

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Colville, Etc.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wilson left this week for Westfield, where they intend spending the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Godfrey, have the sympathy of a great number of friends in St. John, on the sad loss of their youngest child, which occurred soon after their arrival at Montreal.

Mr. A. C. Thomson, of the Bank of Montreal, returned home from his holiday trip to the States this week; his sister, Miss Thomson, of Halifax, accompanied him to St. John, and is the guest of the Misses Bayard, Germain street.

Miss Alice DeVeber, who has been visiting Gagetown, returned home the first of the week.

Mrs. Crane, a well known St. John lady at present residing in England, will, I hear, visit this city next month.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. King, who have been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Richey, in Chicago, have returned home, after spending a few weeks in Boston, en route for St. John.

Sir William and Lady Ritchie, of Ottawa, are visiting St. John this week, but will not return for the summer months just yet.

Mr. Albert Gregory, of Fredericton, spent a few days in the city this week.

Miss Ethel Parks, West Bank, held one of her pleasant At Homes, on Tuesday last. The young people finished up with a dance.

Mrs. Woodford Smith, of Fredericton, has come to St. John to make her home with her sister, Mrs. E. Symonds, Peter street.

Another sudden death occurred this week, to add to the many sad things which have happened in St. John during the past few months. I refer to Mrs. Christie, wife of Dr. Christie, Wellington row, who after a few days illness, died of paralysis of the throat.

The deceased was well known to be out for two or three days the first of the week, and intended to receive the gift of Confirmation on Friday last, but was too unwell to leave the house. From that day she never rallied, and passed away on Monday morning. She leaves a husband and two children. These, with her mother and sister, Mrs. and Miss Stephenson, have the sympathy of many.

Capt. Scott Gray, commander of H. M. S. Forward, at present in Halifax, spent this week in St. John. He was accompanied by Mrs. Gray. Capt. Gray is a son of the late Judge Gray, formerly of St. John, who recently died in British Columbia. Although but a boy when he left St. John, there were many of his father's old friends who were glad to welcome him back. He has also some relatives in St. John.

Many ladies who visit the city hospital are much interested in the young man Loftus, who was recently injured by jumping off a car, which accident resulted in the amputation of a leg. The young lad appears to be well educated, and is probably of good family. It seems to be a case that could be helped by some of our benevolent ladies, who are always willing to do what they can for the suffering and needy. The charitable and aid committee of St. George's society have remembered this case as well as many others, but much more might be done for the young man laid up in the hospital without friends or money.

ST. JOHN-NORTH END.

MAY 1.—Miss Morrison, of Chatham, is the guest of Mrs. N. Shaw, Main street.

Mr. Roberts, of Albert street, arrived home from Boston on Saturday last.

Postmaster Miles has been quite ill for a few days past with a nervous attack, but is much better.

Mrs. Phillips has moved to her old home on the Douglas Road.

Mr. David Tapley was confined to the house for a few days this week.

Messrs. Carvill have moved to their old home on Waterloo street, where they will remain for a short time.

Miss Emma Roberts, who was visiting here for a few months, and who was formerly a resident of Douglas Road, is now married to St. Paul's church, on Wednesday morning, to Dr. J. A. Magee, her sister, Miss Marion, the bride, and Mrs. Magee left on Wednesday for Washington, and on their return will reside at the South End. The bride carries with her the best wishes of many friends.

Last Sunday the baptism of Mrs. J. Purdy's little daughter took place at St. Luke's church. Mrs. Ellard, great-grandmother of the child, was present.

Miss Molly Chesley, daughter of Mrs. J. A. Chesley, entertained a party of her juvenile friends on Tuesday, from 4 to 9 p.m.

ST. JOHN-WEST END.

Mr. Isaac Olive, who has been very ill for some time, breathed his last on Thursday the 24th, at his residence on Prince street. His death was much regretted by the residents of the West End, as he was universally known and loved, and was one of the oldest and most respected citizens. He was born in 1812, and all his life was a resident in our midst. He began life as a laborer in his father's shipyard, rising from one position to another until he finally took the whole charge, conducting the business for seventeen years, when he received his appointment in the custom house. He was married to Mrs. Olive, his wife, who died several months ago.

