EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst,

Despite the damp weather of Tuesday evening, a very jolly party assembled at Queen's square, at 8 o'clock, where a monster sleigh was waiting to drive them out to Riverside, to the residence of Mr. E. Secord. It is needless to say the young people did not find the distance from the city too long, though the remainder of the evening was quite as enjoyable. Refreshments were provided by the ladies present, each carrying with them a basket of dainties. Dancing was kept up until past midnight, and about 2 o'clock a. m. a very tired party reached the city. Among those present, were Mrs. J. Rainnie, Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. Lindsay, Mrs. Secord, Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Lawton, Mrs. Forbes, the Misses McKean, Calhoun, Barbour, Blaine, Robertson, Johnston, McKean (Moncton), Messrs. Botsford, Lindsay, Blair, Foster, Barbour, Payne, McLellan, Colwell, Clarke, Read, McAvity, Knodell, Robinson and others.

Mr., Mrs. and Miss Edwards, of Halifax, spent last week in St. John.

Mrs. Garden, of Woodstock, spent last week in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Maclauchlan (Coburg street).

Miss Grace Campbell, who has been visiting Digby, N. S., was summoned home in consequence of the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Partelow, who, after a lingering illness, passed away on Saturday last at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Charles Campbell. Miss Campbell returned to Digby Thursday morning.

Judge and Mrs. Wetmore, of Fredericton, spent this week in the city.

Mr. T. S. DesBrisay, of Bathurst, was in the city for a few days this week, the guest of Mrs. Charles Macdonald.

I understand Judge King and family will shortly start on a trip to England and the continent. Miss Blanche Drury also leaves next month for England, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Curtis. Mr. George Young, who has been the guest of Dr. Harding for the last few months, returned to his home in England last week.

Mr. John Rusk, collector of customs, Richibucto, is in the city.

A most interesting and well written story from the pen of Miss Sarah Nicholson appears in the last edition of the Dominion Illustrated. I must congratulate Miss Nicholson in this her first effort as an

Mr. David Maclaren, who has spent the last few weeks in the South, has returned to St. John, and is staving with his parents, Charlotte street. He will return to England in a short time.

Mr. W. Godfrey, of the Bank of British North America, has been ordered to Montreal, where he gets promotion. Mrs. Godfrey and family will join him there next month.

Mr. Wentworth Winslow, of the Bank of Montreal, has been ordered to fill a post at the head office, (Montreal) for which place he left this week. Mr. Winslow will be much missed by the young ladies of St. John, with whom he was a great favorite. Mr. Owen Campbell has returned home from a three weeks holiday.

Dr. Disbrow, of Bathurst, is the guest of Mrs. Robertson, Princess street.

Mrs. Thomas Hanford will remove in May from her present restdence, Princess street, to Charlotte

I understand that Mrs. Andrew Cowie and family will remove to Nova Scotia in the early spring. The residence at present occupied by her has been rented to one of our leading dentists, whom rumor says will not occupy it alone.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Street, of St. Andrews, will remove to St. John shortly.

Mrs. Smith, widow of the late Mr. Woodford Smith, Fredericton, will make her home in St. John. Lieut. J. Harry Kaye, of the 62nd St. John Fusiliers, has been ordered to Kingston, Ont., to take a two months' course at the Military college

Mr. W. B. Carvill left on Wednesday last for Boston and New York. Miss Vail, of Bathurst, is in the city. She is staying at Mrs. Chapman's, Elliot row. TERPSICHORE.

On Mondoy evening, Mr. T. A. Hall gave his daughter, Miss Edith, a sleighing party, and a few of her little friends were asked. Those present were Misses Agnes and Mamie Blizard, Miss Annie Smith, Misses Rebie, Emilie and Lulu McAvity, Miss Ella Francis, Miss Daisy Fairweather and Miss Gladis McLaughlan.

St. John-West End.

I understand that the West End is to lose Mrs. A. C. Musgrove, as a resident. She will leave for Tacoma in a couple of weeks to join her husband, Tacoma in a couple of weeks to join her husband, Dr. Musgrove, who has been very successful in his profession in Tacoma. Mrs. Musgrove will be much missed by a large circle of friends, who wish her every happiness in her Western home.

