appeared in exquisite new toilettes made for the occasion, and I heard of many dressmakers whose busy fingers were at work almost to the last moment. As there were fully two hundred ladies present, it would be impossible to describe the costumes of all, but I will mention all

The marriage of Dr. J. W. Daniel and Miss Jessie

P. Ennis was solemnized in the Centenary church at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Daniel, father of the groom, assisted by Rev. Howard Sprague. The bride wore a travelling costume of brown cloth, with hat to match. Her bridesmaid, Miss Fannie Palmer, wore a dress and hat of the same color. Mr. I. Allen Jack acted as groomsman. The choir of the church, of which the bride has been organist for several years, sang appropriate hymns, and the wedding march was played by the new organist, Miss Alice Hea. Immediately after the ceremony, the bride and groom, attended by several friends, drove to the State of Maine, on which they took passage for Boston. The bride was the recipient of many elegant gifts, among which was a massive gold bracelet from the groom, and a cabinet containing a full set of silver from the choir and congregation of the church. Dr. and Mrs. Daniel will be absent about ten days or a fortnight. After their return, they will reside in the residence lately built by him on Princess street. Mr. H. Russell Sturdee leaves by the C. P. R. on Monday night for Montana.

Mrs. T. Wm. Bell gave a very pleasant afternoon At Home on Wednesday last at her residence, Germain street, to a number of friends. The guests present enjoyed the never failing cup of tea and other light refreshments.

Mr. James Mowatt, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has rented the residence, Carleton street, lately vacated by Dr. Murray Maclaren. Mr. and Mrs. Mowatt will remain in St. John about a year. A most enjoyable At Home was given on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. G. R. Pugsley at her residence, Chipman's hill. Cards of invitation had been issued to upwards of 100 lady guests (there being no gentlemen present) and between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock the large drawing rooms were well filled. A table filled with all the delicacies that could tempt the appetite was laid in the dining room, and was most artistically decorated with flowers and rowan berries. Mrs. Pugsley was assisted in entertaining her guests by her sisters, Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. George F. Smith wore a dark green velvet dress made en traine, with petticoat of cream colored Mrs. W. Pugsley. The rooms were so crowded one could hardly remember all who were present, but

Wishart, Mrs. and Miss Skinner and others.

On Thursday evening Miss Gertie Dever entertained a few young friends at a card party, which was a very pleasant affair.

Yesterday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. R. Peniston Starr gave a pleasant afternoon at home, and o'clock tea to a large number of their friends. Unlike the entertainments of this kind given lately, gentlemen were included on the cards of invitation. Refreshments of all kinds were provided for the guests and upwards of 80 availed themselves of the kind hospitality of their host and hostess.

The Misses Seely entertained a few of their young friends last evening at their residence Dorchester street at a drive whist party and a very jolly evening

The fruit, flowers and vegetable used in the different churches last Sunday for the harvest thanksgiving decorations were dispensed among the sick of the parishes, and an abundant supply were sent to the hospitals and other public institutions.

Miss Henry Titus left last Friday for her home in Boston, accompanied by Mrs. Geo. E. Fairweather. Miss Titus, who has been spending the summer with Miss Fairweather, of Sewell street, returns home on Saturday.

Coburg Street Christian church was the scene of a very interesting event on Wednesday, an event that was something of a novelty in the modest little church on the hill. It was the marriage of Mr. Robert A. Christie to Miss Josie J. Morrison. The ceremony was performed by Elder T. H. Capp, and attracted a large number of people outside of the