Mr. Olive married Miss Loranah Lee, daughter of Mr. John Lee, of Lee's Cove, Lancashire, who with his nine sons, six of whom are now in the army, having been celebrated about two or three years ago. Strange to say, that in Mr. Olive's large family not one death has occurred during these many years. All but one of his nine sons are married, and are living in different parts of Canada and the United States. They are: W. H. Olive, Montreal; John Olive, Halifax; Fred Olive, Boston; Fred Olive, New York; Albert Olive, Moncton; Chip, Isaac and Frank Olive, St. John. They were all present at the funeral, which took place on Sunday at 2 p.m. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Marshall and Rev. Mr. Weddall, of St. Stephen, who spoke in very feeling terms of the deceased. Mr. Mayes, Mr. Sheldon, Mrs. Stewart and Miss Mullin sang very touchingly the beautiful anthem, "Passing Away." Not an eye was dry through the singing, and as the sweet strains floated through the room they seemed to bid all grief be still, telling of the joyful tomorrow which comes to the soul who has departed. When the funeral cortege reached the Methodist Burying Ground on Lancaster Heights, the casket was gently lifted and borne by six of the deceased's sons, to the side of the grave, where the last rites were performed, and the remains consigned to their resting place. The funeral was a very long one, and many of the custom house officials attended in a body. Mr. Olive was one of the most kind and generous who had a kind word and pleasant smile for everyone alike, and no one has ever been more esteemed than he was by the people of the West End. We may well say, "To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die," and too great a tribute cannot be paid to the memory of the departed, as his kindly words and deeds will ever live in the hearts and memories of all who knew him.

Miss Mabel Hunter, of Fredericton, spent a few days last week at the West End, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Sme, on Prince street.

Mr. Arthur Clark has returned from his business trip through Nova Scotia.

Mr. John McKinnon, of the Albert School, is confined to his house with a very severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Purdy have taken up their residence on Duke street.

Miss Hill, of New Westminster, British Columbia, is the guest of Mrs. Henry Leonard, on Prince street.

Mrs. Joseph and the children, Mr. Clarence Clark, moved on Thursday to their future home on Orange street, East End.

Miss Edith Peters is expected to return on Monday from her visit to Westwood.

Rev. Mr. Weddall, of St. Stephen, at one time pastor of the West End Methodist church, was with us a short time last week. He returned on Monday to St. Stephen.

Mr. Howe Allan, of Hampton, has rented Mrs. Mary Thompson's house on Prince street. Mr. Allan and his family arrived at the West End on Thursday, and took possession of their new home.

Mr. McSorley and his family, who have been residing at the East End, have moved to the West End, and now occupy the McLean cottage.

On the 1st of May, Mrs. Musgrave left with her two children to join her husband at Tacoma, Wash. She was accompanied by Miss Musgrave, who will shortly return to make her home in New Brunswick.

Dr. Musgrave, who left some time ago for Tacoma, is said to be doing a splendid business, and he and Mrs. Musgrave have the sincere wishes of their friends in their new home.

Mrs. John Collins, of New York, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Murphy, widow of the late Dr. Murphy, of Fredericton, on Tower road, Lancaster, is this week passing a few days with friends at the East End.

I hear that Rev. T. E. Dowling, who was, some years ago, rector of St. George's church, but is now in Jerusalem, has written to friends in New Brunswick that he will probably visit St. John again next year, and in the meantime will return to his work in Palestine, which he finds to be full of interest.

Mr. Clarence Wallace, who has rented Brunswick cottage, at Lancaster Heights, for the term of five years, moved in with his family on Thursday.

Mr. J. Herbert Wright, who bought Mr. D. W. Clark's handsome residence some time ago, is now occupying it with his family.

Mr. D. W. Clark will reside in Mrs. Joseph Clark's house on King street.

On Sunday Rev. G. A. Hartley, of the West End P. C. Church, conducted the services in the Baptist church at Sussex, in place of his son, Rev. F. C. Hartley, who has been obliged to take a short rest.

Misses Mary and Margie Nealis, who have been pursuing their studies at the Sacred Heart convent, on Waterloo street, East End, have been home since Friday week, owing to the illness of one of their mother, Mrs. J. E. U. Nealis, at Fort Dufferin. Mrs. Nealis has all the heartfelt sympathy in her illness of all those to whose sorrowing hearts her soothing words have in the past brought comfort and consolation.

Mrs. Foster, who has been residing on Prince street, leaves this week for the West End, to reside on Rockland road. Mrs. Foster's sister from Norway, who has been visiting her, will return to Norway in a few weeks, accompanied by her mother, who has also been spending some time with Mrs. Foster.