Mr. George Clark and his wife, of Boston, are the guests of his father, on Ludlow street.

Mrs. Mary Thompson, who has been spending a few days with her friend, Mrs. Watson Allan, on Leinster street, East End, has returned home.

Rev. Wm. Stuart, formerly pastor of the West End Presbyterian church, has accepted a call to the Presbyterian church at Franklin, New Jersey, and will leave shortly with his family for his new home. will leave shortly with his family for his new home. This will be another one of those many losses the West End has had to sustain lately. Mr. Stuart has acquired many friends during his residence with us, and I need not say how universally his removal will be regretted. The Misses Stuart will leave behind a marrying host of friends, and Miss Katio's being the a mourning host of friends, and Miss Katie's bright face will leave a great blank in the circle where she has ever been a general favorite. They say, however, that "no disease is without its remedy," surely the "tremedy," will be restricted.

PROGRESS is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Haw-

MARCH 13.—Last Saturday while looking over my letter in Progress, I found two distinct items merged into one, thereby making an erroneous and decidedly untruthful statement. In justice to those mentioned in these items, as well as to myself, I must make the following corrections. The items as I wrote them were that: Miss Beatrice Waring, of Fairville, is the guest

PROGRESS is for sale in Chatham at Edward Johnston's bookstore.]

MARCH 12 .- I am sorry Marysville has been neglected for so long, as there were some very enjoyable parties held worthy of mention. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tapley's Halma party was a great success.

Mrs. C. II. Hatt and Miss Mary Gibson entertained a large and select number of their lady friends at a five o'clock tea last evening at the residence of their father, Mr. Alex. Gibson. A very enjoyable evening was spent. Those who wished adjourned to the rink by invitation of Miss Gibson, while a few remained to be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. Hatt.
Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Miss Dora Kirk-

MONCTON.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Moneton at the book stores of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main

MARCH 12.—Driving and tobogganing parties are the popular amusements of the day in Moncton. Moonlight nights and good roads supply the motive for the former, and the excellent condition of Dunlap's hill is enough to charm any one who own a toboggan, or has a friend who owns one, to try his luck at that fascinating sport.

By the way, perhaps the outside world may feel inclined to indulge in an incredulous shrug when I mention a hill in connection with Moncton, but the mention a hill in connection with Moncton, but the fact remains all the same. We have a hill, and a very respectable one, too, which has been thronged every evening for the past week with the beauty and chivalry of the town, and a most delightful time they have had. The hill is not steep enough to be dangerous, but yet has quite enough slope to carry the ordinary toboggan quite as far as the average tobogganer cares to walk back, though somehow you never seem to get tired at this delightful sport. you never seem to get tired at this delightful sport Snowshoeing and skating may leave you stiff and aching, but I have never met any one yet who was tired out next day after a toboggan party.

I would really be afraid to say how many driving parties there were last week. Shediac seems to be the objective point, but still a great many Moncton people drove to Hilsboro last Wednesday evening, to attend the carnival at the rink. The truth is it is such a long time since we have seen a carnival. is, it is such a long time since we have seen a carnival that it is really a novelty to us now, and worth driving seven miles to see.

The same evening another driving party wended its way Shediacwards, and still again on Thursday evening six sleighs with "youth at the helm and pleasure at the prow," drove merrily over to Shediac, once more, and after their occupants had partaken of supper at the Weldon House and spent an hour or two in rest and enjoyment, they returned, reaching home at midnight, tired but happy.

I believe another party of the same description is in contemplation for tomorrow evening, and the inference one would naturally draw from the foregoing is that Moncton society people may be abstaining from dancing and even to a moderate degree from whist, but they are not injuring their health by a too strict observance of Lent.

strict observance of Lent.

Speaking of whist reminds me that Mrs. C. F. Hanington's whist party, last Wednesday, was a most delightful break in the dull season, winding up as it did with just the smallest suspicion in the world of a dance, which was doubly enjoyed on account of its slight flavor of stolen sweets. There were some forty guests, amongst whom I noticed one very charming stranger, Miss Peters, of Dor cheter, who is visiting Mrs. Hanington.

