"CASEY TAP."

Some Fame and Shekels.

Some western paper, thinking the profile of "Casey Tap" regular and beautiful enough to adorn its columns, went to the expense of having it engraved. As it has not come under the notice of many if any of Progress' readers, this paper secured the loan of the plate for reprinting. A short note from the editor asked Mr.

Tapley for the tacts for a sketch, in reply to which he sends the following characteristic letter:

As regards a "sketch," I have nothing to offer, except that my efforts have appeared in the columns of such papers as Judge, Frank Leslie's Newspaper, Time, Racket, Tit-Bits, N. Y. World, N. Y. Graphic, Portland Transcript, Peck's Sun, Boston Globe, etc., etc., many of which verses have been very liberally acknowledged, pecuniarily. I guess that's all the suffering public desire to know, until I have established myselt, as it were, and the name of Tapley is in the mouth of every one who is interested in poetry or asylum statistics. This stuff of mine is all written in my leisure moments, as a means | short visit. of killing what spare time I have in my as a delegate to the Sabbath school union conven-"den," at home. Claim no merit whatever | tion. for any of my screeds, and, in fact, am knocked breathless each time the mail brings me a New York cheque. I write them-attach either my "truly" name or my pen name-shove them in the mail, and-and-"there ye are!" Often-in tact, I may say, quite often, without fear of successful contradiction—the stuff is returned, but out it goes to some other victim-whom I occasionally will land.

Very truly, etc., K. C. TAPLEY.

The Canadian reprints of Rudyard Kipling's novels are fast following the original publication. Kipling's popularit has been of the same rapid growth as Haggard's, Conway's, and other writers of that stamp. A collection of his short stories-which is his strong point-has been published in cheap form by John Lovell & Sons, of Montreal, and are for sale at McMillan's. Popular price, a quarter.

A Little Girl's Story.

One day a lisping little girl ran into the house and said to her mother: "Look, mother, what I found on the sidewalk, a pair of thitherth."

Sure enough, she had found a pair of scissors, and her mother patted her on the head and told her what a good little girl she was to bring the scissors home.

The little girl was praised so much for her deed that she was beguiled into saying: "I thaw five or thix other pairth of thizzerth on the thidewalk, but I thought

I wouldn't pick 'em up." Then the little girl had to be whipped for lying .- Texas Siftings.

It was Mr. Emerson who said, "The first wealth is health," and it was a wiser than the modern pilosopher who said that "the blood is the life." The system, like the clock, runs down. It needs winding up. The blood gets poor and scores of diseases result. It needs a tonic to enrich it. A certain wise doctor, after years of patient study, discovered a medicine which purified the blood, gave tone to the system, and made men—tired, nervous, brain-wasting men—feel like new. He called it his "Golden Medical Discovery." It has been sold for years, sold by the million of bottles and people found such satisfaction in it that Dr. Pierce, who discovered it, now feels warranted in selling it under a positive guarantee of its done good in all cases.

"In the spring of 1853, at Portsmouth, Va., I was prostrated by a severe attack of typhoid pneumonia. My physicians exhausted their remedies, and for one year I was not able to even articulate a word. By the advice of Dr. Shaw I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and to my surprise and great joy, in less than one month I could converse easily, in a natural tone of voice. I continued to improve and have become since a well man. I have often recommended the Pectoral, and have never known it to fail." - George R. Lawrence, Valparaiso, Ind.