PETTS MOTES.

FRERICTON.

APRIL 30.—It was with the deepest regret that I learned my letter of last week failed to put in an appearance in time for that issue. Either the Fredericton or St. John post office is responsible for the delay. My letter was posted at the serial time.

The entertainment given by the Women's Aid Association in the church hall on Thursday evening, was very successful and largely attended. Mr. John Black acted as chairman.

The musical programme comprised selections by the R. S. I. orchestra; vocal solo by Mrs. Will Jeffrey; St. Mary's; violin solo, Miss Bailey; piano solo, Miss Stanger; solo, Mr. Gillibrand; piano solo, Miss Bessie Babbitt; solo, Miss Lugin; all of which were heartily applauded. Coffee, cocoa, cake, etc., etc., were served at the close of the programme, the orchestra played some fine selections while the audience enjoyed the good music.

Mrs. Silas Alward, of St. John, was in Fredericton last week for a few days, visiting her friends. She was the guest of Mrs. A. H. F. Randolph, Waterloo row. She returned home on Monday.

Dr. H. D. McManus has gone to Bath, Carleton county, to practice his profession.

Mrs. Mathew Wilson, of St. John, is moving to Fredericton, where she will make her future home. They have taken the house on the corner of George and Northumberland streets.

Mrs. V. Tippet, of St. John, is visiting friends. She is the guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Tippet, Waterloo row.

Mr. George Botsford, clerk of the executive council, and Mr. George Botsford, clerk of the legislative council, are both confined to their homes by illness.

Mr. John Black, a son of Mr. William A. Black, who has recently been visiting Fredericton, had one of the fingers of his right hand badly injured Monday, while playing base ball.

Mr. Will Allen and family are moving to the house at the corner of Regent and Neeldam streets.

Mr. Stanger, who has been occupying this house, is moving into his own on Charlotte street, which he has been undergoing very extensive repairs.

Mr. Flewelling is moving into the cottage on George street owned by Mrs. Roberts, opposite the rectory.

Mr. Lister and family are breaking up house-keeping, and are going to board. Mrs. Lister is going to St. John to visit friends there for a time.

On Wednesday at the Cathedral, Medley Richards, of Edmundston, was married to Miss Gertrude Reid, sister of Mrs. Alex. Gibson, Jr., of Marysville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Alexander.

Dr. Fletcher, brother of Mrs. McNutt, arrived in Fredericton on Friday from Rio de Janeiro, where he spent the last two years, and will remain a short time with his friends here.

Mr. Harry McNalley is very ill with diphtheria at his father's residence, Brunswick street.

A very pretty little octavo, entitled "To a Water Lily," was published in the Herald on Saturday, written by Master William Carman Roberts, third son of Rector Roberts and brother of Prof. Roberts. This youthful poet is only 15 years of age, and is the third member of this family to exhibit a high order of poetic talent.

The Girls' Mission Band in connection with the Church of England, will hold a social entertainment in the church hall, on Thursday evening, May 8. The programme is a musical programme, and refreshments will be served during the evening.

Miss Tot Dowling, youngest daughter of Major Dowling, of the N. W. Mounted Police, formerly of Fredericton, and Mr. H. A. Costigan, collector of inland revenue for Manitoba and the Northwest, were married last week, and are coming east on their bridal tour.

MARYSVILLE.

APRIL 30.—Mrs. James Gibson gave a large tea party for her daughters, Bessie and Edith, on Saturday evening. Several of their juvenile friends from Fredericton were present.

Mrs. Thomas Likely has gone to St. John for a few weeks.

Rev. Dr. Sprague returned on Saturday from Hampton, where he had gone to attend the funeral of his sister-in-law.

Mrs. C. L. Hatt spent a few days in St. John this week.

Mrs. Alfred Rowley has been suffering from a severe cold, but is now convalescent.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tapley were called to St. John last week by the illness of their daughter, Miss Florrie, who has been spending the winter with her grandfather, Mr. John Tapley, North End. They returned on Tuesday, leaving Miss Florrie much improved.

The choir of the Methodist church, Gibson, held a concert and social in the hall there, on Tuesday evening. The programme was very successful, and several present from Marysville, and all enjoyed it very much. "Scribbler" could not get a copy of the programme, but I hear the choir did very well. Miss Edith, daughter of Mr. Tapley, sang "Marguerite" very sweetly. The choruses by the choir were very fine; also a trio, "The Skylark," by the Misses Phinney, Burpee and Simmons. After the concert, light refreshments were served by a number of waiters, who looked "pretty as pink" in their white aprons and little pink caps.