Mr. George F. Fair and party left town on Friday on their transcontinental tour, and I am sure their many friend will join me in wishing them fair winds and prosperous weather, if such a wish will be of and prosperous weather, if such a wish will be of any use to them on an overland journey.

Mr. J. H. Wetmore, leader of the Methodist church choir, took a trip to Halifax last week, at the request of the congregation, to inspect a pipe organ which had been offered for sale, and which the church intended purchasing. Mr. Wetmore's report being unfavorable they have decided to wait a little longer, and very wisely, I think, as a second-hand organ is always a risky speculation.

The many friends of Mrs. George H. Pick, wife of

The many friends of Mrs. George H. Pick, wife of the assistant general freight agent of the I. C. R., heard last Friday that she had passed peacefully away. Her death was a very literal passing "from darkness into light," for Mrs. Pick had been an invalid for many years, and during the last few years of her life a terrible sufferer from that worst of life's ills, cancer. Her funeral took place on Sunday afternoon from St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal church, and was one of the largest ever seen in Moneton.

Mr. H. A. Powell, M. P. P., delivered his lecture on William Pitt, in the opera house, last evening, and is to be congratulated upon the size of his audience-some 400 being present, as Moncton people seldom turn out well for the lecture. This one, however, was very well received, and it was in every way a thoughtful and powerful description of the great statesman's life and work. Judge Bots-ford presided, and at the end of the lecture a vote of thanks was moved by Mr. G. B. Willett and seconded by Dr. McCully.

We have several cases of scarlet fever in town, fortunately of a mild type. Mrs. C. F. Hanington's little daughter was one of the first victims, but she is now convalescent. is now convalescent. Mr. H. T. Stevens, M. P. P., lett for Fredericton yesterday to be present at the opening of the House tomorrow. Mr. Stevens was accompanied by Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. J. D. Ross.

At the present time of writing the entertainme At the present time of writing the entertainment given by the ladies who are interested in the Y. M. C. A., is in full blast, and so far it is a great success. I believe they took in $100 last night. The idea of the "Old Curiosity Shop" is a novel one in Moncton, and it has been admirably carried out. Mr. George McSweeney kindly placed his building on Main street at the disposal of the ladies who cleaned and decorated it till it looks like—well—like a tower of Chinese lanterns, Japanese umbrellas and bright draperies. Last evening a high tea consisting of everything that could tempt the most fastidious palate was served from five o'clock till seven, and I think I am safe in saying that the whole of Moncton upper ten to a man and a woman sat down to that same tea.

There were many houses in town last night in which the family teapot stood upon the pantry shelf unwarmed, unhonored, and unsinging, like Othello after he had assisted the lovely Desdemona out of the world with its occupation gone pro tem.

One of the chief attractions of the evening was the Japanese tea room, a dainty little box hung with paper banners and Japanese draperies, and lavishly decorated with Japanese umbrellas, where three charming young ladies in Japanese costumes dispensed tiny cups of tea for the nominal consideration of five cents. The presiding angels of this little sanctuary were Miss Knight, Miss Maggie Taylor and Miss Clara Marr and a very piquante picture they formed in their bright, quaint garments sitting cross—hem!—cross-footed on the floor, on their little rugs, in true

The Old Curiosity Shop, which gave the name to the entertainment, was well worth a visit, and one felt surprised at the number of curiosities collected in our town in such a short time. There were old in our town in such a short time. There were old books, a cashmere shawl 200 years old, a silk shawl worn by royalty—but whether by some dusky Mararanee or not I cannot say—Chinese slippers, a sofa once owned by Judge Haliburton, a pair of candlesticks 100 years old, and many other articles of "bigotry and virtue" too numerous to mention. A New England tea will be served this evening, and should I survive a too liberal indulgence in baked beans and pork, pancakes, dowdy and hot rolls, I will tell you all about it next week. If I should succumb to the accumulation of New England dainties, see that on my tombstone is written Bene bene. That is the only