MONCTON.

APRIL 30.—Tomorrow will be May day, but somehow I don't think we will celebrate the occasion this year by dancing around a maypole. It is too cold, for one thing, and for another, there aren't any flowers, except those you buy on the train for five cents a bunch.

Things are getting to look up in matrimonial circles, greatly aided by PROGRESS, which has carried balm to many a sore and yearning heart. Its "Advice to People about to be Married" is the most interesting and useful thing I have read for some time. It is a book that every young man and woman who is willing to have us.

Mr. R. W. Simpson, of the engineering department, has been absent from town for some weeks on professional business, and he has been greatly missed by his large circle of friends.

News is being received to be thankful for. Miss Weidon has at last returned, after an absence of four months, and she looks, if possible, more charming than ever, after her long sojourn in the city of fog. I also hear rumors of the speedy return of Miss Addie and Miss Maggie McKean.

Rev. John Prince and Mrs. Prince arrived in town last Thursday evening, and proceeded to their home on Church street. They were warmly welcomed by their many friends, and still more warmly congratulated. Mrs. Prince conducted church on Sunday, and will visit her friends this week.

Mr. H. T. Stevens, M. P. P., returned last Thursday from Fredericton, in company with several other members of the legislature.

Dr. James McAllister, late of Fredericton, who has been spending the past week with his parents on Botsford street, Dr. McAllister intends leaving for Melrose next week, so this is a farewell visit to his friends.

Mrs. McGowan, of Charlottetown, who has been spending the winter with Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hocken, left Moncton last week, crossing to her Island home by the first boat of the season. Mrs. McGowan was accompanied by a number of warm friends during her visit to Moncton, and her departure leaves a blank that will be hard to fill.

Mrs. J. R. Bruce gave a very enjoyable whist party last Friday evening, at which some thirty guests were present. After the games had been lost and won, and the fortunate prize winners had received their trophies, a carter dance was indulged in, which proved a delightful winding up to the evening.

Mrs. S. Thomson, of Newcastle, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. J. Butcher, returned to her home on Tuesday, to the great regret of her friends.

I heard this week that Canada is to lose another of her fair daughters. This time it is Mrs. Williamson, formerly Miss Annie McKean, who intends removing from her present home at Chipman, Grand Lake, early next month, and taking up her residence in New York, whither Mr. Williamson's business will take him.

I am afraid we lost Mrs. Williamson long ago, and that when she conferred her hand and heart on a native of the Great Republic she actually went over to the land of the stars and stripes at the same time, but we only realize the fact now when it is brought so unpleasantly before our eyes. It is a way our girls seem to have lately, and I suppose we may as well be resigned and wish Mr. and Mrs. Williamson all possible prosperity and happiness in their new home, commencing in the near future.

The many Moncton friends of Mr. William Brown, station agent at Salisbury, but formerly of Moncton, will hear with regret of his death, which took place last night. Mr. Brown had been ill health for some time past, never having fully recovered from an attack of typhoid fever last year, which left him in an enfeebled state, and finally developed into consumption. Mr. Brown leaves a young widow and a number of little children.

The funeral took place this morning from the house to St. Benard's R. C. church, where requiem high mass was celebrated, the interment taking place in the family burying ground at Fox Creek. The size of the funeral procession and the number and beauty of the floral tributes showed to some slight extent the affectionate regard in which Mr. McSweeney was held, and the general sorrow felt for his early death. He leaves one child, a baby daughter.

Hon. Judge Lamby, accompanied by Mrs. Lamby, paid a visit to Moncton on Thursday last. The Rev. Osborne Troop, formerly of St. John, was in town on Monday.

DORCHESTER.

[Progress is for sale in Dorchester at George M. Fairweather's store.]

APRIL 30.—Mr. J. F. Teed left on Monday for a business trip to Cape Breton, where, it seems to me, he is obliged to spend all his time. He will return in a week or two.

Hon. A. D. Richard is once more on our streets, having returned from his legislative duties at Fredericton. He is kept pretty busy with all the questions about the "whitewash bill," but bears quizzing with perfect equanimity, never once losing that air of reserved dignity which so distinguishes (and becomes) him.

Mrs. W. B. Robinson, of St. John, is in Dorchester, the guest of Mrs. George W. Chandler. Mrs. Robinson is on her way back to her home, after visiting her daughter in Truro.

Hon. D. L. Hanington returned on Friday from Fredericton tired, but in no way discouraged, after his efforts to "kick the end up." He spent yesterday at his first office in Moncton.

For the first time in its history, Dorchester has as one of its residents a real live judge, and one who will not be afraid to speak his mind.

Turner & Finlay, 12 KING STREET.

Which are the real Flowers, and which the make believe? A humming bird might go wrong. The delicate odors that nature gives haven't been simulated; but the shapes, the tints, the hang of bud and blossom, the droop and turn of leaf are as exact in those that grew under scissors and nimble fingers as in those that have been earth-nursed and dew-kissed.

Roses, Violets, Butter Cups, Poppies, Sweet Peas, Forget-me-Nots, Verbenas, Nasturtiums, Apple Blossoms, Wall Flowers, Daisies, Lilies, Pansies, Wistaria, Sweet Briar, Narcissus, Wall Flowers.

Buds just bursting and dozens of combinations for millinery use.

As beautiful as the true, as sunlitly in the house, a hundred times more lasting and always at their best; no wonder Artificial Flowers have won their way with everybody.

Ladies' Kid Gloves, 85 cts. pair.

BAIRD'S FRENCH OINTMENT.

THIS OINTMENT has been used with the greatest success in the speedy cure of all eruptions arising from an impure state of the blood or from infection. It relieves and cures ECZEMA, SALT RHEUM, ITCH, SCURFY, BOILS, PILES, ULCERS, CHAPPED HANDS and LIPS, INSECT STINGS, etc. In use 50 years. 25 cents.

Mr. Charles S. Hickman left on Tuesday for a brief visit to St. John, whither he has gone to be present at the sale of the Chandler estate stocks.

Mr. R. W. Hewson, of Moncton, spent Sunday in Dorchester, with Mrs. G. W. Chandler. Mr. Hewson is spending a week here with her mother.

Miss Bessie Backhouse spent a few days in Moncton last week.

Mr. George H. Turner has given up the practice of the law in Dorchester, and removed to Moncton, where he is now engaged in the Intercolonial freight office. While in Dorchester, he presided at a trial held in his native place, Dorchester people can but wish him increased prosperity in his chosen line.

Mr. Adam Tremblin, of Westmorland Point, spent Sunday in Dorchester, the guest of Mr. Hiram W. Palmer.

Tomorrow begins the sale, at auction, of all the household furniture and effects of late Mrs. E. B. Chandler. One can scarcely believe that all that costly old plate and venerable mahogany is to pass forever from the hands of the family, who for generations have dwelt on the big stone house on the hill, and that in all probability "Rocklyn" will soon shelter a family of another name than Chandler. Many people are planning to capture the quaint old furniture and china, and doubtless competition will be keen and prices high. Bargain seekers are expected from Amherst and St. John, as well as Moncton and other places.

Mr. H. C. Hanington came down from Moncton to spend Sunday at home, as is his custom.

Miss Phoebe Chandler, who has been living with her mother in St. John since Christmas, is to be married in about a month to Mr. W. R. Racey, the well known manager of the Commercial Bank. The wedding, unfortunately, is to take place in St. John, and Dorchester people, or the great majority of them, will deprive from his opportunity of witnessing the marriage of two people who have been long known and well liked by all.

And weddings are so scarce here now, too!

Mrs. T. G. Miller, of St. John, is in Dorchester, the guest of Mrs. George W. Chandler.

Miss Fanny S. Chandler made a short visit to Moncton last week.

Dorchester people, though not surprised by the intelligence, are grieved to hear of the death of Mr. John McSweeney, of Moncton. His young wife still scarcely more than a bride, has many warm friends in Dorchester.

Mr. M. G. Teed spent yesterday in Albert.

Mr. Arthur N. Chambers, who recently gave up practicing law here in order to try the wider field of Moncton, may still occasionally be seen in our little town, and it was only yesterday that he visited us with Messrs. Campbell, Hanington, Turner, Charters and a lot of others all leaving us, Dorchester is rapidly becoming destitute of young men, and with the dearth of general business, is falling a victim to the grim reaper, our outlook as a town is dark, even though we have secured the new jail and the judgeship.

Mr. E. W. McDougal, of Sackville, was registered here on Friday, as was also Mr. A. W. Bennett on Monday.
